Gould Has No Hand in Suit Against Little Kanwaha.

JONES IS INDEPENDENT

Asks Receiver for Property Because He Claims Contract With Him Is Unfulfilled.

DISPUTE CONTROL OF PROXIES

THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE BUREAU,
Herald Building, Herald Square.
NEW YORK, Sept. 26.

Wall street manifested considerable interest in a dispatch from Cincinnati, which stated that John S. Jones of Chicago, had made an application in the United States circuit court for the appointment of a receiver for the community of interests known as the Little Kanawha syndicate.

As the chief interests in this syndicate are George J. Gould, Joseph Ramsey, Jr., president of the Wabash, and William F. Guy of St. Louis, the first inference was that persons inimical to Mr. Ramsey were determined to block his plans to dispose of the Little Kanawha property to the Pittsburgh & Lake Erie.

According to original plans, the Little Kanawha was to be the connecting link between the eastern extension of the Wabash from Pittsburgh and the Western Maryland. Owing to differences of opinion that arose between Mr. Gould and Mr. Ramsey, the latter disposed of the property to New York Central interests.

According to a statement made tonight by Mr. Ramsey, however, he, Mr. Gould and Mr. Guy are in accord as to the sale of the Little Kanawha, and the application is in nowise influenced by Wabash interests.

Jones Acts Independently.

Mr. Jones, who is a Chicago capitalist, is a holder of $100,000 worth of stock in the syndicate, in which he is one of the original underwriters. He is also owner of 18,000 acres of coal land in Southern Ohio. He brought suit several months ago against Messrs. Gould and Ramsey for their failure to carry out an alleged agreement to buy the lands. The Little Kahawha interests maintain they never entered into any such agreement.

Authoritative denial was made today of the report that Mr. Gould had agreed to make concessions to the Wabash debenture B bondholders, in return for their support at the coming meeting in Toledo, O. Members of the bondholders' committee said no overtures of any such nature had reached them. The Gould interests also officially denied the story.

It was stated by persons close to Mr. Gould today that the latter had now in his possession proxies for a large majority of Wabash security, and that there was no danger his control of the property could be disputed at the coming meeting.

PEN MIGHTIER THAN SWORD

Meeting of the State Editorial Association Proves the Old Proverb.

BUSY SESSION IS ENJOYED

That "the pen is mightier than the sword," is exemplified by 200 visiting newspaper men in Pittsburgh, who are attending the convention of the Pennsylvania State Editorial association. The old proverb about the overwhelming power of the pen was recalled to the editors yesterday afternoon by Col. W. C. Connelly, Jr., Pittsburgh manager of the Associated Press, in his address welcoming the visitors to the city on behalf of the local newspaper publishers. Nearly every important newspaper in the state is represented—newspapers that reach more than 4,000,000 readers every week. An army, with a sword in every man's hand, could not be more powerful.

The editors, accompanied by their wives and families, arrived in Pittsburgh yesterday morning and spent a busy day in securing their credentials and in keeping pace with the sightseeing tours which were provided by the convention committees of the Merchants and Manufacturers' association and the Pittsburgh Press club.

Thirty-Mile Trolley Ride.

During the afternoon a 30-mile trolley ride was enjoyed as the guests of J. D. Callery, president of the Pittsburgh Railways Company, and last night the visitors were given the choice of inspecting the Ward-Mackey bakery, or visiting Luna park or the Exposition. The crowds were well divided in each case and the novelties provided for each excursion were enjoyed to the utmost.

The crowd at Luna park was the largest of the season. It was jointly celebrated as "editors' day" and "M. and M. day." Fifty thousand complimentary tickets had been sent out, and it seemed that every one was used during the evening. Ten barrels of confetti were showered upon the journalists and their pretty wives and daughters. All the side shows were thrown open to the visitors. They rode the scenic railway, shot the chutes and overlooked nothing.

All Got to the Park.

Many went to the Exposition early in the evening, but it seemed that all took in the great ensemble at the park in time to participate in the jolly scenes at the closing of the gates at 11 o'clock. All the ladies of the visiting delegation were presented with a hand-painted celery dish by Fred Ingersoll, manager of the park.

Among the souvenirs which will be carried away by the editors with cherished memories is the tiny facsimile sheet reproducing the first pages of The Gazette of yesterday morning and the Chronicle Telegraph of Monday evening. The small sheets set forth in concise form the story of the arrival of the city's distinguished guests. On the inside of the folio is the official program, printed in condensed form, and a poem by Theodore H. Boice welcoming the quill-drivers from up the state.

Charles Emory Smith, editor of the Philadelphia Press, and former post-

KILL WOMEN AND CHILDREN BY STARVATION IN KONGO

France Faces Worse Scandal in Her African Colony Than Does Belgium—Late Count De Brazza's Report Is Blistering.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS TO THE GAZETTE.]

PARIS, Sept. 26.—M. Clemental, minister of the colonies, today received the report of the mission to the French Kongo sent out last spring under Count de Brazza, who, on the return journey, died at Dakar, a seaport of French West Africa.

In connection with the sending of this mission a considerable sensation was aroused owing to the publication of charges against M. Gentil, commissioner-general of the French Kongo, alleging maladministration and great cruelty toward the natives. M. Gentil is now in Paris in a precarious state of health.

Among the cases of cruelty cited in the report is that of a number of natives who were flogged to death with knotted whips. It is also asserted that, in order to force the natives to pay taxes, the colonial office at Bangui, in May, 1904, imprisoned 58 women and 30 children, and that within five weeks 47 of these died of starvation.

A letter from Count de Brazza, dated August 24, just before the beginning of his fatal return journey, throws light on the explorer's opinions of what he saw in the Kongo. In it he says:

"I found the conditions at Bangui intolerable. The population there was being destroyed by requisitions. Everything was done to hide the true state of affairs from the mission, which, however, discovered serious abuses. No reform is possible without a change of administration. I return with the belief that the dispatch of my mission was necessary, as otherwise in a short time we should have to face worse scandals than those confronted by the Belgians."

Minister Clementel is determined to thoroughly investigate the charges after the national funeral over the remains of Count de Brazza.

CHIEFS OF SAMOA APPLAUD UNCLE SAM

Natives Express Pleasure at the Beneficence of American Rule.

[BY PRIVATE WIRE TO THE GAZETTE.]

WASHINGTON, Sept. 26.—In acknowledging the receipt of watches, medals and other tokens sent to them a year ago by order of the president, the high chiefs of the Manua group of the Samoan islands express the highest appreciation of the beneficence of American rule.

When it was arranged to dissolve the tripartite government of the islands and the Manua group fell to the United States, while the remainder of the islands were divided between Germany and Great Britain, this government, in order to make a material acknowledgment of the alacrity with which the native chiefs deeded their sovereignty to the United States, sent them watches and medals.

These gifts were accompanied by a letter, expressing the gratification of the government and people of the United States for the action of the chieftains in voluntarily ceding the islands to the United States. Chief Tiamanua says it was unanimously resolved by the leading people of Manua, in council convened, that he should forward to the president their thanks for the many blessings of which they have been the recipients since the United States took charge of the islands.

HIGHWAY ROBBERY NEAR THE SAFETY PALACE

Beaver Man Is Held Up in Cherry Alley—Thief Threw Watch Through Window.

George Hicks of Beaver, Pa., was assaulted and robbed last night within a stone's throw of the Central police station. He was walking in Cherry alley, and at Oliver avenue two men jumped on him and, knocking him down with a piece of lead pipe, took his watch and $6. One of the thieves, in his flight, became frightened and threw the watch through the second-story window of Patrick Richards' house in Dante alley, and it was taken to the police station.

Policeman Charles Lenker saw the assault. The thieves saw the policeman and ran out Oliver avenue to Grant street. Here they separated. One ran out Webster avenue and the other out Dante alley. Both escaped.

STATE POLICE IN SIXTY DAYS.

Supt. Groome Will Report to Gov. Pennypacker Next Monday on His Observations in Ireland.

HARRISBURG, Sept. 26.—(Special.)—Supt. Groome of the new state police force will report to Gov. Pennypacker next Monday the result of his visit to Ireland to inspect the constabulary of that country.

Groome is now on his way home on the steamshhip Oceanic and he is expected to arrive in Philadelphia on Thursday. He expects to recruit, organize and have his force [illegible] at his farm back of Coraopolis.

WORK ADVANCING FAST ON CANAL

Chief Engineer Stevens Is Getting Good Results at the Isthmus.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS TO THE GAZETTE.]

PANAMA, Sept. 26.—The work of John F. Stevens, the chief engineer of the Panama canal and general manager of the Panama railroad, is beginning to show results.

The new 1,900 foot dock at La Boca will be finished September 30; the dock at Cristobal will be completed by the middle of October, and the work on the railroad to be connected with the canal zone is advancing satisfactorily.

Over 2,000 new laborers from Barbadoes and Colombia have been employed since September 1.

AND THE PENCIL HAS NOT LOST ITS POINT

Doctor Removes It from Man's Appendix, Where It Had Lain for Two Years After He Swallowed It.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS TO THE GAZETTE.]

CHICAGO, Sept. 26.—Robert Hanners, a baker, 24 years old, walked into the county hospital this evening and announced to the physician in charge: "Doctor, two years ago I swallowed a lead pencil, and I believe it is bothering me a bit."

The doctor laughed at him, but Hanners stuck to his story, and complained of a severe pain in his right side. His case was diagnosed as appendicitis, and as a case that required immediate operation.

The pencil, five inches in length, and sharpened at one end, was found imbedded in the appendix as Hanners had predicted. Hanners will recover.

DREAMING IS PROFITABLE.

Ohio Farmer Finds a Large Oil Well on His Farm as Indicated in a Dream.

STEUBENVILLE, O., Sept. 26.—(Special.)—Several months ago Thomas Johnson dreamed if he would drill a well in a certain part of his land in Island Creek township he would strike oil. After hard work he persuaded neighbors to join with him in putting down a test well.

It came in today and is producing 20 barrels a day. It is believed it will settle down to about five barrels. More wells will be sunk.

Capt. Dravo Gradually Sinking.

BEAVER, PA., Sept. 26.—(Special.)—Capt. John F. Dravo was reported to be gradually sinking at his home tonight. He is conscious, however, and talks with members of the family. Ex-Judge Henry Rice, whose condition is still serious, shows improvement, and the physicians believe there is no immediate cause for alarm.

Pittsburghers in Paris.

PARIS, Sept. 26.—(Special Cable.)—Among the Americans in Paris today are [illegible] and Miss Frances Barnsdall of Pittsburgh.

CITIZENS VISIT ROCKEFELLER

Standard Oil Magnate Eulogized by His Cleveland Admirers at His Home.

MAKES A SPEECH IN REPLY

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS TO THE GAZETTE.]

CLEVELAND, O., Sept. 26.—Several hundred representative men of Cleveland called on John D. Rockefeller at his home in Forest Hill this afternoon, and through Andrew Squire, a prominent attorney, and L. E. Holden, proprietor of the Cleveland Plain Dealer, expressed to Mr. Rockefeller their esteem for him as a citizen and as a great business man.

The gathering included merchants, lawyers, clergymen, educators and men in the humbler walks of life. Forming at the entrance to the estate, the assemblage walked up the steep hill to the old-fashioned summer home overlooking the city and country. Through Mr. Squire every person was presented to shake hands with Mr. Rockefeller. There were personal statements of good will from those who greeted Mr. Rockefeller, who in response thanked each person for the kindly expressions and esteem. Mrs. Rockefeller was present.

Oil King Is Eulogized.

After all the guests had been presented to Mr. Rockefeller, an adjournment was taken to the veranda, and in the presence of the entire assemblage, which had gathered on the lawn immediately below, Mr. Squire made an address to Mr. Rockefeller, giving expression to words of eulogy and regard for the man whom he said had been a resident of the city for 40 years.

Mr. Squire referred to the question of railroad rate legislation, saying it was a subject which like many others, had been discussed glibly, and the loudest declamations came from those who knew least about the subject. He said the competition common between producers, consumers and transporters did more to regulate rates than all else. He asked if it was not a question whether the men engaged in great commercial enterprises were not more entitled to monuments than to indiscriminate condemnation.

Mr. Squire said the principle of the "survival of the fittest" is a law too firmly established to be overturned or long delayed even by legislative enactments. He said that since the organization of the Standard Oil Company there has been no water in its stock. He adverted and history, he said, have taught a mighty lesson in keeping accurate account of costs. In turning to profit all seemingly waste products and in quietly, harmoniously and continuously developing its great enterprises and supplying its products at reasonable prices.

World's Greatest Organizer.

Mr. Squire said Cleveland and Ohio had produced many great men in their particular lines, but in the knowledge of the laws of trade, in grasping and in applying them, in creating and building up far-reaching industries, it is doubtful if the world has ever produced a greater man than Mr. Rockefeller.

After a brief address by Mr. Holden, in which he spoke in appreciation of Mr. Rockefeller's many benefactions to the city, Mr. Rockefeller made a brief address, almost entirely reminiscent of his residence in Cleveland, and of the growth of the city. He said, speaking especially to the younger men present, that there is something more to life than mere money-getting.

"Turn your thoughts upon the higher things of life," said Mr. Rockefeller. "Be of service to humanity. Turn your thoughts into channels of usefulness; look forward to a determination that something useful shall come out of your success. Let your question be, 'What shall be the fruitage of my career? Shall it be the endowment of hospitals, churches, schools and asylums?' Do everything you can for the betterment of your fellow men and, in doing this, you will enjoy life the better."

RECORD FLOUR ORDER.

It Is for 180,000 Barrels to Be Shipped Immediately to Vladivostok.

China Order Also.

SEATTLE, WASH., Sept. 26.—An order for 180,000 barrels of flour to be delivered immediately has been placed with a local flour mill by Vladivostok flour merchants. This is the largest single order ever placed on the Pacific coast.

New orders for Hongkong and Shanghai delivery are being received, and an [illegible] orders placed before the boycott was proclaimed have been confirmed.

WIRES CROSS DEMOCRACY

Mixup Has Double Significance in Westmoreland County.

TIRADE BY CASTLE

Pittsburgh Prohibitionist Attempts to Create a Sensation at Greensburg.

BERRY HAS DIFFICULT TASK

SPECIAL TELEGRAM FROM
WALTER J. CHRISTY, STAFF CORRESPONDENT.

GREENSBURG, PA., Sept. 26.—Westmoreland Democrats are not much given to mixing their politics or their drinks. Occasionally they will split a ticket to help out a Republican, but the idea of swapping with the Prohibitionists is not pleasing. When Berry gets the returns from Westmoreland he will find hundreds of Democrats have refused to give assistance to the water wagon party.

William H. Berry and Homer Castle appeared here tonight. It happens they showed in Keagy's theater. This was once the great playhouse of Greensburg, but it was forced to the rear a few years ago when a more modern place of entertainment was opened. Since then the Keagy has been run exclusively as a burlesque house, and the man who is particular has not taken his girl to the show. This explains why the Prohibitionists had a notice inserted in one of the evening papers that it would be all right for the women to attend.

While Berry's reception was a little more cheerful than the one he received at Uniontown last night, it would have had icicles on it and it not been for the courtesy of the Republicans.

Telephone centrals have a habit of doing the wrong thing or not doing anything. Today one did the wrong thing, but it turned out all right.

The Wires Were Crossed.

This afternoon John F. Wentling, Jr., secretary of the Republican county committee, was sitting in headquarters. There was a call on the telephone and he answered it. This is what happened:

"Pittsburgh wants to talk with Chairman Stoner," said central.

"Mr. Stoner is not here, but I will take the message," said Mr. Wentling.

There was a short delay and then Mr. Wentling heard:

"This is James M. Guffey. Mr. Berry will arrive on the 5:45 o'clock train from Pittsburgh. Have him met with a carriage and do the thing right."

"I think you have made a mistake, Col. Guffey, this is Republican headquarters," said Mr. Wentling.

Something was heard from the Pittsburgh end which sounded like "Oh, well."

Mr. Wentling, of course, spread the information that Berry was coming to town. Greensburg is a hospitable city, and party lines were forgotten in the effort to give him a rousing reception. Paul J. Head, son of John B. Head, Democratic candidate for superior court judge, was delegated to go to the station to meet Berry. The thing was done "right," and the credit all belongs to Mr. Wentling and the telephone girl who got the wires crossed.

Hurts Home Industries.

Democrats do not take kindly to the blending of Democracy and Prohibition. In a way, the bringing here of men to make temperance speeches is a blow at home industries. Westmoreland is one of the very large producers of rye whisky. It is also quite a brewer of beer and a consumer of both. Most of the production and the consumption is in the hands of the Democracy. In its declaration of political principles, the downing of the rum traffic does not have a place.

There were about 800 persons in the theater and most of them were Prohibitionists. A few Democrats were present, notable among the number being John H. Head and James S. Moorhead. It was a question of policy for them to be present. There were also a few Republicans, out of courtesy to Col. Guffey. Mr. Wentling attended.

Henry S. Gill, the Prohibition county chairman, presided at the meeting. Mr. Castle of Pittsburgh was the first speaker. He has found that he has to mention names if he intends to tell stories about the alleged "farming" of state deposits.

"Some of my opponents," said he, "think it is awful for me to make charges without giving names. I will now make two charges. In either January or February, 1901, William H. Andrews, Francis J. Torrance and another Kennedy were, as a bank in Pittsburgh. I will not mention the name of the bank. They proposed to put into the vaults of this bank $100,000 of state money on condition they be loaned $50,000. The agreement was consummated. So far as I know the note is still in the bank. The institution now has a deposit of more than $100,000.

Only Named a Dead Man.

"In this state there is a corporation known as the United Telephone and Telegraph Company. I do not know its incorporators or its stockholders, but much of the stock is said to be held among politicians. The company has many bonds to sell. Its representative was Ward R. Bliss of Delaware county, who is now dead, but in following the details of this story his name must be used. Bliss went to men who had influence with banks. He told them he would sell them bonds at 75 cents and permit them to sell them to banks for 80 cents or anything above that figure it was possible to get. The original purchaser was authorized to promise the bankers that they would be given a state deposit of $3 for every $1 invested in the telephone bonds.

"These men who used the money of the state treasury to make money should be compelled to repay every cent of profit they made."

Mr. Castle neglects to mention the names of the living men who participated in the alleged bond transaction. The whole load is shoved on to a dead man. Mr. Castle asked several question tonight, addressing his inquiries to Senator Penrose. The purpose of the queries is to learn whether Castle or Penrose is a liar.

Strange Democratic Speech.

Mr. Castle made a strong appeal for the abolishment of the saloon. Then he took up the Democrats, and among other things said:

"I have a great many sins charged up to me, but the voting of the Democratic ticket is not one of them."

Sitting next to the writer was an old Democrat of Westmoreland. He simply remarked:

"Now isn't that a hell of a Democratic speech?"

Mr. Berry finds it difficult to balance himself properly between the Democrats and Prohibitionists. He admitted tonight he found himself in the same position as the man sitting between the two girls and thinking how happy he would be with either fair charmer away. "It would be easy," said he, "for me to make a Prohibition speech, if all of the others were away. I cannot make a Prohibition speech with Judge Head sitting in the audience. It is not up to me to make any false pretenses or excuses. I believe you will understand my position."

Mr. Berry spent today with Col. Guffey in Pittsburgh. Of the attempt of Col. Guffey to land the Citizens nomination for him, Mr. Berry says he is certain Col. Guffey is doing everything in his power to get him as many votes as possible.

TORRANCE KNOWS NOTHING OF ALLEGED TRANSACTION

He Says He Does Not Wish to Dignify Castle's Utterances With a Denial.

When asked last night relative to his knowledge of any transaction such as was charged by Homer Castle, at Greensburg, Mr. Torrance said:

"I cannot recall any such transaction. I do not wish to dignify Mr. Castle's utterances with a denial and am satisfied to let him run his rampant course. I will not discuss his charges at all."

Arthur Kennedy, whose interests require him to spend a great portion of his time in New York, was not at home last night. William H. Andrews was also out of the city last night, having gone east Sunday night.

NOT AIMED AT RAMSEY

When informed of this Mr. Ramsey still expressed confidence of his ability to claim a majority at the meeting. "No doubt," said Mr. Ramsey. "Mr. Gould and I have proxies for the same securities. This is a question which can only be settled at the annual meeting."

Notice of Suit Filed.

CINCINNATI, O., Sept. 26.—Application for the appointment of a receiver for the community of interests, known as the Little Kanawha syndicate, was filed in the United States court today. The plaintiff is John S. Jones, holder of $100,000 worth of stock in the syndicate. Judge Richards set October 9 for the hearing.

A restraining order was issued temporarily preventing the three defendants from "selling, contracting to sell, transferring or parting with" any property of the Kanawha syndicate. The grounds set forth in the bill of complaint are numerous. Among other things it is alleged the "antagonistic attitude" of Gould and Ramsey is detrimental to the welfare of the syndicate; that an effort is being made by the defendants that might result in profit at the expense of the lesser holders; that Ramsey and Guy have voted that any two of the three heads of the syndicate may transact its business, thus eliminating Gould; that the lands are being sold at about one-half of their true value.

The plaintiff takes no side between Ramsey and Gould, but the action is brought to protect the plaintiff and those holders who may be similarly situated.

It is alleged in the petition that $8,000,000 has been subscribed, of which Gould put in $3,000,000, Ramsey $300,000, Guy $300,000, James T. Blair, $100,000, Edward Fulton $100,000 and others like and smaller amounts. It is alleged that the heavy subscribers have not paid in over 5 per cent of their subscriptions; that an inquiry should be made as to how the money has been spent; that the managers put $700,000 into the construction of a railway from Zanesville, O., to the Ohio river and then abandoned it when it was found that the new line would not be for the advantage of other enterprises in which the managers were engaged; that information as to the progress of affairs has been refused this petitioner.

TERMS OF THE ANGLO-JAPANESE TREATY ARE NOW MADE PUBLIC

[By Associated Press to The Gazette.]

LONDON, Sept. 26.—The text of the Anglo-Japanese treaty signed August 12 was issued from the foreign office this evening, together with a dispatch to the British ambassador at St. Petersburg, forwarding a copy of the agreement with instructions to communicate it to the Russian government. The treaty contains eight clauses and a long preamble. The latter states the object of the treaty is the maintenance of general peace in Asia and India and the preservation of the interests of all the powers in China by insuring the integrity of China.

The main features of the new agreement have already been forecasted. The plain articles of the official text, however, bring out forcefully the tremendous importance to both countries of this alliance which practically makes Great Britain and Japan one for the purposes of defense "in the regions of East Asia and India." This inclusion of India specifically as a point at which any aggression by a foreign power will call for the assistance of Japan finds much favor with the press of London, the morning papers, in long laudatory articles welcoming the new and more extensive alliance of the two insular kingdoms west and east as giving immediate relief from the dangerous thundercloud which for so many years has hung over the Indian frontier.

Article III. of the treaty says: "Japan, possessing paramount political, military and economic rights in Korea, Great Britain recognizes Japan's right to take such measures for the guidance, control and protection of Korea as she may deem proper and necessary to safeguard and advance those interests, providing the measures are not contrary to the principle of equal opportunity for all commerce."

Article IV. says: "Japan recognizes the rights of Great Britain to take such measures in proximity to her Indian frontier as are necessary to safeguard her Indian possessions."

Article VI. states: "As regards the present war between Japan and Russia Great Britain will continue to maintain strict neutrality unless some other power or powers join in hostilities against Japan, in which case Great Britain will come to the assistance of Japan, will conduct war in common and will make peace in mutual agreement with Japan."

The treaty is signed by Foreign Secretary Lansdowne on behalf of Great Britain and by Baron Hayashi, the Japanese minister, on behalf of Japan. Lord Lansdowne says, in his message to the British minister at St. Petersburg: "The Russian government will, I trust, recognize that this new agreement is an international instrument, to which no exception can be taken by any of the powers interested in the affairs of the far east.

"Great Britain, I believe, may count on the good will and support of all the powers in endeavoring to maintain peace in Eastern Asia, and in seeking to uphold the integrity and independence of the Chinese empire and the principle of equal opportunities for the commerce and industry of all nations in that empire. On the other hand, the interests of the contracting parties are of a kind upon which they are fully entitled to insist, and the announcement that those interests must be safeguarded is one which can create no surprise and need give rise to no misgivings."

Baron Hayashi said:

"The new treaty forms an effective safeguard against the renewal of disturbances in the far east. That is its object. We cannot say that a permanent peace has been secured—that is too much to be sure of, but we can aver that tranquility has been assured for a long time to come. This applies not only to Great Britain and Japan, but also to all powers having political or commercial interests in that part of the world; in fact, to all who have been interested in maintaining the status quo."

Sir Charles Dilke took the position that the new treaty makes no change in the pre-existing status quo, but said it was an inevitable consequence of the new conditions in the far east, and that it was certainly a stronger guarantee of the maintenance of peace than the previous alliance. He argued that Russia never really was a menace to the Indian frontier, but merely played on the susceptibilities of Great Britain. With regard to Persia, Sir Charles did not believe that Russia would ever risk a quarrel with India.

While there is some criticism of the treaty in the radical newspapers, it is only half-hearted and, as a whole, London which has been anxiously awaiting the breaking of official silence with regard to the document, heaves a sigh of relief and greets with great satisfaction the positive assurance of the future assistance of a powerful oriental ally in all matters pertaining to far eastern policies.

MIGHTIER THAN SWORD

master general, will arrive in Pittsburgh today to be principal honor guest at the banquet which will be held in the Schenley tonight.

Arrival of the Delegates.

The delegates arrived in the city on the early trains yesterday morning. They stopped at the various hotels, but at noon there was a rush to the Schenley, where headquarters were opened and where the informal reception was scheduled to take place. Upon the presentation of the credentials and the issuing of badges, the guests, after luncheon, were escorted into the banquet hall, where the addresses of welcome were delivered. There was no time for formalities. The delegates stood on their feet in the big hall while brief addresses were delivered, and at the close they broke for the Forbes street entrance of the hotel, where street cars were waiting to take them on an excursion of the residence and industrial sections of Greater Pittsburgh.

John G. Stephenson, Jr., chairman of the convention committee of the Merchants and Manufacturers' association, introduced Col. Connelly, who spoke for the local editors in welcoming the visitors to the city. He said:

Col. Connelly's Eloquent Greeting.

It affords me inexpressible pleasure to have the honor of welcoming you on behalf of your Pittsburgh fellow members in the profession of journalism in the city. The journalist is the advance agent of civilization, and the newspaper is the herald of progress.

You gentlemen possess a mightier power than you appreciate, and Sergius White, Russia's peace envoy, never uttered a more truthful word when on leaving our shores he said: "I appreciate more fully now than ever the fact that the pen is mightier than the sword."

And so I trust that these few days which you will spend with us will be days of profit as well as of pleasure. We will enjoy your presence here quite as much as you will, I trust, enjoy being with us.

We hope that your visit will linger in your memory like the brilliant high lights on some picture, or as a thread of gold in the woof of a beautiful fabric. Gentlemen, I again repeat in all earnestness, in all sincerity, in all fellowship, the newspaper editors and publishers of Pittsburgh extend to you a hearty welcome to this city.

Mayor Hays was on the platform, having been escorted by the publishers of the leading Pittsburgh daily papers. City Solicitor W. B. Rodgers spoke for the mayor and lauded the editors. He said the doors of the city had been thrown open to the visitors and the key had been thrown away.

President Pomeroy Responds.

A. Nevin Pomeroy, president of the association, responded in brief remarks, thanking Pittsburgh, the Merchants and Manufacturers' association, the Pittsburgh publishers and the Pittsburgh Press club.

Souvenirs and badges and the visitors soon hurried away in six special trolley cars which were waiting in Forbes street. After a ride of three hours, during which time the newspaper men marveled at the magnificence of Pittsburgh homes and the magnitude of Pittsburgh industrial plants, the guests were glad to dine and break away for an evening of relaxation.

At 9 o'clock this morning a business session will be held by the editors at the Schenley. In the meantime the ladies will be the guests of the Press in an automobile trip around the city. At 1:30 o'clock in the afternoon the visitors will embark on Capt. John F. Klein's new steamer, the Island Queen, for a trip around the harbors.

Banquet at the Schenley.

The banquet will be held at the Schenley at 8 o'clock, Congressman James Francis Burke being toastmaster. The speakers will be Charles Emory Smith, James W. Wardrop, John H. Jones, Arthur G. Burgoyne and Congressman John Dalzell.

Tomorrow will be spent in a trip over the Pittsburgh railway terminals as the guests of the Pennsylvania Railroad Company. In the evening a "night in Bohemia" will serve to while away dull care.

Amid all this merry-making the editors have not forgotten to talk shop, and many of the visiting delegates have called at the local newspaper offices. Pittsburgh newspaper plants are larger and better equipped than in any city of similar size in the country, and the men from up the state have been enabled to study and understand how a great metropolitan newspaper is made. The Gazette has had many visitors. In honor of the visitors, Conrad Altenburger, The Gazette's art manager, has the illustrating rooms artistically decorated. Payne, the Coon man, has been at home, and nobody failed to recognize the favorite newspaper mascot.

Police Think Man Was Drugged.

Special Officer Michael Feeney yesterday morning arrested George McDonald, a railroad conductor of New York City. McDonald was supposed to be drunk, but last night was still in a dazed condition. He was wandering along River avenue when picked up. Last night he said he had a gold watch and some money while going around some Pittsburgh saloons. His pockets were turned inside out and he had nothing of value on his clothes when he was locked up. The police think he was drugged and robbed.

ONE THOUSAND ARE HOMELESS AFTER THE MANILA TYPHOON

[By Associated Press to The Gazette.]

NEW YORK, Sept. 26.—The Evening Sun has a dispatch from Manila reporting a destructive typhoon in that city. The native districts were swept away, 1,000 persons are homeless, five Filipinos were killed, and 200 persons injured. Hundreds of buildings were unroofed. Thousands of electric light wires were blown down, filling the streets with flames until the current was turned off. The city was in darkness when the dispatch was sent, and all street traffic was suspended. It was believed that shipping in the bay had warning of the approach of the storm, but up to the time the dispatch was sent, the ships were invisible, on account of the rain, and had not communicated with the shore.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 26.—The war department today received a cablegram from Manila, saying that the transport Logan has been delayed from sailing from that place by a typhoon. No mention is made of damage to property.

JAPANESE WILL RESPECT INTERESTS OF POWERS

Baron Komura, on Eve of Departure, Assures This Nation of His Country's Pacific Foreign Policy.

[By Associated Press to The Gazette.]

NEW YORK, Sept. 26.—Baron Komura, Japan's peace plenipotentiary, who will start for Japan tomorrow, gave tonight the first authentic interview since he has been in this country on the peace mission, and which he said would be the last. Baron Komura feels deeply grateful for many courtesies and kindnesses extended during his visit, and commended highly President Roosevelt's efforts in bringing the representatives of Japan and Russia together. He said:

"Steadily and firmly adhering to the policy of peaceful expansion in commerce and industry, Japan will devote all her energies with renewed vigor to the development of her national resources. She will continue, as in the past, scrupulously to respect the acquired rights and legitimate interests of the powers in the far east; nor will she attempt to interfere in the least with the logical and legitimate developments of those interests.

"In her pursuit of commercial and industrial expansion, Japan will count upon the co-operation of the United States, whose interests in the far east are completely identical with her own, and whose traditional friendship for Japan has found fresh confirmation in the appreciative and sympathetic attitude maintained by the American people throughout the tremendous struggle in which Japan has been engaged."

MAY REACH AN AGREEMENT.

Window Glass Workers and Manufacturers Plan a Price Cutting Campaign.

CLEVELAND, Sept. 26.—It was said this evening a wage scale agreement may be made between the Amalgamated Window Glass Workers of America and the National Association of Window Glass Manufacturers whereby the independent manufacturers and the workers will unite to compete with the American Window Glass Company in a campaign of price cutting. The committee of the workers submitted a proposition that all of the members of the committee of the manufacturers' organization be bound by any wage agreement reached during the conference.

After discussing the matter all day the committee of the manufacturers' organization said it would put the proposition up to the meeting of the National Association of Window Glass Manufacturers tomorrow morning. The two committees will then meet again tomorrow afternoon.

CUBAN CHIEF OF POLICE WAS SHOT IN THE BACK

Autopsy Shows He Was Given no Chance to Defend Himself—Defiler of American Consulate Caught.

[By Associated Press to The Gazette.]

WASHINGTON, Sept. 26.—Mr. Quesada, the Cuban minister, today received the following advices from Cuba:

"The autopsy on the chief of police killed last Friday at Cienfuegos, shows the bullets entered by the back and the revolver of the chief of police had all its bullets. Both facts prove he did not fire, and that he was attacked without having a chance to defend himself.

"The supposed author of the outrage on the shield of the American consulate at Cienfuegos has been arrested."

YELLOW FEVER CLAIMS A VICTIM IN NEW YORK

Coal Passer Dies in the Detention Hospital—New Cases in a New Orleans Convent.

NEW ORLEANS, Sept. 26.—Yellow fever report up to 6 p. m. is as follows: New cases, 31; total to date, 2,826; deaths, 5; total to date, 375; new foci, 7; under treatment, 256; cases discharged, 2,338.

A group of four cases among nuns in the convent of Perpetual Adoration in Marais street, was reported by the attending physicians today. The infection there was discovered three weeks ago through the death of a sister, and a few days ago two more cases developed. Now four more are reported.

PENSACOLA, FLA., Sept. 26.—The yellow fever situation here today shows improvement. During the 24 hours two deaths and eight cases were reported. Two of the new cases are from the German ship Kaiser, from which four persons having the fever were removed yesterday.

NEW YORK, Sept. 26.—Jose Macaira, a coal passer, died of yellow fever today at Swinburne island, New York's quarantine detention hospital. He was removed from the steamer Havana, from Colon, last Sunday. The body will be cremated.

Wanted to Help Himself.

HARRISBURG, Sept. 26.—Harvey Hess, a distributer of samples of a breakfast food, was stabbed today by an Italian fruit dealer, because he was not allowed to help himself. The Italian escaped. Hess may die.

CHINA IS MAKING A FIGHT AGAINST TERMS OF PEACE

Celestial Empire Wants to Rid Herself of Japanese Aggression in Manchuria—Protest Made to the United States.

[By Private Wire to The Gazette.]

WASHINGTON, Sept. 26.—Sir Chentung Liang Cheng, the Chinese minister, has sounded the state department as to the probable attitude of the United States toward the protest registered by China against those articles of the treaty of Portsmouth which provide for 18 months for the evacuation of Manchuria and for the maintenance of railway guards, 15 men to each kilometer of track. It was said that owing to the absence from Washington of Secretary Root no positive answer could be immediately returned. This will give the United States time to see how Russia and Japan take the protest.

Stripped to the bare facts the purpose of China in making this protest is to rid herself of Japanese aggression in Manchuria, similar to that of Russia after the Boxer revolt. Russia claimed she could not withdraw her troops from Manchuria without endangering her special interests.

Before the peace conference was held at Portsmouth, China had taken steps to assure herself that the return of Manchuria to China would be one of the conditions of peace. China desired to participate in the conference so that her desires would be recognized in disposition of the many questions appertaining to Manchuria. This was refused by Russia and Japan, and China gave notice that she would not necessarily be governed by agreements made regarding Manchuria.

The state department has also received from China a copy of the note sent by the Pekin government direct to Tokyo and St. Petersburg. The issue being directly between Russia, China and Japan, the probability is that the United States will maintain a non-committal attitude for the present at least, although standing ready to extend its good offices if they are desired by the powers most interested.

Unofficially expressed, the hope of this government is that the evacuation will be accomplished as quickly as possible and that advantage will be taken of China's guarantee that she will adequately protect the railways, Russian and Japanese.

GROWING WORSE IN HUNGARY

The Political Situation Is Desperate and the Dynasty Is Denounced.

WILDEST RUMORS ARE AFLOAT

[By Associated Press to The Gazette.]

BUDAPEST, Sept. 27.—The situation here grows worse daily. The radical element threaten to swamp the Moderate party and to hurry the country into irreparable action. Public references to the dynasty are made in a tone which it is impossible to reproduce. The principal newspapers urge the formation of one great party under Francis Kossuth. This is supported by Kossuth, Count Apponyi and Baron Banffy.

It is evident the conservative elements hesitate to countenance the driving of matters to a point where compromise would be impossible.

The independent party is believed to have secured 100,000 new adherents, while the old Liberal party has broken up. The partisans of Kossuth have also obtained the upper hand in quarters which formerly were dominated by the Socialists.

According to all reports, however, the coalition leaders are doing everything to keep popular excitement from receding to a point where it cannot be controlled, recalling the passions of the people have already been inflamed by the reports of the emperor's reception and treatment of the Hungarian representatives at Vienna Sunday last, and that it might be easy to bring about an irreparable disaster.

The coalition leaders have issued a proclamation stating that they are determined to eschew all revolutionary methods. Kossuth is quoted as saying he believed the king-emperor would yet change his mind and grant concessions to Hungary.

The wildest rumors are afloat in Budapest. One paper publishes a statement that the king-emperor intends to resign the crown of Hungary in favor of Prince Francis Ferdinand, and other similarly unauthenticated statements are made.

According to the consensus of the reports the king-emperor has determined to appoint a cabinet with Count Johann Zichy at its head. Count Zichy is expected to reach Vienna soon, but his friends declare that he will not accept the mission under the present circumstances.

CLAIMS THE TARIFF WILL BE DISCUSSED THIS YEAR

Secretary Hitchcock Does Not Think the Schedules Should Always Remain as They Are Now.

[By Associated Press to The Gazette.]

WASHINGTON, Sept. 26.—Secretary Hitchcock today said: "The tariff will be discussed this winter. I am, really such a fool as to think that it should always remain as it is now, or to think that the world does not change as time goes on.

"I believe in the policy of protection, but where the present tariff is thought to have fostered monopoly in any certain industry, I believe it should be investigated and if so found, should be changed to meet new conditions. If changed, it should be in harmony with the protective principle."

RETURN VERDICT ON WRECK.

Coroner's Jury Holds Engineer of Express Train Responsible for the Paoli Disaster.

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 26.—The coroner of Chester county held an inquest at Malvern today into the Pennsylvania accident at Paoli yesterday, which resulted in the death of six men. The jury rendered a verdict that the accident was caused by the carelessness of the engineer of the New York limited express in disregarding the danger signal by running past it, and by the carelessness of the crew of the local passenger train in not seeing that their train was properly clear of the bar which controls the switch over which their train had just passed, thereby preventing the leverman in the nearby tower from properly adjusting the switch.

The death list was increased to six today when Noble Redmond, the colored cook on General Manager W. W. Atterbury's private car, died in a hospital here.

WILL NOT TAX PHIPPS' GIFTS

Threat of the Philanthropist Causes Allegheny Councilmen to Take Action.

PROPOSAL TO RETURN MONEY

The threatened trouble between Henry Phipps and the city of Allegheny over a question of taxes on property in the First ward is to be averted by action of councils.

Recently the Phipps playgrounds, manual training school and gymnasium, which are adjunct to the First ward public school, were advertised in the delinquent tax list, the amount of taxes due being $2,175.78. This action on the part of the North Side officials got H. S. Naylor into communication with Mr. Phipps. Mr. Naylor is the Pittsburgh representative of Mr. Phipps.

The latter expressed indignation, inasmuch as he spent thousands on the property before dedicating it to the uses of the school children and the residents of the First ward. He told Mr. Naylor that should the city officials of Allegheny still demand the payment of taxes by November 1 he would withdraw from all past agreement concerning the disposition of the playground, the manual training school and the gymnasium. Other plans would be made for the use of the ground.

President Samuel McElroy of common council was spoken to last night about the matter and immediately got into communication with Select Councilman George C. Lecky of the First ward. The two talked it over and discovered that City Solicitor Porter had declared that to exonerate Mr. Phipps from taxes would be illegal.

"That is true," said Mr. McElroy, "but it is not illegal to remit taxes that have been paid. Exonerations are not lawful, but there is an act of assembly that permits the remittance of taxes paid on property used for purposes similar to the Phipps property. That can easily be adjusted. Mr. Naylor will be informed of this at once. It would be a sin to deprive the people of the First ward of the grandest gift they ever received."

Mr. Lecky said: "I had heard from Mr. Porter that we could not exonerate the property from taxation. I will introduce into councils a resolution remitting taxes paid on the property and as soon as Mr. Naylor arranges to pay what is due now councils will take action to give it back. I am going to have the finance committee visit the First ward with me to look over the gifts of Mr. Phipps."

MAYOR PROTECTS OWENS.

City Executive Will Not Discharge Clerk Charged With Keeping Gambling House.

Mayor Hays will protect Howard Owens, a clerk in the mayor's office who was arrested by the county detectives in a raid on an alleged gambling house at Marion and Forbes street. The mayor says that Owens will not be discharged from the city service. According to the position taken by the mayor his jurisdiction does not extend beyond his own payroll. Owens is on the payroll of the assessor's department, but has been steadily employed in the mayor's office.

"Owens is not a clerk in my office. He only helps here with the payrolls and warrants, and I have nothing to do with his case," said the mayor.

Owens will have a hearing tonight before Alderman Toole. William Hemingray and John Heahen, who were arrested with Owens, will also have a hearing tonight. The county detectives say that the charter under which Owens and his friends are said to have conducted the gambling house was bogus. The charter was granted to the Knights of Fidelity, lodge No. 1, in 1901, and the organization ceased to exist three years ago.

COUNCILMEN TESTIFY.

Plaintiff in Shuff Case Trying to Show Members Received Presents for Votes.

A number of prominent men who were members of councils when the Grant & Liberty Street franchise passed were witnesses in the case in which John L. Shuff charges bribery as an inducement to get the ordinance past the common branch.

W. H. Stevenson concluded his testimony yesterday, and was followed on the stand by the former president of common council, Charles S. Crawford; John P. Bauldouf and Thomas O'Brien, both members of councils. Each member was cross-examined for more than hour, and the line of questions was not mild nor considerate. The plaintiffs are endeavoring to show that certain men, not particularly those called to give testimony before the commissioner, received presents for their votes and influence in councils.

But a few witnesses are summoned each day, and one at a time they have to run the gauntlet of fire and cross-fire, no other persons but the commissioner and attorneys representing each interest being present.

PRAISES FILTER WORK.

Superintendent of Water of Lawrence, Mass., Visits the Pittsburgh Plant at Aspinwall.

Strong praise for the work being done on the Pittsburgh filtration plant at Aspinwall was given yesterday by M. F. Collins, superintendent of the water plant at Lawrence, Mass., who spent three days in the city, inspecting the local water system.

Superintendent Collins called upon Controller Larkin yesterday before departing for Lawrence. He said he has seen a good many filter plants, but thought the Pittsburgh plant was destined to be one of the greatest in the world. He liked especially the concrete work, the pilasters and archways, and said they were being built so substantially that they would endure for a thousand years. He approved of covers for the filter beds and said he would recommend them for the Lawrence plant. Mr. Collins also spoke warm praise for Morris Knowles, superintendent of the Pittsburgh plant.

Firemen Threaten to Resign.

Members of the volunteer fire department of Wilmerding resent the action of the borough council in taking away the control of the fire department from them and threaten to resign. Councils has decided on a plan for the reorganization of the department, giving council authority to elect a chief and captain. Hereafter all who become members of the department must take the oath of allegiance to the United States.

Throws Brick and Hits Girl.

John Divino of 1332 Warner street, Allegheny, will be given a hearing today before Alderman Schellman, on a charge of assault and battery. It is alleged he threw a brick at several boys who were annoying him and the brick struck Mary Jaronski, who was working at a window of the Star Enamel works in Sedgwick street, Allegheny. The girl's nose was broken.

GROUND HOGS CAPTURED NEAR HEART OF THE CITY

Joseph Woll Discovers Two Punxsutawney Prophets in Schenley Park and Will Test Their Sagacity in Predicting the Weather.

Joseph Woll, whose ground hog held the attention of all East Liberty and of thousands of residents of both cities for many days previous to February 2 last, and which effectually dispelled the myth of the animal's sagacity in determining the quality of the weather to be served for the succeeding six weeks, yesterday succeeded in capturing two more of the famous Punxsutawney prophets.

Not only did he land two of the animals within one day, but a marked feature of the feat was that he captured both within the city limits, in fact, within a half mile of the heart of the city. Meyran avenue, where it terminates in the bluff overlooking Panther hollow was the scene of the nimrod's success, and Mr. Woll says that the zoo contains not half the interesting zoological studies one can secure by a quiet walk through the parks of our city.

At the head of Panther hollow Mr. Woll has discovered a nest of opossums, an old one which has succeeded in raising two litters of young and has also found evidences of a coon or two. Foxes are not entirely unknown and snakes of all descriptions, save the rattler, have been noted within the park limits.

The two groundhogs added to the collection of Mr. Woll are both this year's product, one being from a litter in the spring and weighing about 10 pounds, and the other being of later advent and weighing not over 5 pounds. Between the three now in his possession Mr. Woll expects to conclusively prove the inability of the groundhog to prognosticate the weather, for, in case one of the animals should be

Joseph Woll.

"under the weather," and not disposed to venture out on the fateful day, he will have the other two to fall back on and so will be able to set at rest forever the much mooted question of "Brer" groundhog's usefulness in making up weather prophesies.

DR. M'CORMICK TALKS TO THE BANK CLERKS

Pittsburgh Chapter of American Institute Celebrate Acquaintance Night.

"Acceptance Night," celebrated by the Pittsburgh chapter of the American Institute of Bank Clerks, last night, was a great success. The hall at Fourth avenue and Wood street was crowded with members, who listened attentively to the speeches and applauded the musical end of the program.

The meeting was presided over by Frank M. Pollard, chairman of the chapter, who made a few introductory remarks. The quartet, composed of members of the chapter, S. B. Cummings, DeWalt J. Hicks, Roy Hamilton and L. E. Huseman, sang a selection.

The speech of the evening was made by the Rev. Dr. S. B. McCormick, chancellor of the Western University of Pennsylvania. Dr. McCormick's talk was on how to get the most success, service and happiness out of life. It was under four heads, which were treated luminously by the speaker. He said that every man ought to know his business thoroughly; he ought to have correct moral principles and work them into correct moral living; he should be wise enough to master some branch of knowledge outside of his own pursuits, and, if he lived in the city, as most of the members of the chapter do, he ought to get all that is possible out of that ideal life which offers him such opportunities to become acquainted with his fellow man and gives such chance for culture.

Several members were called on for informal talks, and W. T. Lyon, assistant cashier of the Union National bank; D. C. Wills, cashier of the Diamond National bank, and J. M. Young responded briefly.

The quartet sang another selection and was encored, and Charles A. Seibert played on the piano a rhapsody by Liszt.

The chairman announced that Edward S. Meade of the University of Pennsylvania would deliver a series of eight lectures, beginning on October 10; that the banker who gave $100 for prizes last year for papers on banking had given notice that the same amount would be available for a similar purpose for the next four years, $500 in all, and that Stanley C. Reese would lecture on public speaking and parliamentary law to all those who desired to form a class.

TO ORGANIZE WOMEN.

Miss Kate C. McKnight Proposes a Federation of Womens' Clubs to Demand Decency.

Miss Kate C. McKnight, president of the Civic club, announced yesterday that she would devote her energies this fall toward the establishment of a city federation of women's clubs and affiliated societies for the purpose of securing full representation of the women of this community, in demanding the proper rights and respect to women on the streets and street cars and in public places.

The women of the missionary society are going ahead with their work of investigating the police department, and those who conduct it, in a quiet and diplomatic manner, and are said to be already in receipt of much information. A report will be made when it is deemed that sufficient evidence is in hand.

Holds Shooter for Court.

Henry Falfer, aged 14, of 309 Thirty-fourth street, was held yesterday for the juvenile court by Magistrate Kane on a charge of shooting Walter Pornicke of Thirty-fourth street and Mulberry alley, in the head Sunday night. It is alleged Pornicke and several boys refused to move from the front of Falfer's home, and he shot Pornicke in the forehead with a flobert rifle. Pornicke is not seriously injured.

Magistrate Wants More Testimony.

Dr. Meyer J. Seegman of 1516 Center avenue, who was arrested Saturday, charged with selling cocaine without a prescription, was given a partial hearing yesterday before Magistrate Kirby. Louis Harris, a negro, who was arrested for peddling cocaine, testified he bought the drug from Seegman. Harris' testimony was unconfirmed, and the magistrate decided to postpone the hearing, pending further investigation.

MEN OF BRAINS

Are Back of a Local Enterprise.

Few people know that right at our very doors during the last few years the choicest location for a residence community in Allegheny county has been quietly built up with attractive and pleasant homes. In a section comparatively free from smoke, easy of access from the business part of the city, a model town has been laid off. It possesses all the advantages of being right in the city, as it is so close, but it retains its suburban character and low taxes. It has splendid pavements, all improvements, well lighted streets, good schools, a fine library, social clubs, and, best of all, pure air and a pleasant class of people.

The public now has an opportunity to get the benefit of this delightful place, which has been carefully and slowly brought to its present state of attractiveness. Knoxville, synonymous with "beautiful," situated high up above the smoke and dirt, on the plateau which overlooks the heart of the city, has unparalleled advantages as a place for residence. Three-minute service on two car lines, only 10 minutes from town through the tunnel, grade school, high school, churches—every advantage.

The Knoxville Land Improvement Company, as its name implies, has beautified with handsome streets and tasty homes a spot on which nature has already lavished its charms.

The company affords every facility for the selection of a nice home at moderate cost. Their monthly payments on houses are about equal to the cost of renting a similar house in other localities.

SYNOD BEGINS SESSION.

State Branch of Cumberland Presbyterian Church Begins Annual Meeting.

The sixty-eighth annual session of the Pennsylvania synod of the Cumberland Presbyterian church was opened last night in the Second church, Penn and Brushton avenues, with 20 congregations represented and with 40 ministers present. Synod will remain in session until tomorronw night.

The Rev. Dr. W. F. Silveus, pastor of the Second church, preside dlast night in the absence of the Rev. Dr. J. B. Hall moderator, who is now a missionary in Japan. After devotional exercises the Rev. C. R. Harmon of Brownsville delivered the opening sermon. He dwelt on the selfishness that existed in churches today. He condemned church members who attended euchre parties. He scored saloonkeepers for continuing in their occupations for the greed of money, and declared that the trusts had been formed by men selfish for money. At the conclusion of the sermon Mr. Harmon was unanimously elected moderator.

PRISON KEEPER DIES IN STREET

Thomas Gamble Drops Dead While Going to Duty at Western Penitentiary.

CANNED SALMON IS FATAL

Thomas Gamble, aged 37, a keeper at the Western penitentiary, dropped dead last night at 9 o'clock, while walking in Preble avenue, near Superior avenue, Allegheny. Gamble was on his way to the prison to report for duty. His body was removed to his home, 350 California avenue in a patrol wagon. Warden William McC. Johnston identified the remains before they were put into the wagon. Gamble was married about a year ago and had no children. Prior to his employment at the penitentiary he was a nurse for several years at the insane asylum at Dixmont. Heart failure caused his death.

Mrs. Sadie Whitaker, aged 26 of Dravosburg, died yesterday at her home as the result of ptomaine poisoning, caused, it is believed, by eating canned salmon last week. She is survived by her husband and one child. Mrs. Whitaker was a daughter of the late Capt. Joel Lewis of Camden station.

John Morowsky, aged 6, deaf and dumb, was instantly killed by a street car in Wilmerding last evening. He was playing in the street and ran in front of a Trafford City car. His parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Morowsky, live in Watkins avenue, Wilmerding, and the accident occurred near the home.

George Peters, aged 18, of 92 Solar street, Allegheny, was instantly killed at 1:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon in Federal street, at the site of the new Fort Wayne railroad station. Peters, who worked in a Sixth street restaurant, was walking down Federal street and stopped to look at the workmen. The boom of a huge derrick snapped and struck Peters on the head, crushing him terribly. He was carried into the station and the morgue notified.

Bolo Duffidowsky was held yesterday by the coroner's jury to await the action of the grand jury on a charge of murder of Antonio Pughluise, who died at the St. John's General hospital on September 16, from a blow, alleged to have been struck by Duffidowsky, at the plant of the Pressed Steel Car Company, Woods Run.

The body of Michael Manella, who was drowned in the Allegheny river at Aspinwall, Monday afternoon, was recovered at that place last night. He was 40 years old and lived at 322 Cedar street. He leaves a wife and four children in Italy. He was a laborer at the filtration plant.

Arrange for Banquet.

The Men's club of the Fourth Avenue Baptist church last evening decided to hold a banquet in the church on Tuesday evening, October 10. A program of music and addresses will be arranged and upward of 100 men are expected to attend.

25c for women's 50c, 75c and $1.00 Stockings was so much out of the ordinary that it is scarcely to be wondered there was a constant stream of women at the Hosiery Counter all day yesterday. We put on sale 6,900 pairs of imported stockings, and choice was 25c. Excellent choice left for today, and you should do like the women did yesterday, buy in dozen and half-dozen lots.

Women's Autumn Coats and Wraps.

College Pennants and Burgees.

The largest and most complete line of Pennants that can be found in the city. Many different styles at prices unequaled—50c, 65c, 75c, $1.00.

We are prepared to take orders for any special designs and to quote the very lowest prices.

An Exhibit That Leaves Nothing to Be Desired—in Variety There Could Be No thing More.

We have searched the markets thoroughly—amazing results; an unrivaled collection of latest autumn and winter models. In style and workmanship there can be no more severe critics than our own experts, and we are pleased to say they have passed favorably upon every garment we have selected.

Values are so apparent and prices so exceptional that the economy of buying here is unquestioned.

Our leadership in fine garments has been most thoroughly demonstrated, and it is equally well demonstrated in the more popular priced garments.

In view of continued chilly days the following will be read with some satisfaction.

At $10.00. Three-quarter length box coats, in light gray, brown and white mixtures, several styles, some plain; others with pretty stitched effects. Some with breast and side pockets, others having stylish side patch pockets. All with velvet collars. Also side vents with seven buttons each.

At $12.00. 45-inch coats of heavy gray and black mixtures, double-breasted box front, large flap pockets on each side, half-fitted back finished with 15-inch vent in center. It is made collarless, neck finished with inlaid stitched velvet, set off with fancy stitched straps of material; turn-over cuffs, finished the same way. Lined through shoulders with material, sleeves lined with black satin.

At $15.00. Three-quarter length coats of medium shade gray mixed material, fly front, patch pockets on each side, fancy wide stitched strap of material, which goes around and under the sleeves in front from shoulder in front to back.

At $15.00. Three-quarter length box coats of fine black broadcloth, made with three wide stitched straps down back, collarless—with broadcloth finish around neck, plain tailored sleeves—lined to waist line in fine black taffeta.

At $18.00. Tight-fitting coats, seven-eighths length—of fine black kersey, fly front and velvet collar—full sleeves with turn-over cuffs of material—lined to waist in fine black taffeta.

At $18.00. Box coats, 46 inches in length, of fancy black and white Scotch tweed, double-breasted, large revers, inlaid velvet collar. Pretty strapped effect of material over shoulders and under arm to bust in front and shoulder line in back. Yoke lining of fine black satin.

At $20.00. Seven-eighths length coats of black kersey, half-fitted back, double-breasted front, large side pockets, inlaid velvet collar, full sleeves with turn-over cuffs—body lined in black satin.

At $20.00. Three-quarter length coats in fine gray, white and black tweed, box front with side and breast pockets, half-fitted back, choker collar and pretty tailored sleeve. Lined to waist line in gray satin.

At $25.00. Very pretty coats which may be worn on the street or equally as well in the evening—light weight material in two shades of gray and cadet blue. Seven-eighths length, loose back and front, has wide, 24-inch strap and eight rows of stitching down center of back, down each side of front and around the pretty side pockets. Close-fitting collars with narrow band of stitched velvet, finished with buttons and small brass ornaments. Very full sleeve, tacked at elbow and wrist, pretty turn-over cuff, trimmed like collar. Shoulders lined with fine taffeta, all seams piped in same.

60c and 75c Wool Waistings, 39c a Yd.

September is the month in which one should get woolen waists made up—many people wear them earlier.

Our line of Wool Waistings at above special prices show Beautiful Plaids, handsome plain materials and pretty Jacquard effects.

Japanese Needlework Novelties.

In combining colors and using the needle the cleverness and skillfulness of the Japanese is acknowledged—no one excels them.

We are showing some fine specimens of their handiwork in the Art Needlework Department, Third Floor, West—just received from Japan.

Fine hand-painted cushion covers, painted on gray velvet, representing Japanese scenery, $5.00 each.

Fine cushion covers, combining painting and drawnwork, and embroidery, delicate colors and beautiful designs, $7.00 each.

Hand-Embroidered Picture Frames on black, pink and white silk, worked in gold and silk—round and oval shapes. 25c each.

Large variety of dainty novelties, such as Glove Cases, Handkerchief Cases, Pin Cushions, Needle Cases, Hat Pin Holders, Work Rolls, Work Bags, made of embossed silk, trimmed with silk cord and buttons, 35c to $2.00.

And here are a few special things which we offer at special prices—these, however, are not Japanese work.

Brush Holders, worked in cross-stitch designs on Alda canvas, trimmed with cord and rings, 25c, instead of 75c.

Buster Brown Pillow Slips, stamped and tinted in six different designs, top and bottom, ready to slip pillow in, 45c instead of $1.00.

Tinted Centerpieces, 27 inches round, made of dark linen crash and finished around the edge with wide braid to match the design, 25c instead of 50c.

Wednesday, September 27, 1905

President Callery of the Pittsburgh Railways Company has taken prompt and vigorous action on the complaint that ladies were insulted in one of the company's cars. It must be said that, as a rule, the trolley car employes are as polite as they have time to be and are on the side of good order. We are sure the company desires they should always be so. It is not always easy to enforce rules, however.

Senator Elkins of West Virginia says: "If it is finally agreed to revise the present Dingley schedules, such revision will be effected by the friends and not by the enemies of protection." That is it, precisely. That is the way to put it. The Fifty-ninth congress has a large majority of the friends of protection, true friends who can be relied on to make a right revision, and that is why the Fifty-ninth congress should perform the task.

Candidate John M. Pattison in Ohio is making a "state issue" of George B. Cox, in the effort to hide the issue of Democracy, so he may induce Republicans to help his party. Under the circumstances it will be strange if Ohio Republicans do not recall memories of Lewis G. Bernard and his influence in the Democratic party. Cox is no more an issue in the Ohio state campaign than is Bernard, and he is not nearly as much a party boss as is Tom L. Johnson of Cleveland.

The appeal of Denver's mayor for co-operation of citizens in his plan for beautifying and cleaning the city contains several suggestions that might well be heeded in other cities. Here are some: If your store front, residence, or fence is dull or dingy, paint it; if your awning is old, torn or faded, get a new one; if your sidewalk, fence, or gate needs repairing, fix it; if your advertising sign is old or faded, take it down and paint it; never throw paper in the streets; don't spit on the sidewalks; rake your lawn.

The order of the department of commerce and labor for a reinspection of all steamboats in the United States is a wise precaution. Particular attention is to be paid to the condition of life preservers and fire hose, and inspectors are instructed to witness fire drills on all vessels. This will be the first general inspection since the revision of the rules in accordance with the action of congress following the General Slocum disaster in New York, and it is reassuring to know owners of vessels found to be below the required standard of efficiency are likely to receive something more than a reprimand.

District Attorney Stewart's action and his letter to Police Superintendent Wallace serve to expose the latter's ill-conceived attack. So far from assisting the cause of justice, the police superintendent gave warning for flight to the man whom he pretended to be anxious to prosecute. The purpose of the police superintendent was to cast discredit on the chief law officer of the county, apparently, but the incident has reacted against himself. It would do the police superintendent more honor if he would give his attention to purging his force of the officer who made a cowardly attack on a woman, for he has rendered the opinion that man is still on the force.

The latest murder in an English railway compartment prompts the inquiry: When will our English cousins abandon this antiquated and dangerous style of car and adopt the sensible form of equipment in use in this country? The history of English railroading is disgraced by a long roll of murders, assaults and robberies which could not have occurred in American railroad coaches. The lone woman in an English compartment is as far from assistance in time of peril as if she were in the depths of a forest or upon a mountain peak, with this difference: In the latter cases there is some possibility that a cry for help would be heard. The English form of railway car is as inconvenient and uncomfortable as it is dangerous. Its retention is characteristic of British conservatism.

William J. Bryan sailed from San Francisco yesterday for Honolulu, with the good wishes of all for health, happiness and an ideal trip around the world. There has been a pleasant unanimity of opinion that Mr. Bryan ought to take this journey; that he may meet with conditions in foreign lands in strong contrast to those at home, the contemplation of which will prove instructive. In Hawaii and the Philippines he can study at first hand questions which he has hitherto debated on hearsay evidence; he will visit countries where socialistic experiments have been made with disastrous results; he can learn what a debased currency has done for some nations. When Mr. Bryan returns, provided he has in the meantime managed to overcome his natural reticence, he should be able to give us some most interesting information.

State Deposits and Loans.

While Candidate Berry is exhibiting his paces and repeating his one speech at the arranged series of Prohibition meetings, Homer Castle, candidate for judge, is furnishing the fireworks. Every day or two Mr. Castle tells about a loan made to some one by a bank having state funds on deposit. Mr. Castle sometimes conceals the name of the bank. There are a good many banks that have state deposits, on which they pay interest. All of them make loans. They could make nothing from their deposits if they did not make loans. But it can be safely said that not one of them has made loans as a consideration for the deposit of state funds. Bankers are not fools.

Mr. Castle is not telling these stories in the hope of electing himself to high judicial position. He is trying to get the Democratic Berry elected state treasurer. Mr. Castle knows it is quite the ordinary thing for business men to borrow money from the banks and for a borrower to keep a sharp lookout for available funds. A state deposit makes available funds and gentlemen who have political connections are likely to know quicker than others where state deposits are made. They, however, get their loans on approved security, just as other business men do. There is nothing to all of this talk about state deposits and loans to politicians except political clap-trap. Mr. Castle knows this as well as any one, but he hopes to "fool some of the people some of the time"—long enough for this campaign. He will not fool many.

Business Chances in Brazil.

Interesting information is contained in the report of Special Agent Hutchinson, who was sent to Brazil by the department of commerce and labor to investigate industrial conditions. Mr. Hutchinson says Brazil, perceiving the prosperity resulting from a protective tariff in the United States and the manner in which great industries have been built up, has decided to follow suit. The result is, Brazilian trade is rapidly slipping away from foreign countries, including the United States. Brazil is becoming a manufacturer, instead of a purchaser, and factories are going up all over the country, causing a veritable industrial boom. A double opportunity is thus presented for Americans: to make machinery for the new factories and also to establish factories of their own in Brazil. Mr. Hutchinson advises the American manufacturer to loss no time in observing which way the wind is blowing and to take immediate advantage of existing conditions.

There seems to be a wide field in Brazil for the introduction of American methods. The Brazilians have seized upon an excellent idea, but they will need assistance in working it out to a practical conclusion, and here is the opportunity for our manufacturers. If Americans do not step in and take a hand in the new development, others will. There are also many lines of goods which Brazil will never be able to produce for herself, and for these there will always be a market. Mr. Hutchinson is firmly of the opinion that Americans can have the inside track, if they will, for Brazilian trade, but they must perceive the signs of the times before it is too late.

A Word for the City Boy.

In his address at the opening of the school of pedagogy of New York university, Dr. Luther H. Gulick, director of physical training in the public schools, expressed the opinion that the city boy now averages an even better chance for good health than his country cousin. "He gets better food than the country boy," said Dr. Gulick, "and in our day of inspected milk, the milk of the city is even purer than that of the country barnyard. Again, the farmer's life is becoming almost sedentary, due to machinery replacing much of hand work that was done in the past. The city boy has just as good chances for success, if not better than the country boy who, according to time-honored legend, captures most of the prizes in life."

While we question Dr. Gulick's statement regarding the comparative wholesomeness of city and country food, and absolutely quarrel with his view of the "sedentary" nature of the farmer's occupation, having in mind that mildly exhilarating pastime known as "pitching hay," we agree the city boy has just as good a chance for worldly success nowadays as his brother who was born and reared in bucolic blessedness. It has long been a popular notion that the boy who wishes to become great must arrange to be born in the country; if in a log cabin, five miles from a little red schoolhouse, so much the better, but log cabins are not so numerous as formerly; neither are great men, for that matter. The boy who is to rise to future eminence, according to this theory, must [illegible] rise about 4 a. m. the year around, and after performing various duties, denominated "chores," about the farm, eat his breakfast and trudge gaily off to school, where he invariably stands at the head of his class. Returning home, he must burn the midnight oil and not think of going to bed before 2 a. m. So many of our celebrities were born in the country and served their apprenticeship on the farm, we have come to believe there is no use in the city-bred boy trying to be great.

The origin of this false theory of the innate superiority of the country boy is not difficult to trace. Most of our distinguished men of today are over 50 years of age. They were boys on the farm, then, 40 years ago. At that time the proportion of the rural population to that gathered in the cities was much greater than it is now. More country boys than city boys became famous, because there were more of them. Now more boys are being born in the cities. There is not much foundation for the idea that the city boy is at a disadvantage in the race of life.

Taxing Benevolence.

A remarkable situation has been created by the refusal of Allegheny officials to abate the taxation of property devoted to the public use by Henry Phipps. The institutions established in the First ward by Mr. Phipps are worthy benevolences, an industrial school, gymnasium, a playground and public bath, and there is ample warrant in law for remitting taxes on such property. This fact was recognized by the prompt action of the county in making it exempt.

By what course of reasoning the Allegheny city officials expect to justify their attitude is a mystery. The institutions named were founded by Mr. Phipps for the public benefit. The attempt to make him pay taxes on his generosity is in bad taste. It may result in forfeiture of public benefits and in estranging Mr. Phipps from his home city. It is surely time to have a change of administration on the North Side.

An Opportune Time.

It was to have been expected the American Economist would oppose tariff revision of any kind at any time. It is no surprise to find it devoting the better part of two pages in its latest issue to The Gazette suggestion that no better congress than the Fifty-ninth will ever be found to perform this duty. The Economist admits The Gazette has given no comfort to the "tariff ripping element," for its appeal for revision was accompanied by cogent argument for protection. Very good. The trouble with the Economist is it cannot divorce protection, as Republican national platforms and candidates have done, from mere schedules of rates. It is the advocate par excellence of the fossilization of rates inveighed against by President Roosevelt.

One argument and one only, is advanced by the American Economist against revision. It is that pending discussion and determination "industry would halt and business would suffer." It offers no other reason except the opportunity of the "tariff ripping element" to offer and have rejected its measures of free trade revision. In its original article The Gazette endeavored to make clear that no better time than the present can be selected for revision because the will be no serious apprehension of "tariff ripping" at the hands of the Fifty-ninth congress and because the tide of business, assisted by phenomenal crops and after-war conditions, is so strong it will not be stopped even by tariff readjustment. It might be checked a little and it can be checked a little without essential injury.

Here in Pittsburgh we know the tide of business activity is so strong it threatens to congest the railroads. From every section of the country complaints are coming of lack of transportation facilities. Despite unparalleled immigration there is in many parts of the country an unsatisfied demand for more labor. Could there be a more opportune time to halt industry or check business by making a wise revision of the tariff? Is it better to have industry halted and business checked by a shortage of cars or lack of other railroad facilities? Will there ever be a congress in which industry, business and the American people can have more confidence than this Fifty-ninth congress, elected last November, along with President Roosevelt? To these questions even the American Economist must answer, No.

There can be no better time to revise the tariff, there can be no better conditions, there can be no better congress, there can be no better president. There is but one logical conclusion: the tariff should be revised now, or let alone forever. Does the American Economist go so far as to say the Dingley rates should remain forever unaltered? Or does it indorse the view of a hypocritical local contemporary that it is better to wait until a Democratic congress is elected on a tariff reform platform?

A correspondent complains that since the packers paid their fine the steaks are tougher than ever. We rather thought that joke was not to be all one-sided.

The opinion of the Chicago Tribune that the baseball pennant is only "a piece of thin cloth, not worth fighting for," seems to be shared by the Pittsburgh Pirates.

Unless the sultan mends his ways, it is announced, Great Britain will resort to "drastic measures." The "sick man" seems almost an incurable.

RARE AND PECULIAR THINGS OF THIS LIFE

Oldest "Summer Girl" in the Country—How They Do in Land of Midnight Sun.

St. Joseph, Missouri, has a wonder in longevity, who is designated by the local press as "Grandma Sarah Shock, aged 105 years. She is probably the oldest "summer girl" in the United States. Her history is interesting. She has smoked a pipe ever since she was 15. She likes to go out into the country and feed the chickens and "putter" around the garden. She is apparently almost as active as the most youthful "vacationer."

Here are some of the facts about Grandma Shock's life:

She was born in Kentucky.
Learned to smoke when she was 15.
Has been smoking a pipe ever since.
Was the mother of seven children, all but one dying in infancy.
Has been a widow 42 years.
Rises at 8 a. m.
Goes to bed at 8:30 p. m.
Makes her own toilet.
Takes a walk every morning.
She is unable to read, but likes to have the bible and newspapers read to her.
Her eyesight is so good that she needs no glasses.
Never takes medicine, in fact never needs it.
Weighs ninety pounds.
Is slightly deaf.
Is a Mexican war widow, but has lost all papers on which she could secure a pension.
Has been preparing her burial clothes since she was 100.

An admirer sent her a cane. "Why, I don't need this," she said, "but I will save it and give it to some old person."

New Pin Money Wrinkle.

The unusual means by which a bright girl earned her summer pocket money last year may contain the germ of an idea for anyone earning her vacation fee this season.

This girl—a college graduate of a month—made face cloths which she sold to women in large office buildings during the perspiry days of June, July and August. relates the Detroit Free Press. Most women suffer from oily skin and consequent discomfort during the dog days. What she enjoys is a chamois face rag. Dusted with good powder and folded it to the pocket or chatelaine it represents warm day luxury. Miss S. began operations with one large strip of chamois, the entire skin, which she bought at wholesale rates. This she cut into squares rather smaller than a woman's handkerchief. The edges of some were neatly scalloped, of others buttonholed in silk. She sold the plainer sort at 10 cents, the fancier ones at a quarter apiece. Each was dusted with delicately fragrant powder and folded twice.

It was impossible in most cases to sell to toilers direct, but the forewomen in large establishments were both kind and enthusiastic. "Leave all you have with me and come around tomorrow. I know I can dispose of them for you," said the first to whom she applied. Surely enough the next day all had been sold and a few more orders were waiting, as the supply had not been adequate. The work would, of course, only be possible to a girl in a large city or town, but to one so situated the hundreds of large office buildings offer an almost inexhaustible field.

How They Do in Sweden.

A Stockholm letter in the Minneapolis Journal tells us that in Sweden a barber will shave you for six cents—but you have to wash your own face and comb your own hair.

Everybody trusts you and you are expected to trust everybody.

You never have a dispute with the cabman over the fare. A taxameter measures the distance you travel and shows what you owe at any minute.

You get a bill every day at the hotel. This permits you to correct any mistakes at once.

Women shines your shoes, shave you, cut your hair and even give you a bath—unless you rebel.

Policeman salute the street car conductors and are saluted by them.

A servant who brings you something says "So good." You say "Tack" (thanks.)

You take off your hat when you enter a shop and return the shopman's low bow.

Although drinking is common one seldom sees a drunken man.

Tips are everywhere given, but they are small. Ten ore (2½ cents) is the ordinary tip to a cabman or porter.

A lady always waits for a gentleman to speak, instead of the reverse as in America.

Biggest Beard in the World.

The most hirsute man in the world is not be found in the "greatest show on earth." He is a Frenchman, and in content to live as a molder in the iron works of Montlucon, earning his livelihood by labor, though often tempted by large offers to make an exhibition of himself. His name is Louis Coulon, and he is 79 years of age, but makes it a point of pride after molding for 67 years, to refuse a retiring pension before he is 80. He is only a little man, but his beard is 14 feet 2 inches long, and is crowned by a mustache 60 inches from tip to tip. When Coulon is at work he rolls up his beard and tucks it under his shirt. There is something of heredity about his case. His father had a beard reaching to his knees, and two of his great uncles, sappers in the army of Jourdan, had enormous beards.

What Powder-Puffs Are Made of.

"The best powder puff," said a Philadelphia druggist to a Recorder reporter "is made of down plucked from the breast of a live Norwegian swan by cygnet. The next best powder puff is down from a dead cygnet's breast.

"Something like 5,000 cygnets are killed annually in the islands of the Baltic and in Norway and Sweden to supply the world with powder puffs. Only the down from the young swans' breast is good for the puffs. A wonderful down it is, softer than snow, softer than cloud. A dozen puffs may be made from one cygnet.

"Here are some puffs mounted in coral bone. Here are some mounted in gold and jeweled with diamond-chips. The one puff costs 50 cents, the other $5. Rich women buy the cheap puffs, poor women the dear ones. Why? Because the rich women throw a puff away as soon as its first pure white delicacy is lost, while poor women use a puff until it is worn down to a stub."

WILL UTILIZE SPACE UNDER APPROACH

The New York Department of Bridges Has a Unique Plan for a Series of Stores.

By FRANK A. PARKER.

[By Private Wire to The Gazette.]

NEW YORK, Sept. 26.—The department of bridges is having plans prepared by Henry F. Hornbostel for utilization of the space under the Manhattan approach of the Blackwells Island bridge, now in course of construction. Under this approach the city will build a series of stores, so constructed as to resemble a huge Italian marketplace. The Manhattan approach is to be of concrete steel. It will be the first real approach made of this material and the effect will be light and artistic. The grade of the Manhattan approach is of such a sudden nature and at one point shows so much room under the roadway that Mr. Hornbostel saw an opportunity which would not only be utilitarian as an income producer for the city, but of artistic value besides.

The arch to cross First avenue will have a height of 6 feet and a 30-foot span. From Fifty-eighth to Fifty-ninth street there will be 120,000 square feet available for the marketplace plan. There will be 27 stores in all, one series facing Fifty-eighth, the other Fifty-ninth street. Between them, in the rear of each, there will be an arcade for delivery purposes. Each store will occupy a lot 20x30 feet, and will have a shed jutting from the front. The stores will be built of iron and glass, with glass sides and roof, and elaborated on the outside with ornamental brick facings and other brick decorative work. These stores the city will let to tradesmen. The bridge will be completed in 1908.

Another Bernard Shaw Joke.

The trustees and officers of the New York public library refuse to take Bernard Shaw seriously. Through some mysterious channel word got to Mr. Shaw that the public librarian in New York had placed his books upon the restricted list. Mr. Shaw has just let it be known that he is not ignorant of the slap by hitting back in a long public letter, humorously socialistically and scathingly, to the effect that "Comstockery" is the world's standing joke at the expense of the United States; that he was confirmed in his conviction that "America is a provincial place, a second-rate country town civilization, after all," and that he should "make no pretense of treating a public and official insult by the American people with indifference." The fact is that any one can get Shaw's books from the library, all that is necessary is to ask for them.

More Harmony in Tammany.

Peace between Tammany Leader Murphy and Senator McCarren of Brooklyn has been declared, and these two Democratic chieftains and their organizations will work together in the coming municipal campaign. Murphy made the announcement himself. "I see," he said, "that rumors are going around that I have ordered my friends in Brooklyn to fight Senator McCarren. Quite to the contrary, I have told my friends across the bridge to support Senator McCarren's local candidates."

And No Harmony for Fusion.

"There will be no fusion; we can't get together," said former Governor and State Chairman Odell at the Fifth Avenue hotel today. "There is no use feeling downcast over the outlook, but so far as fusion is concerned you might just as well give it up." The definite announcement shows that the split between the Republican-Hearst combination and the Citizens Union is beyond healing. It indicates that the Republicans will put a ticket in the field, headed by County Clerk Thomas L. Hamilton. The Municipal Ownership people and the Citizens Union leaders don't know what they are going to do.

New York Sees a Meteor.

Those who arose early or retired late today were enabled to witness the first evidence that the terrestrial globe is approaching the meteoric belt in its annual "swing around the circle." A flash of light summer lightning drew their attention skyward, and they saw, far overhead, a blood-red ball of fire apparently a foot in diameter, hurling through space and leaving a long trail of incandescence in its wake. During its passage across the zenith the trail of the meteor spread out through an arc more than five degrees. The meteor was visible for at least five seconds.

More Tourists from the Jungle.

"Running a menagerie is no joke," said Capt. Craven of the steamship Indramayo this morning, as he exhibited a collection of leopards, panthers, pythons, monkeys and other jungle folk to a party of visitors. "Look at these scars on my hands: one is from a panther bite, another was made by one of those leopards, and even the monkeys and apes added their mite." The Indramayo is discharging cargo from Singapore, Shanghai and other Chinese and Japanese ports at the Bush docks. The prize animal of the collection, a baby elephant, died seven days before the ship reached this port.

Highest American Mountain Peak.

A question often asked and which has occupied the attention of scientists for several years appears to have been settled by the report sent to Washington by Professor Alexander McAdie, head of the weather bureau service at Portland, that Mt. Whitney, situated in California, is the highest peak in the United States. Hitherto this distinction has been claimed for Mt. Ranier, in the state of Washington, but Professor McAdie says accurate official measurements show Mt. Whitney to be 14,532 feet above the level of the sea and Mt. Ranier 14,254 feet.—Spokesman-Review.

SOME GOOD STORIES OF PITH AND MOMENT

Gossipy Chat and Anecdote of Entertaining and Instructive Character.

Two men were discussing monopolies, one maintaining that there are both good and bad monopolies, and that those he was connected with are distinctly of the good sort. Then he proceeded to illustrate what a bad monopoly is, and to show the nature of a bad monopolist.

There was a young man in the south who went one summer on a visit to some relatives in the north. On his return he sought out another young man and said impressively:

"Look-a-here, I understand that you took advantage of my absence from town last month to go calling on Miss Henrietta Brown."

"You are mistaken," the other man answered. "It is her sister, Miss Charlotte Brown, that I've been calling on."

"Well, sir," said the first, "that makes no difference. I've got my eye on both them girls."—New York Tribune.

Wanted the Squirrel.

A man who lives way back where people are asked to go and sit down was in town last week for the first time in his natural life, and he certainly saw some sights that were strange; but he kept his astonishment to himself. Happening in a drug store the first thing that caught his attention was an electric fan buzzing on the counter. He regarded it with deep interest, then said to the clerk: "That's a pretty idea squirrel you've got doing stunts in that cage. What'll you take for him?"—Lippincott's Magazine.

A Test of Friendship.

The professor was examining a dark brown substance spread on paper, when he was interrupted by a visit from a friend.

"I say, would you kindly let me place a little bit of this on your tongue?" said the man of learning to the newcomer. "My taste has become so vitiated by sampling all sorts of things."

"Certainly," responded his friend, putting out his tongue.

The professor took up a little of the substance under analysis and placed it on the other's tongue. The latter worked it around for fully a minute, tasting it much as he would a sweet.

"Note any effect?" inquired the professor.

"No; none."

"It doesn't paralyze or prick your tongue?"

"Not that I can detect."

"I thought not. How does it taste?"

"Very bitter."

"Um-m; all right."

"What is it?" inquired the friend.

"I don't know. That's what I'm trying to find out. Some one has been poisoning horses with it."—Tit-Bits.

Unique Love Letter.

The following letter, obviously intended for some would-be sweetheart, was picked up on our streets the other day and was handed to the editor. The name signed is simply "Bill," and as we do not know which Bill, we can't restore the property unless the correct Bill, or the one for whom the unique epistle is intended, will claim the letters in which case we will be glad to return the lost property:

"Why do you talk to me? Why need I listen? I am wiser than a kid of 7. I have frustrated thirty-seven distinct and separate attempts to break my heart by as many fair ladies. I am now proof against so-called winning smiles, goo-goo eyes, graceful poises, love taps, broad hints, compliments and divers other great and terrible weapons used by young women (and even widows) as well as the imploring wail of maidens over 20 years of age, and I further declare that I have withdrawn myself from the market and am not open to negotiations on any terms or conditions and I prefer to reside in the town of Freedom, county of Independence, and state of Single-blessedness, and pay the state tax for bachelors, rather than be taxed by a wife.—Bill."—Lamar Leader.

Helpful Little Brother.

Admiral Evans, at a dinner at Narragansett, said, apropos of disappointment:

"The poor fellow's feelings in this misfortune must have resembled those of a young planter whom I knew in my youth in Virginia.

"The young man was in love with a girl of great beauty. She had many suitors, and to all of them she was more partial than to my friend; but he, though snubbed continually, remained very faithful.

"One Sunday evening, when he called, the girl's little brother admitted him. The youngster led him into the parlor, went upstairs to announce his name, and then, returning, said:

"'Sit down, Mr. Sparker. She will see you in a few minutes.'

"'I am glad of that. I was afraid she might ask to be excused, as she has done so often before.'

"'No fear of that this time. I played a trick on her,' said the little brother.

"'How was that?' Sparker asked.

"'Why,' said the lad, 'I pretended you were some one else.'"—Kansas City Journal.

The Reverie of the Wind.

"I have tried to storm the stars from heaven," said the Wind," and I have heard the cries of the drowning on the water-tossed ships at sea, and now I am weary of the thunder of the tempest, and I long to rest in some peaceful valley and dream life's sweeter dreams. But there is a woman yonder, weeping o'er a little grave, and I must hide it from her sight!"—And the Wind tossed the snow and golden leaves upon the grave; but the weeping woman said: "In vain this yelling snow—these golden leaves, O Wind! for the grave is in my heart, and all the snow and leaves and flowers of God can never hide it from me." And the Wind went sighing to the Valley of Dreams; but, on the way, it stormed the shelter from a miser's head, and scattered his gold at the feet of the shivering poor. Then the Wind said: "I will remember the little grave when the violets come, and toss the sweetest of them there!"—Atlanta Constitution.

And That Is No Idle Jest.

Finally, brethren, you have been paying too much for your life insurance.—Chicago Tribune.

SEPTEMBER.

September swarthy and serene,
Treads stately the silent path
That climbs the dreamy hills between
The fields of summer's aftermath.
Before her goes the cavalcade
Of sprites that spread with eager hands
The carpet of the sun and shade
Across the tawny autumn lands.

In long festoons the woodbine drapes
A drapery above her ways
And ripened corn in sturdy troops
Salutes her in the proud array
And rustles now its pennons fair
When she comes regal in her pride,
With crimson poppies in her hair
And dusky robes all trailing wide.

The drifting haze that veils the dawn
The starry cosmos, fairy pink;
The scented, purple grapes thereon,
The drunken bees are fain to drink;
The apples, rich with cider hang,
And red as summer's sunset glow,
As autumn's scented censers bang
And in the breeze sway to and fro.

The cricket's song, the locust's whirr,
The tawny flush across the night,
Are of the welcome made for her
Whose step is slow and soft and light.
The leaves flash into red and gold—
With keeper made of golden oil,
The empress of the new and old,
September treads the dying soil.

STORIES FOUND IN THE LOBBIES

Interesting Happenings Concerning the People Who Are Traveling.

Sitting some among the passengers in Union station last night waiting for the 9:05 express train, was one traveler, Frank Terrel, and his thoughts at returning to his boyhood home to Austria did not heighten up his face and make him joyful. There were many people waiting for trains and the benches were crowded and had not the iron been so powerfully built he would have been overlooked by other people in the station. Two men east of the station were sufficient to keep people away from him, but his story became known to a few and he had their sympathy. His brother, Mathias Terrel, aged 21, was to be deported by the United States government and Local Immigration Inspector Robert D. Layton was at the station to take him to New York, from which port he will sail for Bremen, Germany. Mathias came to this country over a year ago and settled in Mays borough, where he worked in the coal mines and was prospering. He took a notion he would locate and the sleeping car worked on the imagination that he had been mentally deranged and had to be taken care of by the county authorities. When his poor history was looked up it was found he had suffered from dementia while in America and his deportation was decided upon. When Frank learned Mathias was to be sent back he told Inspector Layton he would not allow his brother to go home alone, but would go with him. Layton was considerably surprised, as it was the first time in the history of the local emigrant office that a relative or friend showed any concern when a person was to be deported. Frank Terrel had saved some money and yesterday evening he took leave of his family in Mays borough, having given up his position in the mines and started that last night. Layton said Frank Terrel will go to Austria with his brother and will have to pay his own expenses there and back to Pittsburgh, besides paying his brother's way from Bremen to their home town.

Plenty of Work for Miners.

Thomas L. Lewis of Monmouth, Illinois, vice president of the United Mine Workers' Association, passed through Pittsburgh on his way home last night. While at Union station he said he had been traveling through the Pennsylvania coal district, having been last at Greensburg, he said he found a scarcity of miners in the coal district, but that many men who had left the districts are returning. Lewis said the miners are in a very good condition and he believes during the coming winter the mines will be in full operation and the miners will be the best for work that has ever been over.

FORMULATE PLANS FOR NEW RUSSIA

Congress of Representatives of Zemstvo Outlines Demands on Government.

WANTS COMPLETE EQUALITY

[By Associated Press to The Gazette.]

MOSCOW, Sept. 26.—The congress of representatives of the Zemstvo and municipalities today was presided over by Prince Dolgurouki. Owing to the resignation of the members of the Tiflis douma, the Tiflis delegation was unable to attend, but its members wrote asking the congress to support their demand for two members from the Tiflis district in the imperial douma. The congress granted the request and expressed its indignation because of the circumstances which necessitated the resignation of all the members of the Tiflis douma. The congress decided on a political program, which includes:

Complete responsibility in the eyes of the law for all private individuals and officials alike.

Recognition of complete equality in the personal rights of all citizens of the empire.

Equality of the rights of peasants with those of other classes of society.

Liberation of the village populations from administrative guardianship.

Abolition of the zemski natchalnik.

Immediate recognition of the inviolability of person and domiciles.

Guarantees of the freedom of conscience, faith, speech, meeting and association and of the press.

Abolition of the passport system.

Formation of a national assembly which shall participate in legislation, institute a regular budgetary system and have control over the legality of the acts of higher and the lower administration.

The program also advocates representatives of a national and not on a class basis, the election of representatives being by universal and direct suffrage. Together with a representative assembly elected by universal suffrage, the congress declares that there must be organized a special representative body to be drawn from the zemstovs formed on a democratic basis and extended throughout the entire empire.

The delegates from Siberia urged that the election should take place in Siberia in time to enable the representatives of that country to participate in the first imperial douma.

OIL IN M'KEESPORT.

One Hundred Fifty Gallons of Fluid Is Taken from Abandoned Well on Stable Site.

The old old days of McKeesport were recalled yesterday when about 150 gallons of oil were taken from an old well at Ninth avenue and Market street, where excavations are being made for a livery stable.

The well was put down by ex-Mayor R. J. Black and others many years ago and proved a failure. Excitement has been roused on different occasions by the statement that nitro-glycerin had been buried on the property and its location lost. The workmen have failed so far to discover any traces of the explosives.

NAME VANDERGRIFT MAN.

The Rev. Dr. Holmes Dysinger Selected Professor of Lutheran Seminary.

The Rev. Dr. Holmes Dysinger, pastor of the Lutheran congregation at Vandergrift, Pa., was yesterday selected professor of Hebrew and New Testament exegesis of the Western Theological seminary of the Lutheran general synod at Atchison, Kas. Dr. Dysinger was named at a meeting of the board of education, held yesterday afternoon in Trinity Lutheran church, Allegheny, and accepted the position.

This professorship is one of the best the seminary affords, and Dr. Dysinger will prepare to vacate his pulpit and assume his new position during the winter. The board also selected a 14-page pamphlet of songs and scriptural readings issued by the Lutheran Publication society as the Christmas services for all the churches in the synod.

AFRAID OF DAMAGE SUITS.

Paving and Grading of a Homestead Street to be Reconsidered.

May street, the dividing line between Homestead and West Homestead, may not be paved. Although the contract is let, Homestead is likely to withdraw from it in the face of threatened damage suits aggregating over $100,000 on top of several hundred dollars already recovered.

The arrangement with West Homestead included a certain grade and paying half the cost, but the property owners on the Homestead side protested so vigorously that the street committee met yesterday with the residents and decided to reopen the whole question.

CONVENTION IN KNOXVILLE.

Missionary Society of Christian Churches Meet in Annual Session.

The Western Pennsylvania Missionary society of the Christian church convened in annual session in the Knoxville church yesterday afternoon with 186 delegates in attendance. During the afternoon H. H. Clark of this city delivered an informal address on "Ministerial Associations."

Last evening the Rev. S. E. Brewster of McKees Rocks presided, and the pastor of the church, the Rev. Frederick M. Gorgon, delivered the address of welcome. The Rev. George W. Knepper of Somerset gave the principal address of the evening, in which he reviewed the coming simultaneous revival to be held by the Christian churches throughout the western portion of the state, beginning October 29.

School Boy Disappears.

The disappearance of William Crable, aged 16, son of Mrs Julia Crable of 513 Fifth avenue, Homestead, was reported to the police of Pittsburgh and Homestead yesterday. There is also missing $16 belonging to the mother. The boy did not like school and on Monday was taken in charge by the truant officer. He agreed to go to school yesterday, but disappeared.

His Last Trip Is a Fatal One.

MARIETTA, O., Sept. 26.—(Special.)—Thomas Neelans, aged 27, of Allegheny, Pa., a deckhand on the towboat Tom Dodsworth, which tied up here Monday, fell from a barge while returning to the boat late last night and was drowned after being carried under the barge by the current. He leaves an aged mother in Allegheny whom he promised this would be his last river trip. The body was recovered this morning.

Elks Celebrate Anniversary.

McKeesport lodge No. 136, B. P. O. Elks, last night celebrated with a reception and social session the sixteenth anniversary of the founding of the lodge. There were 15 members on the charter roll. There are now about 500. Speeches were made by members who were on the first roster.

Drowns in Sight of Home.

MARIETTA, O., Sept. 26.—(Special.)—Mrs. Samuel Dye, wife of a prominent farmer near Gravel Bank, committed suicide this morning by drowning in the Ohio river in sight of her home. She leaves her husband and six children. Ill health led to suicide. The body was recovered this afternoon.

BRAVE OFFICER IS DYING IN DEFENSE OF WOMEN

Policeman Who Knew His Duty and Did It, Succumbing to an Attack of Point Rowdies Thirteen Years Ago

As the result of injuries sustained in the discharge of his duty 13 years ago, Policeman Michael Sullivan of No. 231 Carson street, South Side, is lying at the point of death in his home.

In 1892, Sullivan, whose beat was then at the Point, was instructed to rout up a gang of rowdies who had become obnoxious by congregating on corners and insulting women. He started to carry out his orders and succeeded in capturing half the gang single handed one night. The next night he returned in search of the others, but found the streets depopulated.

While awaiting developments several men slipped up behind him and beat him upon the head into unconsciousness with clubs and bricks. He was picked up from the pavement by a passerby two hours afterward and taken home, where he lingered near death for several weeks.

After apparently recovering, he resumed his police duties, but from time to time experienced considerable trouble with his head, and occasionally was compelled to give up his duties for a time. Seven weeks ago he was taken seriously ill and upon examination by a physician it developed that he was suffering from an abscess on the brain which found its inception at the time of the attack upon him. Physicians offer no hope of recovery.

Sullivan is said to have been a courageous officer and has served the police department for 16 consecutive years. His last beat centered at Fifth avenue and Soho street. He is married and is the father of four children, all of whom are living.

CLAIMS ARE WIPED OUT.

Investigation of the Affairs of the Western Life Indemnity Company Being Made.

CHICAGO, Sept. 26.—Investigation of the affairs of the Western Life Indemnity Company by a state examiner today brought to light facts tending to show that claims of perhaps thousands of policy-holders in assessments companies have been practically wiped out through company manipulation. Examiner Frouts discovered that 28 small insurance companies have terminated their existence by merging into the Western Life Indemnity.

"That means," said the examiner, "that the policy-holders of the original companies have gone through a process which leaves them practically uninsured, although they are still paying their premiums and have been doing so for years. This condition is not particularly the fault of the Western or other absorbing companies, for the absorption is done according to law."

Spotted Fever in Homestead.

A case of spotted fever was reported to the Homestead board of health yesterday, and the house was quarantined. The victim is Grace Shaw, aged 17, who removed from New York to Homestead recently, to live with her mother and stepfather, Mr. and Mrs. George Blount, at 220 Seventh avenue. She was in a dangerous condition last evening.

Too Much Worry.

Worry kills more people than disease. It turns our hair gray; draws wrinkles on our face, places lines of care on our brow. We worry because we have too much to do. We worry because we have nothing to do. We worry about our friends. Make our friends wonder at our impatient and irritable nature, and if we don't take the trouble to learn the great secret we will worry ourselves into the grave. Worry is caused by a diseased stomach. Lactonene Dyspepsia Tablets cures it. Get them today. A contented mind is surely yours—the greatest blessing man or woman can have. "Ask the Druggist."

FORAKER NOT OUT OF JOINT WITH THE ADMINISTRATION

Ohio Senator Denies That His Bellefontaine Speech Was an Attack on President Roosevelt's Policy With Reference to Freight Rate Regulation.

[By Private Wire to The Gazette.]

WASHINGTON, Sept. 26.—Senator Foraker of Ohio, who was in Washington for a few hours today, denies that his speech at the opening of the Ohio campaign was intended as an attack on the attitude of the administration's freight rate policy. The senior senator insists that the only exception that he takes to President Roosevelt's suggestion is the manner in which the end sought is to be reached. He does not believe that it is necessary to confer rate-making powers on the interstate commerce commission in order to correct the existing evils.

"I have nothing to retract from what I said in my speech," said Senator Foraker. "Those who read my speech carefully will find nothing sensational in it or that is not in harmony with my previous utterances on the subject.

"There is no excuse for talk of a break with the administration. Such a thought never entered my head. The president wants legislation that will cure recognized evils. We all want the same thing. I do not suppose he or anybody else is so wedded to any particular way that no other way will be acceptable.

"He recommends that we confer the rate-making power on the interstate commerce commission. I do not think that is necessary. I do not know what others may think of it and do not know, therefore, what method will be adopted, but I am sure there will be an earnest effort made to accomplish what the president wants done."

It is known that Senator Foraker has been giving the question considerable attention this summer since the senate committee on interstate commerce concluded its special hearing. He has prepared a bill which he will submit to the committee when it meets this fall. If the committee does not decide to report favorable upon his bill it is possible that the senator may introduce it himself.

The Death Roll

Robert C. Cornelius.

Robert C. Cornelius, aged 72, one of the best known members of the Episcopal church in this city, died Monday afternoon at his residence, 34 Dithridge street, after one month's illness. He was born in Philadelphia, received his early education in the schools of that city, and was connected with various Philadelphia firms for many years. Later he became connected with the Knoxville Land Improvement Company, serving as secretary. He then became connected with the Dongra Land Improvement Company, and at the time he was taken ill was with the St. Clair Improvement Company. He was prominently identified with church work, being historian of the Episcopal Church club. He is survived by his widow, three sons, Henry, Robert, Justice Cox and William D. Cornelius, and one daughter, Mrs. Edith Houpke.

Henry J. Merkel.

Henry J. Merkel, aged 51, died suddenly yesterday at his home, 134 Shetland avenue. He was born in Pittsburgh and was the son of John and Gertrude Merkel. He had lived over 40 years in the East End, being among the earliest residents of that district. Twenty-six years ago he married Willomena Kempf, who, with four children, survives him. The children are George, Laura, Susan and Marie. Two brothers, John and George Merkel, and a sister, Mrs. Henry Wolff, all of this city, also survive. He was a member of St. Peter's Evvangelical Lutheran church. Funeral services will be held at his late residence at 3 p. m. Friday, and the interment will be in Lemington cemetery.

Mrs. William O. Williams.

Mrs. May E. Williams, aged 32, wife of William O. Williams, in the clerical department of the Westinghouse electric works at East Pittsburgh, died suddenly yesterday morning at the family home in North Braddock from heart disease. She was born in Kent, O., and was married June 17 last. Before her marriage she was Miss Fay E. Corns, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Corns of North Braddock. She was a member of the North Braddock United Brethren church and is survived by her husband and her parents.

Miss Ellen Wiseman.

Miss Ellen Wiseman, aged 65, died Monday at the residence of her niece, Mrs. John Webber, 809 Bluff street. She was born in Ireland and came to this city 45 years ago. She leaves one brother, Patrick H. Wiseman of Philadelphia, and four sisters, Mrs. Mary Munn, Mrs. Kathryn Fogel, Jennie and Julia Wiseman, all of this city.

Obituary Notes.

Mrs. Sarah E. Burns, aged 70 years, one of the wealthiest women of Altoona, died yesterday morning from heart disease. Two sons and four daughters survive.

James M. Thomas of Thomas station, near Washington, died yesterday at Mt. Clemens, Mich., as a result of a paralytic stroke. He was 66 years of age. He was born in North Strabane township, being the son of Liverton Thomas. He was actively identified with the business interests of the county. He was a leading Republican. Mr. Thomas was twice married.

Mrs. Elizabeth K. Lieberum.

Mrs. Elizabeth Kittleberger Lieberum, aged 64, widow of Henry Lieberum, died yesterday at her home in Chapman street, Sharpsburg. Mrs. Lieberum was born in Germany and came to this country in 1850. In 1865 she married Henry Lieberum, who died in 1885. She had lived in Sharpsburg for over 40 years and was an active member of St. John's German Lutheran church. These children survive: Christ, Edward and George Lieberum; Mrs. Mary Kessler, Indiana township; Mrs. Emma Lang, Pittsburgh, and Mrs. Lottie Noe, Sharpsburg. Fifteen grandchildren also survive.

REFORM IN HOSPITALS.

English Surgeon Makes Plea for Care of the Poor Man Before His Brethren in Convention.

BOSTON, Sept. 26.—At the national convention of hospital superintendents here today Sir Henry Burdette of England, in the course of an address, said:

"Things are not satisfactory in our hospitals. There is need to alter and amend the method in order that the poor man entitled to it shall have adequate hospital care, and have it not only without difficulty, but with absolute certainty. The sooner, in my opinion, the medical profession fairly and squarely recognizes that it is wrong to bring up their students with the idea you cannot perform an operation unless it is in a marble hall costing some $50,000, the better it will be for the future of science and the care and treatment of the whole body of the population."

The Hunting Season.

Nimrod was a mighty hunter, but had he hunted in the "Highlands of Ontario" that are reached by the Grand Trunk Railway System he would have been a mightier one. Nimrod hunted for glory, but those who go up into the several districts in Ontario hunt for game and have no difficulty in finding it. The regions in which deer abound are the "Muskoka Lake," "Lake of Bays," "Magnetawan River," "Georgian Bay," "Lake Nipissing," the "French River," "Kawartha Lakes" and on the line of the Canada Atlantic between Scotia Junction and the boundary of Algonquin Park. The open season is from November 1st to November 15th.

For moose, the best region in Canada is found in Temagami, where the season opens October 16th and continues until November 15th.

The open season for ducks in Ontario is from September 1st to December 15th and for partridge September 15th to December 15th.

A beautifully illustrated book, "Haunts of Fish and Game," giving descriptions of the different hunting districts, game laws, maps, etc., sent free on application to W. Robinson, Traveling Passenger Agent, 505 Park Building, Pittsburgh, Pa.

Special Trip By the S. S. Deutschland.

Owing to a very urgent demand made upon the Hamburg-American line by numerous patrons for another special sailing to Italy by their great flyer Deutschland, it has just been decided by the company to dispatch the Deutschland from New York on February 6, 1906, to Gibraltar, Naples and Genoa. The trip to Gibraltar will be made in less than seven days, and no doubt many who intend to sail to Italy next winter will be glad to learn of this opportunity, enabling them to reach Italy in a little over a week.

WEAVER'S POWER IS PURELY LOCAL

His Fight Cannot Hurt the State Ticket, Declares Lieut.-Gov. Brown.

CAMPAIGN LEADERS NAMED

THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE BUREAU, Press Building.
PHILADELPHIA, PA., Sept. 26.

Lieut.-Gov. William M. Brown and Senator Phillips of Lawrence were visitors at Republican state headquarters today. Both spoke very confidentially of the certainty of Republican success, and assured State Chairman Andrews the Philadelphia fight would have no bearing elsewhere. Lieut-Gov. Brown said:

"Mayor Weaver's disagreement with the Republican leaders here, and his effort to injure those who inspired his election as prosecuting attorney, and as mayor, will not influence a single Republican to oppose the Republican state ticket. I do not really believe he can hurt the local Republican ticket.

"The people of the state understand the Philadelphia situation. They have no confidence in a reform campaign which is conceived in personal and political treason, exploited by the misrepresentation of a subsidized press, and which has for its object party control by men who for years have been trying to wreck and besmirch the Republican organization of Pennsylvania."

Receiver of Taxes Beaston yesterday refused to issue poll tax receipts on printed power of attorney orders. The application, regarded as a test case, was made by Franklin N. Brewer, superintendent of John Wanamaker's department store. Judge Bregg granted a temporary writ in the matter, which will be argued tomorrow morning.

Insurance Commissioner David Martin, David H. Lane and Chairman James L. Miles will have active charge of the Republican city campaign. They will be assisted by the "Committee of Twenty-one," members of the Union league. Senator Penrose will be prominent in an advisory capacity.

City party leaders today announced Mayor Weaver might not go on the stump. If he does, according to his friends, it will be shortly before election day.

CHESTER D. POTTER.

BIGELOW CONFERS WITH ASPINWALL RESIDENTS

Says Borough Will Be Annexed and That Filter Employes Are Naturalized Citizens.

Director Bigelow yesterday received a call from two residents of Aspinwall, who have been conspicuous in the opposition to the proposed annexation of the borough to Pittsburgh. The director talked with the Aspinwall delegates for over an hour in his office.

"They wanted to know what benefits Aspinwall would get if it came into Pittsburgh," said the director. "They had a great many questions to ask, and I tried to answer them satisfactorily. I have no doubt that Aspinwall will come into the city and that annexation will win in the borough by a large majority. We can take up the ordinance, which was held up in select council yesterday, and pass it at any time. A special election will be required."

"Are you going to take the filtration plant into the city at the same time you annex Aspinwall?"

"No. We will annex Aspinwall and then take in the filter plant later."

"Are the Italians employed at the filter plant naturalized American citizens and can they be voted for mayor at the city election next February?"

"Yes; every one of them," replied the director.

Director Bigelow said West Liberty would come in, also the Second and Sixth election districts of Chartiers township, for which ordinances were introduced on Monday in select councils.

THIBET IS ITS OBJECT.

Great Britain and China Will Hold Conference to Arrange for Framing a New Treaty.

WAHINGTON, Sept. 26.—A conference will be held in the near future in Calcutta, English India, which will have as its purpose the framing of a new treaty between England and China concerning Thibet. The Chinese government will be represented by its minister in London, Chang Tn Yen, while the English viceroy probably will be the British representative.

China never recognized the treaty Col. Younghusband made with the Thibetan authorities, and protested against it as soon as the military expedition returned from Lhassa.

CONDUCTOR WILL BE HEARD AND PROBABLY DISMISSED

The conductor of the Pittsburgh Railways Company, who stood by while women passengers were insulted by two intoxicated men, has been suspended by President Callery of the traction company, and will be given a hearing this morning. In the meantime a rigid inquiry has been made, and it is probable that the conductor will be dismissed from the service. The men are alleged to have lounged on the women and insulted them, while the conductor made no effort to protect them. The name of the conductor is withheld till his side of the story is heard. The officials of the traction company are very indignant at such a happening.

NEW FEATURES DEVELOP IN THE TRACTION FIGHT

Advices from Harrisburg yesterday stated that the application for a charter for the Mawhinney Street Railway Company, one of the Fording-Morse lines, had been attacked by the Pittsburgh Railways Company in two directions. The Bates Street Railway Company claims that the Mawhinney line would use the street on which the Bates line possesses franchise right. The Bellefield Street Railway Company files an extension to cover Bellefield from Bayard to Forbes. This was anticipated by a Fording protest against the filing of extensions. The arguments will be heard October 5.

PART OF BIGELOW'S ASSETS ARE SOLD

MILWAUKEE, Sept. 26.—The total amount derived from the sale of Frank G. Bigelow's assets by the Wisconsin Trust Company yesterday and today is $180,980, which is about 75 per cent of their appraised value. There yet remains several large assets of the defaulting president of the First National bank which, owing to complications, cannot be sold for some time.

DAUGHTER OF PANAMA MARRIES AN AMERICAN

PANAMA, Sept. 26.—Teresa, a daughter of Gen. Santiago de La Guardia, minister of war, was married today to P. L. Fellinger, manager of the Panama Banking Company. Charles F. Magoon, governor of the canal zone, was one of the witnesses to the marriage contract. All the members of the diplomatic corps were present. Mr. Fellinger is a native of the United States.

AMERICAN PARTY IS READY FOR BUSINESS

SALT LAKE CITY, Sept. 26.—The American party, organized to oppose the Mormon church in city and state politics, today placed in nomination its first municipal ticket, with Ezra Thompson as its candidate for mayor. Mr. Thompson is a mining man and capitalist, and was formerly mayor of the city.

BIG PLANT READY TO FIGHT FLAMES

Spang-Chalfant Company Organizes Its Own Brigade, Now Etna Has None.

FIREMEN ARE BEING TRAINED

Fire Marshal W. D. McGill's declaration that unless Etna retained the experienced volnteer fire company which resigned from the service of the borough recently, he would rerate the borough and increase the insurance rates, has already borne fruit, although there has been much doubt expressed as to whether the fire marshal really intended to carrw out his threat.

The Spang-Chalfant Company, whose mills occupy a large portion of the borough, yesterday began the organization of a private fire department, which, when perfected, will be the most efficient organization of its kind ever attempted. Fifty men have been enlisted in the company and 4,000 feet of fire hose ordered. New fire plugs will be placed throughout the mills, and the men stationed in different sections of the plant ready to answer the fire alarm whistle. G. E. Pilguin will act as fire chief and the firemen will receive their first drill today.

The Spang-Chalfant Company has suffered over $75,000 loss from fire in the last two years and the new fire company is expected to prove a money saver.

The new Etna volunteer hose company will organize this evening with about 25 members. Every effort will be made to make the new department an efficient one, but according to the letter written two weeks ago by the fire marshal, he does not regard an inexperienced company as sufficient fire protection for the borough.

The Spang-Chalfant Company this week placed in operation their new bell-weld threading and galvanizing departments. The buildings, which cover about eight acres, are of concrete and the most approved design. The machinery is operated entirely by electricity, in the same manner as pipe mills Nos. 4 and 5 of the company. The bell-weld and threading departments replace those destroyed by fire last spring. The company now employs about 2,000 men and the mills cover 100 acres of ground. The daily output is estimated at over 10,000 pipes and boiler tubes.

In addition to the new fire department the company has an efficient police force of 10 men.

CLASH BETWEEN STATE AND COUNTY LEADERS

Mr. Roosevelt Must Decide Betwixt Factions in Naming West Virginia Postmaster.

[BY PRIVATE WIRE TO THE GAZETTE.]

WASHINGTON, Sept. 26.—When President Roosevelt returns to Washington it is expected he will name a new postmaster for Charleston, W. Va. His action in this matter will be of more than ordinary interest to the people of Jefferson county, as it will indicate whether he will recognize the local organization or the West Virginia senators. Senator Elkins and his colleague have agreed to recommend Capt. Henry C. Getzendanner, and Henry W. Bradly has the indorsement of the Jefferson county organization.

Mr. Bradley is at present assistant postmaster and for some time has been virtually acting postmaster due to the inability of the postmaster to attend to the duties of the office. Capt. Getzendanner is a resident of Kablestown, but on account of his prominence as state leader the West Virginia senators are anxious to secure his appointment.

He was a loyal supporter of Senator Scott during that gentleman's fight for re-election, and it is believed he will work equally hard for Senator Elkins when his fight comes on before a legislature that will re-elect him to the senate. In its protests, the Jefferson county organization claims the reason it is ignored is because it cannot deliver any Republican members to the next legislature, and therefore all the patronage in the county is to be handled by Senator Elkins, who, in making appointments, will select Republicans suggested to him by Fish Commissioner George M. Bowers and other leading Republicans of Berkeley county, as it is expected that Berkeley will deliver two Republican delegates to the next legislature.

Mr. Bowers is spoken of as Senator Elkins' selection for the next governor of West Virginia, and it is added that the Republican candidate for congress in that district to succeed Col. Thomas Davis, is State Senator Ira Robinson of Grafton, a brother-in-law of Judge A. G. Dayton, whose appointment to the federal bench created a vacancy in the Second congressional district, which Col. Davis is now filling.

HERRICK BEFORE GRAND JURY.

Gives Testimony on Which He Seeks the Indictment of an Alleged Female Blackmailer.

CLEVELAND, O., Sept. 26.—Gov. Myron T. Herrick went before the Cuyahoga county grand jury his afternoon to give evidence upon which will be sought the indictment of a Chicago woman who is accused by the governor of an attempt to blackmail him.

The governor was accompanied to the grand jury room by a Chicago detective, who, it was stated, had been at work on the case. Gov. Herrick declared that the woman had persistently attempted to blackmail him for several years.

DEDICATE A MONUMENT TO PROMINENT PASTOR

Large Number of People Attend Ceremony Held at Amity in Memory of the Rev. Mr. Spaulding.

[SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE GAZETTE.]

WASHINGTON, PA., Sept. 26.—The handsome monument to the memory of the Rev. Solomon Spaulding was dedicated this afternoon at Amity, this county. Several hundred people were in attendance. Prof. J. K. Lacock of Canonsburg, was master of ceremonies and addresses were made by the Rev. Dr. W. F. Brown, Canonsburg; Hon. E. F. Acheson, Washington; Dr. E. F. Dodd, Van Buren; D. H. Fee, Canonsburg; the Rev. J. W. McKay, Waynesburg, and Dr. A. F. Fletcher of Pittsburgh.

Prof. Lacock made the historical address. The Rev. Mr. Spaulding was pastor of the Amity Presbyterian church early in the last century. He was born at Ashfor, Conn., in 1761, and died at Amity in 1816. He was a graduate of Dartmouth college, and served in the Revolutionary war.

In 1789, with his brother, he purchased large tracts of land in Ohio and Western Pennsylvania, but the war of 1812 caused them heavy losses and Solomon Spaulding went to Pittsburgh in 1814. He went later to Amity, where he died. The headstone over his grave crumbled away, and money for the monument dedicated today was raised by popular subscription.

PAY HIGH PRICE FOR A DOG.

County Assumes Costs of $100 in a Case Over a $1 Sheep-Killing Cur.

INDIANA, PA., Sept. 26.—(Special.)—After the jury had been deadlocked 48 hours in the Conrod-Pifer sheep-killing case, the county will have to pay $100 for a dog which was worth $1, Conrod having testified that he paid that amount for the animal. The dog is said to have been worrying Pifer's sheep, and Pifer shot him. Conrod brought suit for damages.

The court and jury spent nearly all last Saturday hearing the case. The jury quickly decided that Pifer was not guilty, but when 11 of them favored putting the costs on him, the twelfth man protested and hung out for 48 hours, when the panel was discharged by the court, the costs being placed against the county.

SCARCITY OF CARS.

Railroad Lines in the East Are Already Refusing to Let Go of their Own Rolling Stock.

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 26.—(Special.)—The scarcity of cars has already begun to be felt by railroad lines in the east. The Reading, the Baltimore & Ohio, and the New York Central have notified other lines they will not permit their cars to go off their own roads.

The Pennsylvania will probably follow the action of the Reading and the Baltimore & Ohio. The soft coal operators along the line of the Pennsylvania are having some trouble now in getting cars, and under the new order more delays will be experienced.

BURGLARS OPERATE NEAR NEW CASTLE

NEW CASTLE, PA., Sept. 26.—Thieves last night stole a valuable horse and a buggy from Charles Morrow of Newport. Burglars early this morning broke into Eging's wholesale liquor store in Mahoningtown and carried off a large quantity of liquor. They overlooked $60 in money. While said to be intoxicated last night William Caling was robbed of over $60. He received $54 in pay yesterday and when arrested later he had only $2.70.

DR. KOENIG OPENS MEDICAL CONVENTION

SCRANTON, Sept. 26.—More than 400 doctors are here in attendance at the fifty-fifth annual convention of the Medical Society of the state of Pennsylvania. The sessions are presided over by the state president, Dr. Adolph Koenig of Pittsburgh. The society has 4,000 members, a gain of 286 during the year.

Beaten Insensible and Robbed.

LATROBE, PA., Sept. 26.—(Special.)—Last midnight Morris Moore of McKeesport was attacked by two masked highwaymen near his distillery. The men stopped his horse and ordered him to get out of the wagon. Upon his refusal they dragged him out and after beating him into insensibility took his wallet containing $30 and a valuable gold watch and chain.

Broods Over Idea of Moving.

ATOONA, PA., Sept. 26.—(Special.)—After brooding for several days over the necessity of moving, and unable to secure another house, Fred Ritter, a laborer, aged 62, committed suicide at his home here this morning, by sending a bullet into his brain. Ritter was preparing to join his wife at breakfast when he suddenly committed the tragedy.

Organize a New Railroad.

CONNELLSVILLE, PA., Sept. 26.—(Special.)—The Parsons & Shaffers Fork Railroad Company was organized here today with the intention of building a standard guage railroad through a tract of several thousand acres of timber land along the Cheat river in West Virginia, which was recently purchased.

MAN THROWS AWAY SISTER'S DIAMONDS

KITTANNING, PA., Sept. 26.—(Special.)—While in his sister's room last evening, Dr. S. A. Jessup picked up a round box which he supposed contained old pills and tossed it out of the window. Later his sister announced that some loose diamonds she kept in a box had disappeared from her room. Hastily getting a lantern, Dr. Jessup began a search of the ground under the window. The box and diamonds were finally found lying close to the sidewalk.

HIGH SCHOOL CLASSES CLASH AT CHARLEROI

CHARLEROI, PA., Sept. 26.—(Special.)—The Juniors and freshmen of the local high school clashed last night. The juniors armed with a pennant three yeards long, bearing the inscription "C. H. S. 1907," gained access to the high school building on the hill and fastened the pennant to the flag pole at the top of the building. The freshmen quickly gathered and the flag was captured and torn to shreds after a sharp conflict in which heads were bruised and an officer was hustled out of the building.

Claim Barber's Bill is Too High.

GREENSBURG, PA., Sept. 26.—An odd exception was filed to the account of the executor of the estate of Daniel Niswonger of East Huntingdon. The executor had given himself credit with a bill of a barber who had shaved Mr. Niswonger just before he was placed in the casket. Heirs think that the charge for the barber's services is excessive and have protested against its allowance.

Receive Voluntary Wage Increase.

CONNELLSVILLE, PA., Sept. 26.—It was announced to the employes of the Baltimore & Ohio railroad machine shops here today that they had been granted a voluntary increase in wages ranging from 15 to 25 centes a day. The advance is graded according to the rating of the men as skilled mechanics. Those receiving the highest wages get the least advance.

Mastiff Attacks Small Girl.

ALTOONA, PA., Sept. 26.—(Special.)—Eight-year-old Jennie Harris of Duncanville, was attacked today by a mastiff, which sank its fangs into her face and disfigured her for life. The girl accidentally tramped upon the dog, which sprang upon her. Parts of both cheeks were torn away, the mouth was mutilated terribly and the nose was almost torn off.

Fire Damages a Fraternity House.

BELLEFONTE, Pa., Sept. 26.—(Special.)—The Sigma Chi fraternity house was damaged by fire this morning. By rapid work on the part of the students nearly all the furniture and household goonds were rescued. Fatkes, half back on the varsity ball eleven, sustained a sprained ankle while leading the student fire brigade.

MUCH INTEREST IN THE MODERATOR ELECTION

Second Day's Session of the First Synod of the West of the United Presbyterian Church.

[SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE GAZETTE.]

GROVE CITY PA., Sept. 26.—The first synod of the west of the United Presbyterian church, embracing the territory extending from Pittsburgh to Cleveland, opened its second day's session this morning with a praise service, conducted by the Rev. R. W. Kidd, D. D., of Beaver Falls. Reports from committees showed that the different presbyteries are in a healthy condition. Much interest was manifested in the election of a moderator to succeed Dr. McDonald, the two nominees being Dr. F. W. Free of Lake presbytery, and Dr. J. R. Milligan of Cleveland.

The vote was close, but was in favor of Dr. Free. The Rev. H. Hay of New Brighton was returned as clerk, and the Rev. W. W. Lawrence of Bellevue elected assistant clerk for a term of four years. The question of reform was lightly touched upon, and a committee upon the same added to the list of standing committees. The Rev. John McNaughter, D. D., of the Allegheny Theological seminary gave a talk on "The Psalmody Convention," in which he made an earnest plea for a large attendance and financial support for the Pittsburgh convention.

In response it was decided that the different churches would take up a collection for this purpose on October 22, Psalmody day. This afternoon the Rev. W. E. McCullough of Pittsburgh gave an address upon "Evangelism," and the Rev. Alexander Gilchrist, D. D., of Pittsburgh gave a report upon home mission work, making a plea for a more united effort in this direction. The Rev. C. R. Watson, D. D., of Philadelphia gave a similar talk upon foreign missions.

Thieves Carry Off a Trunk.

ROCHESTER, PA., Sept. 26.—(Special.)—Thieves entered the home of Mrs. Margaret Douglass last night, and after ransacking the house, carried out a trunk belonging to Miss Elsie Smith of Pittsburgh, a sister of Mrs. Douglass, who was visiting her. In the back yard it was broken open, but the thieves secured little booty. An attempt was also made to enter the home of William Anderson, but the thieves were frightened away.

Fast Train Kills a Brakeman.

ALTOONA, PA., Sept. 26.—(Special.)—Weston W. Hague, aged 29, a Pennsylvania railroad brakeman employed in the local yard, jumped upon an engine after his night's work to ride to his home this morning, and when alighting he stepped in front of a fast express train and was instantly killed.

Instantly Killed By a Train.

ROCHESTER, PA., Sept. 26.—C. J. Murray, aged 65 years, was instantly killed by a train on the Fort Wayne railroad early this morning. His home was at Grafton, W. Va., but he was employed at Rochester.

Buffalo Express Kills a Man.

OIL CITY, PA., Sept. 26.—(Special.)—James Hagen of Monterey was struck by the Buffalo express on the Allegheny Valley railroad today near that place and instantly killed.

DOAN'S KIDNEY PILLS

Odette Tyler

MISS TYLER'S NOTE

Foster-Milburn Co.

My experience with your valuable remedy has been equally gratifying to both myself and friends.

[Signed] ODETTE TYLER.

Odette Tyler is one of the best players of the American stage. Her work is finished and artistic. Charles Frohman found her one of his most popular stars. Last season Miss Tyler wrote, produced and played the leading role in a successful romantic drama, "The Red Carnation." Miss Tyler's testimony for Doan's Kidney Pills is a noteworthy recognition of their merit, for she has always been loath to allow her name to be published in this manner.

The Real Cause of Backache, Urinary Ills, Dizzy Spells, Etc., Is Weakness of the Kidneys. Doan's Kidney Pills Cure Weak Kidneys.

Sick kidneys, like any weak link in a chain, weaken the whole structure of the body and hasten its final breaking down.

Overwork, strains, colds and other causes injure the kidneys, and when the activity of the kidneys is lessened the whole body suffers from an excess of urie acid circulated with the blood.

Backache, rheumatic pains, urinary ills and languid or nervous spells follow, and there is an ever-increasing tendency toward fatal diabetes or Bright's Disease. There is no real help for the sufferer at any time except kidney help.

Doan's Kidney Pills is the one kidney specific that acts directly upon the kidneys, makes lasting cures, and is indorsed by people you know. It is purely vegetable and contains no dangerous druas. It relieves inflammation and congestion, restores healthy kidney tissue, and rids the sufferer permanently of those aches and pains that come from sick kidneys.

PITTSBURGH PROOF.

Mrs. W. Rapperbhler of 1826 Sarah street, South side, says: "In the winter I suffered a great deal from pains in the back and the secretions from the kidneys were heavy, white and contained a good deal of mucus. Last winter, while suffering from one of these attacks, I happened to see Doan's Kidney Pills advertised and began using them. They helped me from the start and I know of others who have experienced just as complete relief as I from the use of this remedy."

The above statement was made on August 28, 1897. Interviewed on May 12, 1904, almost seven years later, Mrs. Rapperbhler said: "The testimonial I gave seven years ago recommending Doan's Kidney Pills still stands good. I have had no reason to change my opinion of this remedy and you may continue to use my statement for publication."

If you wish to try Doan's Kidney Pills, free of expense, write to Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., for a trial box.

GUFFEY EARNEST IN BERRY POLICY

Will Again Demand That Citizens Indorse His Candidate for State Treasurer.

DEMOCRATIC NIGHT SESSION

When the Citizens and Democratic conferees meet at 2 p. m. today to discuss the fusion ticket, Col. James M. Guffey and his adherents among the Democrats will again propose that the Citizens put William H. Berry, the Democratic candidate for state treasurer, on their ticket. As the Citizens insist that it is the wiser policy for them to indorse J. Lee Plummer, the Republican candidate, the conference will probably disagree. Much influence was brought to bear yesterday on Col. Guffey by Controller Larkin, who stands with Director E. M. Bigelow in favoring Plummer for the Citizens ticket, although Larkin is a Democrat. He realizes that Berry is doomed to defeat anyhow, and believes the Citizens ought to be allowed to indorse his opponent.

The Democratic committee on vacancies was to meet yesterday at 4 p. m. in Col. Guffey's office, but shortly after that hour Col. Guffey himself said the meeting had been postponed until 10 o'clock this morning. Nevertheless the committee met quietly last night and Col. Guffey was present. It adjourned close to midnight. It agreed, although not unanimously, that Col. Guffey's demand for the indorsement of Berry should be reiterated today and that if the Citizens did not agree the Democrats would withdraw.

Fusion May Be Knocked Out.

That may not necessarily mean that fusion is blocked or that the Democratic convention will be reconvened to put up a Democratic county ticket, but that result is not unlikely in the end. Still much argument will be used on Col. Guffey and threats have already been made that if his policy upsets fusion and thereby prevents the election of Democrats to county office this fall, his state leadership will be attacked. Democrats realize that without fusion they have no hope of being elected to office.

Controller John B. Larkin, a Democrat, who stands with Bigelow in demanding that Plummer be indorsed by the Citizens, maintains that it is only fair to permit the Citizens to indorse the Republican candidate.

"You see," said Mr. Larkin, "it was agreed as far back as last May that there would be fusion between the Democrats and Citizens. The county ticket alone was meant, for at that time there was no trouble among Republicans in Philadelphia and the state ticket of neither party had been nominated. In my opinion it it not fair to expect the Citizens to take up the Democratic candidate, the Citizens being Republicans in state and national politics. Every Democrat knows that last May no one would have expected the Citizens to indorse in the fall any but the Republican candidates for state offices; then why should we now expect them to take up a Democratic nominee?

How the Candidates Feel.

It is understood that Francis X. Barry, the fusion candidate for clerk of courts, thinks with Larkin that the Democrats ought not to interfere with the Citizens; that Henry Meyer, the Democrat, who is the fusion candidate for register of wills, is indifferent, and that James A. Clark, Democrat and candidate for re-election as county commissioner, on the fusion ticket, stands for Col. Guffey, and is even willing to resign from the fusion ticket or aid in calling a Democratic convention to undo the fusion work, if Col. Guffey says the word.

Mr. Larkin is said to believe the action of the Lincoln party in indorsing the Republican county ticket, while it opposes the Republican candidate for state treasurer, strengthens his position on the ground that for any Republican votes that would go to Berry, there is a place in the Lincoln column, and that any Citizens who want to vote for Berry can vote in the Democratic column, as, with the exception of the candidates for the superior court and the candidate for state treasurer, the Democratic and Citizens columns on the official ballot will be alike. It was said last night that Guffey may be prevailed on to think that the Lincoln party's indorsement of Berry neutralizes the Citizens party's indorsement of Plummer.

Candidate Berry in Pittsburgh.

Mr. Berry came here yesterday morning and left in the afternoon for Greensburg. He called on Harry S. Paul, chairman of the prohibition party, on Col. Guffey, William J. Brennen and Controller Larkin. Mr. Larkin said he explained to Berry his position in not demanding that the Citizens indorse Berry. The controller says Berry expressed himself as satisfied with his stand in the matter. Mr. Berry said he was well pleased with the reception accorded him by the Prohibition audiences, to which he has been speaking.

A Veteran bureau has been established at the Republican headquarters, with Crosby Gray and John W. Moreland in charge. Either Mr. Gray or Mr. Moreland or both will be at headquarters every day, ready to receive the old soldiers who may call, and all are invited to drop in any time they choose.

Hunneshagen's Gun Spiked.

The Rev. Francis C. McCabe, pastor of the Roman Catholic church of the Annunciation, Allegheny, yesterday spiked the first gun which Henry Hunneshagen, Mayor Wyman's candidate for mayor of Allegheny at next February's election, had fired. Hunneshagen was quoted as saying he expected to get the support of the Federation of Churches, and that Father McCabe, who is a member of the federation, had called on him and talked the matter over. Hunneshagen's statement surprised everybody, even his supporters, for between the Wyman regime and the Federation of Churches, it is known there is no love.

Father McCabe yesterday denied Hunneshagen's statement. He said he was not in politics, but he intended to support any man for mayor of Allegheny whom the federation decided to support. He had nothing against Hunneshagen, but had made him no promises, nor had they discussed the matter together. Hunneshagen is Wyman's director of public charities.

Hunneshagen, confronted with Father McCabe's denial, said:

"I guess I am a little mixed on my man. It was some other pastor."

Marshall Loses Another to Tarrasch.

NUREMBURG, GERMANY, Sept. 26.—Dr. Tarrasch won the seventh game of the match of eight games up against Marshall, the American chess player today, after 46 moves had been recorded. Marshall, for the first time in his match playing career, opened a game with pawn to kings fourth, adopting the Vienna opening. Tarrasch from the very start simplified matters much by indulging in repeated exchanges and the position after 18 moves or thereabouts presented a very simple state of affairs, everything being perfectly even and it was thought that a draw would be the result. In the end game stage, however, Marshall made a careless move which enabled Tarrasch to win the game rather finely. The score now stands: Tarrasch 3, Marshall 0, drawn 4.

History of School Celebration.

A booklet has been issued by the executive committee of the First ward school reunion, giving an account of the celebration held at the old school house last June. Wherever the addresses were known, copies have been mailed to the former scholars. Persons who have been overlooked in the distribution can obtain copies on application to any member of the committee.

Denies Himself to Callers.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 26.—Senator Platt of New York, accompanied by Mrs. Platt, arrived hr tonight from the West. The senator retired immediately to his room, and denied himself to callers.

Automobile Notes.

The race for the Sir Thomas Dewar trophy will be held on the Coney Island boulevard, October 14. Louis S. Ross, holder of the cup has sold his car and will not defend it. Ford and Christie are said to be positive starters. The cars that finished third, fourth and fifth in the elimination trial race, that is the Royal Tourist, Haynes and Thomas machines have been rejected by the committee and the Pope-Toledo car driven by Lyttle, the White steamer and the Christie car have been substituted for them.

FOWNES' PHENOMENAL GOLF.

Western Pennsylvania Open and Amateur Champion Played Sensationly With Ormiston.

W. C. Fownes, Jr., the present open and amateur golf champion of Western Pennsylvania, played sensational golf yesterday at Oakmont with G. A. Ormiston. It unquestionably was the fastest golf ever seen in these parts. He negotiated the course in 64, the bogey being 75. Mr. Fownes went out in 29, unheard-of figures, and came home in 35. Mr. Ormiston had a 71, four under bogey. Their cards were:

W. C. Fownes, Jr.—
Out	3	3	3	3	4	3	3	3	4	—29
In	5	4	5	4	5	2	4	2	4	—35—64
G. A. Ormiston—
Out	4	4	4	3	4	4	4	4	5	—36
In	4	4	4	4	5	3	4	2	4	—35—71

No professional or amateur has ever equaled the record made by Mr. Fownes, Mr. Ormiston, while playing splendid golf, finished seven down to Mr. Fownes.

Oakmont Country club will play Pittsburgh Golf club this afternoon on Schenley park links. The line-up for Oakmont will be: W. C. Fownes, Jr., Dr. D. P. Fredericks, H. C. Fownes, C. B. Fownes, George MacPherson and G. A. Ormiston. For Pittsburgh—A. K. Oliver, E. E. Giles, William Frew, J. J. Grady, T. K. Laughlin and Warren Kay.

Allegheny Country club will play Edgewood Golf club today at Edgewood.

First Accident on the Gridiron.

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 26.—W. Hollenback, a member of the University of Pennsylvania football squad, broke his right leg above the ankle while at practice today on Franklin field. Hollenback was playing left end on the second squad, and in running around the varsity right end he was tackled from behind. He was thrown to the ground with great force and in such a manner that his leg was broken.

BASEBALL CHATTER.

Tomorrow the Brooklyns will be here.

Ritchey made two hits and scored two runs.

Gibson again did some good throwing to bases.

The pitchers today are likely to be Leever and Taylor.

Tommy Leach was busy in center field, having six put-outs.

Tears, the old pitcher, umpired at St. Louis yesterday in place of Bausewine.

In the fourth inning Ritchey hit for two bases and came home on a single to right by Lynch.

Young Cy Young got his bumps at Cincinnati yesterday. The Reds made 13 hits for a total of 15 bases.

The New York outfield had only one put-out. Devlin getting it. Neither Mertes nor Browne had anything to do.

The game today will begin at 3 o'clock, in order to give the Giants a chance to catch an early train for St. Louis.

Clymer, with his finger tied up, batted for Lynch in the sixth inning. He sent a single into left field, driving Ritchey across the plate.

In the fifth inning yesterday, with a man on base, Hilldebrand sent the ball twice along left field foul line a foot or two from fair ground.

McDougal of the Martin team pitched well for the Cardinals for six innings. Then he weakened and the Cardinals lost to the Phillies.

Yesterday for the second time this season the Reds scored seven runs in one inning against the Bostons. The first time was on July 12.

Jimmy Miller, the local infielder, who played with the Giants some years ago, returned yesterday from Montreal, where he played during the summer.

The bugler was there again. He has followed the Giants from New York. Unlike his experience in Chicago, he had plenty of opportunities to blow blasts here.

Mark Baldwin predicts that the Chicago White Sox will beat out Connie Mack's Athletics in the American league. There is only seven points difference between them.

Mal Eason, who at one time pitched for Chicago, got his revenge yesterday by holding the Colts down to four hits and shutting them out without a run. He himself got a hit off Jack Weimer.

Johns, Cincinnati's new pitcher, is from the Dayton team of the Central league. Yesterday he made his debut by pitching two innings against Boston, giving but one hit and no base on balls.

The New Yorks took a new ball with them. Under the rules the winning team is entitled to the last ba... in play. A few moments before the end Umpire O'Day called for a new ball, and the Giants won it.

The champion New Yorks will today appear in Pittsburgh for the last time this season. The series between the Pirates and the Giants now stands 11 to 16 in favor of the Giants. If the latter win today they will take the series. The Pirates can only hope for a tie.

Millvale Wins from Carnegie.

Millvale defeated Carnegie at Millvale yesterday in an exciting 10-inning game 6 to 5. Johnson and Loy pitched good ball, and Millvale won a good, uphill fight, as the score at one time was 5 to 0 against them. The score:

WANTS PRESIDENT FOR THIRD TERM

Illinois Editor Would Elect Mr. Roosevelt Unanimously in 1908.

ANSWER FROM OYSTER BAY

[SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE GAZETTE.]

OYSTER BAY, N. Y., Sept. 26.—No especial significance is to be attached to the letter written by the president's secretary to the editor of the Democrat of Fulton county, Illinois, announcing that Mr. Roosevelt would not accept another nomination. Hundreds of letters have been received at the executive office since the peace meeting of August 4, asking if he, President Roosevelt, would reconsider the pledge given the night of his election not to accept another term of office.

The letter in question was the acknowledgement by the president of the receipt of an editorial written and forwarded by the Illinois editor who had supported Parker in the last election. It advocated Mr. Roosevelt's unanimous election. The president's typewritten answer expressed his thanks in the usual manner. To this his secretary added the formula he has sent to many other inquirers, that the president had expressed his decision as to a third term, November 8, 1904.

If recent agitation has affected Mr. Roosevelt's position in any way, no sign of it has come from the president himself. His standing order is to refer all questioners on the subject to his famous election night pledge.

The president's secretary declined to permit the publication of his letter to the western editor, as he considers it a personal matter. He admitted, however, that the substance of the letter had been given out.

The Fulton County Democrat of recent issue contained the following:

"In a personal letter to the editor of the Democrat, which cannot honorably be printed, relating in the paper's advocacy, two weeks ago, of President Roosevelt's unanimous re-election, the president, through his secretary, advises this editor that his third-term declaration, however, will stand to the end.

"His original announcement, on the day after his election last fall, was that he must regard the present term as his second term, and that under no consideration would he become a candidate for or accept a third term as president.

"The above declaration to the Democrat is important as the first known allusion to his original declaration on this subject since his part in considing peace between Japan and Russia has brought him the homage and confidence of the whole civilized world, including his own countrymen practically en masse.

ITALIAN NIGHT AT EXPO.

Creatore's Acrobatic Work With Baton Is Not Assumed—"Faust" for Editors.

Gems from Italian composers exclusively will be played by Creatore and his band at the exposition tonight. It will be Italian night, and among the numbers to be rendered will be such rare compositions as "Venezia," "William Tell," "La Schiava Saracena," the "Funeral March," and "Gioconda."

Creatore is not nearly so acrobatic as in former years. A very small percentage, if any, of his muscular attainments with the baton is assumed, else he would not bring himself to the almost physical wreck that he is at each concert. Immediately following each concert Creatore seeks the easy reclining couch in the library in the rear of music hall to rest during the entire intermission. When he leaves the stage at night he is completely exhausted.

The musical program arranged by Creatore last evening in honor of the state editors and Providence invasion, a military organization from the Alleghenys, was highly appreciated. The grand selection, "The Damnation of Faust," which created so much comment last year, was repeated last night. For this afternoon a concert containing a great variety has been prepared, which can be appreciated by the professional and amateur alike. It is as follows:

2 P. M.:

March, "El Capitan"	Sousa
Overture, "Nabucco"	Verdi
Intermezzo, "Salome"	Loraine
Polka, "La Simpatica"	De Angelis
Ballet Music, "Excelsior"	Marenco

4 P. M.:

"A Midsummer Night's Dream"	Mendelssohn
March Characteristic, "Chacone"	Durand
Grand Selection, "Faust"	Gounod
Overture, "La Forza del Destino"	Verdi

HOME FOR MINERS HAS GOOD CHANCE

Sentiment is Favorable for Aid from the Coal Diggers and Operators.

STATE COMMISSION ACTIVE

THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE BUREAU.
HARRISBURG, PA., Sept. 26.

Homes for aged, crippled and helpless coal miners and their wives will be established in both the hard and soft coal fields of Pennsylvania if the miners and the operators each bear their share of expense of erecting and maintaining these proposed institutions.

The homes will be built by the state commission created by a law passed by the legislature of 1905 at the request of the United Mine Workers of the state, whose leaders are taking an active interest in the project. At a meeting of the commission in Harrisburg today reports were received indicating a favorable sentiment among both operators and the miners, especially in the bituminous regions, in favor of establishing one home in hard coal fields and another in the soft coal fields.

In order to meet the expense of erecting and maintaining these homes the commission will ask the operators to agree to an assessment of one mill a ton on marketed coal. The miners will also be asked, through the district presidents of the Mine Workers in the state, to pay an annual assessment of 60 cents per capita for each union and non-union employe in, about and around the mines of a legal age. Payments by both the operators and the miners are to be made quarterly to the state treasurer, beginning January 1, 1906. Murray Forbes of Greensburg, secretary of the commission, will immediately communicate with both sides to ascertain whether they will agree to this plan.

AIDS MAN TO ESCAPE.

District Attorney Stewart Hauls Wallace Over Coals for Rushing Into Print Before Acting.

"All the fuss stirred up by Police Superintendent Wallace rushing into print in the case in which the grand jury ignored a bill charging George Loughran with larceny has made it possible for the man to get away," said District Attorney Stewart yesterday. "I wrote Mr. Wallace a letter, which shows just what I thought of this matter when I learned of it. In it I said:

I had learned on Friday last, after the dismissal of the grand jury, of the facts alleged against this defendant and had determined to have the indictment against him returned to the grand jury today for its further consideration, hoping to get a true bill quietly, without anything to make the defendant apprehensive of another arrest. As you have caused a new information to be made against Loughran I would request that the same be sent to the office of the clerk of courts as early as possible that due action may be taken thereon without delay.

H. A. Lande, the man who was robbed and who is said to have been induced not to prosecute, made a statement to Superintendent Wallace, it is alleged, in which he claims everything was fixed for him; that he was given expenses, and that he was told to hurry to the grand jury room and tell the members he was satisfied and would not prosecute.

Estimates Made—

We wish to emphasize the fact that Fall Furnishing of the interior of the home proves much more satisfactory than Spring and Summer work.

Naturally, your home is closed to a certain extent during the hot season, the "outdoor" season, and it is but a proper thought to brighten up the home for the Fall and Winter, when one lives indoors and when the social or entertaining season opens.

We have made unusual preparations for all interior furnishings, for this fall season, and will appreciate your careful inspection of our lines.

THE ESTABLISHMENT OF A GREAT MAIL ORDER SYSTEM

$150,000.00 ADDITIONAL STOCK.

AN OPPORTUNITY

To the Workingman, To the Business Man and to the General Public to Become Shareholders and Co-Operators in

THE LEADER CO-OPERATIVE DEPARTMENT STORE

The Largest Co-Operative Department Store in America. Capital Stock $1,000,000.

This company has achieved the greatest success in the shortest possible time known in merchandising in this country. The marvelous and unprecedented success of this store is due entirely to the co-operation of the mechanics, tradesmen, clerks and the general public, who have became connected with it as shareholders and its best customers, and who have, through their untiring efforts, made this enterprise an undoubted success.

THE RESULT—Is that the success of this enterprise has been so phenomenal that the company is obliged TO ESTABLISH A GREAT MAIL ORDER SYSTEM to accommodate thousands of its shareholders and customers residing in Pittsburgh, Allegheny and the adjacent territory.

To properly establish this department and make many other improvements necessary for the convenience of its shareholders and friends, it will require the sale of $150,000.00 ADDITIONAL STOCK.

THE PLAN—It is proposed to sell the preferred stock at par, $10.00 per share, and give as a bonus one share of common stock with each share of preferred stock. Each and every share of preferred stock is guaranteed a dividend of AT LEAST seven per cent annually.

First Semi-Annual Dividend Paid Aug. 1st, 1905.

This is an opportunity the like of which has never before been offered in this community, and should be taken advantage of by persons of large or small means. Owing to the immense earnings of stores of this character, the stock of such enterprises is always at a premium. This is the only department store in the City of Pittsburgh in which you can purchase stock.

ADVANTAGES OF THIS INVESTMENT

First—The stock of this company is as safe as your bank and brings greater returns for your money. Second—There is a dollar's worth of merchandise in this store for every dollar invested. Mike Lynch was extremely wild yesterday and therefore the Giants walked away with the game, being the second of the present series. Mike had an aggravating habit of getting himself into holes and trusting to his support to get him out. But in the sixth inning the Giants nailed him down and he never came to the surface again. Liefield relieved him in the seventh and Mike fairly ran to the club house. Before he left he had equalled the season's record in the matter of bases on balls. He sent eight Giants walking to first. Liefield gave three free passes, making a total of 11 during the game. This is the record for the season. The previous record was 10 walks, Pittsburgh getting them at Cincinnati early in the season, Walker dishing out three and Overall seven. With 11 bases on balls and seven hits, four of which were two-baggers and one a home run, to say nothing of a batter hit by a pitched ball, is it any wonder the Giants won out? At that they were compelled to play all the time and watch closely every move. Finally they called on Mathewson to make victory certain, and Mathy did his duty strictly.

Ames was as slow as cold molasses. He used much deliberation in sending the ball across the plate. This fact, with the many bases on balls given by the Pirate pitchers, lengthened the game to over two hours and chased many spectators home before the last man was out. The fielding on both sides was sharp, but there was nothing sensational. A catch after a long run by Ganley in the ninth inning was about the only noteworthy feature.

Right off the reel Lynch put himself in a hole by hitting Bresnahan over the heart with a pitched ball. The Giant fell to the ground as if shot. Then he went to first, got to second on Browne's sacrifice, and scored on a two-bagger by Devlin, which fell short of Ganley.

The Pirates tied the score in their half of the first inning. Clarke went to first on balls, to second on Ganley's sacrifice, to third on Leach's out at first and home on a slashing right by Wagner to right field.

In the second inning Lynch got into a deep hole all by himself, and it is still a mystery how he got clear with only three runs against him. Every Giant took a turn at bat. Dahlen began by getting his base on balls. Devlin hit the ball in front of the plate and it bounded in the air. Gibson caught it as it came down and fired it to Wagner at second to catch Dahlen. Dahlen beat the throw, while Wagner tripped, but did not fall. Umpire Emslie ruled between pitcher and second base on his hands and knees. The ball rebounded from Wagner and made straight for Emslie, who fell flat on his face and rolled away. It was a unique performance. The Giants claimed that the ball had touched Emslie in spite of his rolling. Mugsy McGraw, who was coaching at third base, ran toward Emslie and then toward O'Day. Hank waved him back—"Go away; go away." Then Mugsy ran to McGann, whispered a few words into his ear and McGann strode toward O'Day and got a respectable hearing. He was evidently told that the ball did not touch Emslie.

Strang hit a right fair for a single, scoring Dahlen. Ganley tried to catch Bad Bill at the plate, but missed. Devlin went to third on the throw and Strang to second. Ames struck out. Bresnahan got his base on balls, filling the corners. Browne forced Bresnahan at second, but Devlin scored. Devlin got his base on balls again filling the corners. McGann also took a walk, forcing Strang over the plate with the third run. Mertees, the ninth man up, went out at first.

The Giants were now in the lead, which they never lost. In the sixth they cinched things by scoring four runs. Again every Giant went to bat and four of them murdered poor Mike with safe hits. Devlin started off by getting his base on balls. Strang singled to right. Ames went out without doing any damage, but on Bresnahan's out Devlin scored. Browne hit for a home run, chasing Strang home ahead of him. Devlin made a two-bagger and so did McGann, Devlin scoring. Mertes went to base on balls and Devlin retired the side by going out to Clarke.

After the sixth inning Liefield relieved Lynch and Mathewson relieved Ames. Both were swift and put the balls over the plate in a hurry. Had they not done so the game would have lasted to darkness. Attendance 8,050. Score:

W. U. P. to Open at Butler.

BUTLER, PA., Sept. 26.—(Special.)—The Western University of Pennsylvania football team will open its season with Butler Saturday. W. U. P. was to open with Grove City college Saturday, but through some hitch the game was cancelled. The Butler team will be composed namely of old college stars under the leadership of Capt. Jack Feigel. Excursions will be run from Pittsburgh for the game.

Giants Need Five More Games

The New York Giants need only five more victories to land the pennant for the second time in succession. They have still 13 games to play, and if they win five it will give them 103 games won and 50 lost, a percentage of 673. The Pirates have 11 more games to play. If they win them all their record will be 103 won and 51 lost, a percentage of .669. The Giants have a postponed game at Brooklyn, but will not be able to play it off, as neither team has an off day before the close of the season.

The Pirates need three victories to cinch second place.

BOSTON, Sept. 26.—For the fifth time this season, Chicago today vanquished the Boston team in both games of a double-header, winning the first game by 10 to 5 and the second 3 to 1. Walsh pitched both games, after shelving White with none out in the first inning of the earlier contest. Because Walsh had not warmed up the home players scored five runs in this inning, but at no time thereafter were they dangerous. Darkness cut the second game short. Attendance 3,486. The scores:

An Even Break at Washington.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 26.—Washington and Cleveland today split even in a double-header. The first game was a pitchers' battle between Hardy, Washington's latest recruit from the minor leagues, and Rhoades. The gilt-edged support given the visiting pitcher gave him the better of the contest. Bay's work in the field cut off several hits. Washington's heavy batting made the second game a one-sided fight. In the fifth inning the home team drove out five singles, a double, a triple and a home run, scoring eight runs. Attendance 2,500. The score:

Hogan Must Pay Fine.

YOUNGSTOWN, O., Sept. 26.—(Special.)—There is no possibility of the $500 fine which was imposed on the Ohio Works team by the national commission being changed. Manager Harry Hogan returned from Cincinnati this morning and reported that all efforts to have the fine changed were futile.

SCHMIDT IS ON HOSPITAL LIST

W. U. P.'s Crack Full Back Out of Game by Doctor's Orders. McKean Returns.

AT THE OTHER COLLEGES

[SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE GAZETTE.]

CONNEAUT LAKE, PA., Sept. 26.—The W. U. P. squad today straggled out to the slowest exhibition of football yet witnessed here. The side line list now includes some of the most promising candidates and Mosse was further annoyed today when Judd Schmidt came limping on the field with a physician's excuse. Schmidt has been playing a good game. Several substitutes will be tried in his position. Mosse was disgusted with the work of the squad today and threatened some speedy substitutions if the plays are not more smoothly executed tomorrow.

Arthur McKean returned last night and was out for practice today.

W. & J.

WASHINGTON, PA., Sept. 26.—(Special.)—Although Washington and Jefferson expects a stiff game tomorrow with Westminster college Coach Fickarski put the players through extremely hard work this afternoon. The followers of the team are encouraged and now hope to make a good showing at Princeton. The first serious injury of the year was sustained by John Duffey, of Washington, a freshman who was playing on the scrub. While making a tackle he was kicked in the head and thrown heavily, being rendered unconscious. He will not be able to play for a week.

Westminster.

NEW WILMINGTON, PA., Sept. 26.—(Special.)—The Westminster team will leave tomorrow morning to play Washington and Jefferson at Washington. The team is in unusually good condition and hopes to make several scores against W. & J., as the offensive work is considered excellent by Coach Jack Lang. The team will be in charge of Captain Fred Locke, and Manager R. L. Deevers.

U. of P.

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 26.—(Special.)—The University of Pennsylvania football squad was visited with its first bit of misfortune this afternoon when W. Hollenback, one of the best substitute halfbacks, sustained a fracture of the right leg just above the ankle. The accident occurred shortly after the scrimmage between the varsity and scrub eleven began. Hollenback was playing left halfback on the scrub team and was making an end run when he was tackled from behind. What adds mystery to the accident is the fact that the tackle was not an exceptionally fierce one, and there was little or no piling up by the other players. Although the surgeons did not say Hollenback would be kept out of the game for the rest of the season, it is highly improbable that Penn will be able to use him again this fall.

West Virginia.

MORGANTOWN, W. VA., Sept. 26.—(Special.)—Tomorrow the first football posters of the season will be displayed on the billboards and telephone poles of the city. They will announce the first football game of the season of 1905. Westminster will be West Virginia's opponent Saturday. The varsity is rounding into shape slowly.

Princeton.

PRINCETON, N. J., Sept. 26.—(Special.)—The team turned out today to the best practice game of the year so far and displayed an amount of snap and ginger that bodes ill for Villa Nova warriors, who will be met tomorrow. Eleven men received the attention of the coaches in three squads today. Moseley opened the practice by kicking off for the scrubs, and Dana made a dashing return, which he followed up by consistent work throughout the practice.

The varsity walked up the field on straight football and considering that most of the plunging was done by heavy the gains were very rapid and consistent. But, as they neared the goal the scrub began to fight with an affectiveness that for a time almost blocked the first team, in spite of the difference in weight. Herring's work on the varsity showed lots of energy and he went through for long gains, finally making a touchdown on which Cooney kicked goal. Two touchdowns were scored by the varsity. After McCormick had kicked off, one man on the scrub began to strengthen the now rapidly growing conviction that he can play real football, and that Dillon, '08, was the man. He is the brother of Dillon, '07, now in training at Carlisle with Indians. Dillon is playing quarterback on his scrub with first-rate ability. He is light and active and can dodge like a flash, as he proved today by making constant gains of great length for his side in spite of all the varsity could do to stop him. The latter part of the play was marked by some fumbling. Dutcher will be able to get into the game without much delay. Dutcher did not play today and Carothers was the pivot man. The freshman team is at work every afternoon and practices vigorously at the south end of the field.

The probable lineup tomorrow will be as follows: Brasher, left end; Cooney, left tackle; Dillon, left guard; Mayhew, center; Rafferty, right guard; Herring, right tackle; Tooker and Munn, right end; Tenny, quarterback; Bard and Simons, left halfback; Daub and Willock, right half back, and McCormick, full back.

Yale.

NEW HAVEN, CONN., Sept. 26.—(Special.)—Touchdowns were scored today on Yale field, the first of the season, when the varsity carried the ball by line plunges from the scrub's 30-yard line without losing the ball. After a brief rest the scrubs were given the ball about 30 yards from the varsity goal. The rules for distance were disregarded and the scrubs allowed to keep the ball until they scored. The scrimmaging lasted 20 minutes, which is unusually long so early.

The punters and back field men generally today began to learn the place kicking features of play. Heretofore, Yale has not done much of this until late in the year, but with a lighter line more reliance must be placed on kicking this year. Former Capt. Frank Hinkey will return in a few days to develop the end rush men. Hinkey will be here all the season.

Harvard.

CAMBRIDGE, MASS., Sept. 26.—(Special.)—Coach Reid put his teams through the first scrimmage of the year. The work was disappointing. In a 10-minute period the second squad scored on the varsity. O'Brien, the freshman end, let Lockwood, the sprinter, circle him for 15 yards, and Blair on the other extremity let Lincoln worm his way by for a similar gain. Britt, of last year's team, showed up poorly at tackle. Fultz more than held his own against him. After the practice Speare, a 1905 newcomer, was tried at left tackle in Britt's place on the varsity. Carr, another tackle, was put in with a sore side today. A promising addition to the squad today was Bob Guild, substitute full back of last year's eleven. The punting today was poor.

STATE COLLEGE, PA., Sept. 26.—(Special.)—Two new members were added to State's coaching corps today in Drs. Higgley and Shoffstall, both old State gridiron stars. With these men to aid Coaches Golden, Scholl and Whitworth, the varsity's effectiveness should be rapidly increased. With only six of last year's regulars in the present squad as well as a dearth of good freshman material, the prospects for a winning eleven are surely most discouraging.

Mal Eason in Good Form.

CHICAGO, Sept. 26.—Eason was in rare form today, holding the locals down to four scattering hits and registering a shutout. Two hits, two stolen bases and Tinker's fumble gave Brooklyn its only run. Attendance 1,500. Score:

ADAMS MAKES TEAM AT MERCERSBURG ACADEMY

The first scrimmage of the season for the Pittsburgh High school candidates occurred yesterday afternoon, when 35 men were at Friendship park. Three teams were formed, two being sent against the so-named first eleven. The scrimmage lasted for 15 minutes. Greer Orr, tackle last year, joined the squad yesterday, and played on the line, although he may be moved behind the line. "Pete" Patterson, last year's center, is playing a strong game, and is practically sure of his position again. Close, a new student, who weighs 140 pounds, is doing well, and looks like a first team probability. Watterson has been doing slightly better than the crowd trying for quarterback. He runs off the plays smoothly. Saint, Haggerty, Zon Senden, Silverman, Wenzell and McKee are all trying for quarterback, too. The opening game will be played with Washington High school, October 4, if the park is in shape by that time.

Smith, a brother of Penn's famous fullback, and Yost, a brother of the Michigan coach, are on the Mercersburg academy first team. Walter Adams of Pittsburgh has been taken to the first team training table. The men at the first team training table follow: Post, Cleveland, Baimer and Webster, ends; Linn and Yost, tackles; Campbell, Smith, Walters, guards; "Pat" Stewart, center; Sparrow and Crippen, quarters; Bruce Stewart, Sullivan, Rhyne and Adams, backfield men.

Wilbur Thunhurst, the youngster who did well on the Pittsburgh Collegians, is studying medicine at W. U. P., as is Dan Johns, captain of the Pittsburgh High school nine.

The C8 team of the P. C. H. S. won the first practice game of the season yesterday from the C7 team. The manager, Aubrey Morrow, wishes games from other first and second-year teams of the high school.

The Braddock Scholastics, who are representing Braddock school circles this year, will open at Wilkinsburg High school Saturday, October 7. The team is composed of the pick of the players from all the schools of Braddock, North Braddock, Rankin and Shady Park.

ANGIOLA WINS THE RICH OHIO PURSE

CINCINNATI, Sept. 26.—The Ohio stake for 2:09 class trotters, purse $10,000, was the feature event of the Grand Circuit races at Oakley park today. It took six heats to decide the races. Angiola, after finishing eighth in the first heat, fourth in the second and eighth in the third, won the next three heats. Rediac won the first heat easily from Robert Mc, going the distance in 2:07½ and breaking the record for this event, which was 2:08¼. Norman B. took the lead at the start in the second heat and was never headed. The third heat was fought out by Norman B., Zephyr and Rediac, the latter getting the decision by a neck from Norman B., who beat Zephyr a neck for the third place. Angiola easily won the next three heats and the race. In the final heat for the three-heat winners Angiola was pulled up at the end. Norman B. and Rediac being almost distanced.

In the 2:19 class trotting, Glenwood won in straight heats. In the first heat Woody ran into the fence at the last sixteenth pole after bursting a blood vessel and was instantly killed. His driver, J. Miller, was only slightly injured.

Byrl Wilkes had no trouble winning the 2:19 pace in straight heats. In the second heat of this event, Lady Veach struck the fence at the half mile pole, throwing her driver, W. Bagler, but neither the driver nor the horse received serious injuries. The summaries:

2:09 class, pacing, purse $2,000, 3 in 5 (unfinished from yesterday):

WEDS CHINAMAN TO CLAIM CHILD

Negress and Celestial Married by Alderman After Their Release from Jail.

ARRESTED BY HUMANE SOCIETY

A Chinaman and a negress became man and wife in the office of Alderman McMasters yesterday afternoon at 3 o'clock. The groom was Yee Lee, aged 40, a Chinese cook of 514 Second avenue, and the bride, Minnie Coffey, aged 21, a domestic, who has both negro and French blood in her veins. She lives at 629 Liberty avenue.

The only witnesses at the ceremony were constables and clerks in the alderman's office. Yee Lee says he has plenty of money to keep a wife and Mrs. Lee says he is confident that the Chinaman will make her a good husband.

The couple were given a reception last night at 514 Second avenue by the Celestials of the Second avenue and Grant street districts. Relatives of the groom went in scores, each one taking a present for the bride, mostly of wearing apparel or a Chinese trinket.

Yee Lee and the Coffey woman were arrested yesterday on the complaint of Humane Agent E. M. Thompson, who charged the couple with neglect of their 5-year old child, who is said to have been permitted to run at large. The child is said to be prepossessing and bright, and the Humane society officials say they will try to find a good home for her.

The information against the parents was made before Alderman P. B. Reilly and the alderman committed them to jail in default of $300 bail each. As soon as the news of Yee Lee's confinement reached the Chinese settlement there was a rush of Celestials to Alderman McMasters' office to produce the collateral for their countryman's release. Alderman McMasters appeared before Alderman Reilly and gave bond for the couple.

As soon as they were released on bail they hurried to Marriage Clerk Herman L. Hegner's office in the court house and procured a license to wed. Yee Lee gave his birthplace as Canton, China, and the woman said she was a native of Ridgway, Pa. The newly married husband and wife declare their intention of contesting the right of the Humane society officials to take their child from them and say they were married in order to give them a legal right to claim possession of the child. Their hearing before Alderman Reilly on the charge of neglect will take place tomorrow.

SOCIETY

MRS. WILLIAM NELSON TAYLOR of Howe street will issue invitations today for the reception which she will give on Wednesday afternoon, October 11, from 3 until 6 o'clock. Mrs. James Patterson of Dravosburg, a bride of June, and a sister of the hostess, will be the guest of honor and will receive with Mrs. Taylor, while assisting them will be Mrs. Charles D. Armstrong, Mrs. James Balph, Mrs. William H. Crump, Miss Laura B. Crump of Dravosburg, Mrs. A. M. Cadman, Mrs. William E. Evans, Miss Mary Ferguson, Mrs. James B. Graham, Miss Louie Kerr, Mrs. Edward J. Lloyd, Mrs. Samuel J. Moffat, Mrs. Harry O'N. Murphy, Mrs. J. Moss McElroy, Mrs. William J. McCance, Miss Julia Patterson, Mrs. J. Franklin Taylor and Miss Edith Taylor. In the evening Mrs. Taylor will give a dinner for her aids of the afternoon, and later she and Mr. Taylor will entertain jointly with a card party for the same guests and an equal number of men.

Salt-Krieg.

A pretty appointed home wedding last evening was that of Miss Jennie R. Salt, a daughter of Mrs. and Mrs. William B. Salt of Aspinwall, and Edward R. Krieg of Hoboken. The Rev. E. L. Chapman, pastor of the Methodist Episcopal church of Aspinwall performed the ceremony at 7:30 o'clock, the bridal attendants including Miss Edna Krieg, a sister of the bridegroom, as maid of honor; William B. Salt, Jr., as best man; and Miss Lois Hastings, a neice of Mr. Krieg, as flower girl. The bride wore an exquisitely dainty gown, simply fashioned of white embroidered net hung over white silk. She carried a cluster of white roses. Miss Krieg was gowned in white mousseline, while her flowers were pink roses. The little flower maiden, in a simple frock of pink, also carried pink roses, and the same colors were carried out in the decorations with asters, quantities of palms, ferns and other greens were used. After the wedding supper Mr. and Mrs. Krieg left for Atlantic City, where the honeymoon will be spent. At the conclusion of their journey they will reside in Ambridge, where at-home days for after October 15 have been announced.

Bride-elect Has House Guest.

Miss May Ealy of Schellsberg, Pa., is the house guest of Miss Anna Charlotte Harmer over the latter's wedding to Charles H. McCracken, Jr., this evening. The wedding will take place at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Harmer, in South Fairmount avenue, East End, the Rev. Frank N. Sheed, pastor of the East Liberty Presbyterian church, officiating.

Bridal Couple at Home.

Mr. and Mrs. Cornelius Decater Scully, who were married in June, have gone to housekeeping in Stratton Lane, East End. Mrs. Scully will be remembered as Miss Rosalie Pendleton. She and her husband spent their honeymoon in Holland and, returning to Pittsburgh early in August, have until the past week been occupying the Scully home in Beuscglo avenue since that time. Mr. Scully's sister, Mrs. Margaret Scully Waters, is to become the bride of Harry Bernard Zimmerle on Saturday evening, October 7. The couple will spend the winter in California.

Boyle-Tranter.

In the United Presbyterian church of Ingram last evening, Miss Ella Boyle was married to William Tranter of the Tranter Manufacturing Company of Pittsburgh. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. J. A. Doutsch of the United Presbyterian church of Greensburg, assisted by the Rev. David Davidson, pastor of the local church. The bridesmaid was Miss Viola Phillips and the best man was George Tranter, a brother of the groom. Following the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Boyle, Sr. Mr. and Mrs. Tranter left for a wedding trip in the east.

Miss Haines Will Be Hostess.

Miss Mary Kay Haines will be hostess at an informal little luncheon on Friday afternoon at her home in Sewickley. The guests will be the girls in the Sipe-Marks bridal party, of which Miss Haines is one. Miss Anna Miriam Thomas of Avondale place, East End, entertained the same guests at luncheon yesterday afternoon. Miss Sipe, the bride elect, being the special guest of honor. White asters and pink carnations formed an attractive centerpiece, over which hung a large white wedding bell. Pink satin ribbons were stretched from the bell to each place card, a dainty little white slipper.

New York Visitor to be Honored.

Mrs. Robert Eidlitz of New York city, who is visiting her sister, Mrs. Charles M. Thorp of Edgewood park, has been much feted during her stay in that borough. Mrs. George B. Moreland of the park will be hostess at an informal little tea next Monday afternoon from 3 until 5 o'clock in honor of the visitor. She will be assisted by Mrs. Charles Garland, Mrs. W. J. McCance, Mrs. James Graham, Miss Anna Graham, Mrs. W. D. Holliday, Miss Anna Hofsky, Mrs. E. J. Lloyd and Mrs. B. J. McElroy, while Mrs. William Moreland will receive with the hostess and her honor guest. Mrs. Thorp entertained for her guest last week and will again be hostess this week, giving a dance in the Edgewood clubhouse on Friday evening.

Four Dances in Series.

A series of winter dances to be given by the Carleton club will be inaugurated next Wednesday, when the first one of four will be held at Thuma's academy in Fifth avenue, where the others will follow on November 8 and 29 and January 17. The committee in charge is composed of Walter McCabe, Patrick Griffin, James J. Forrest, Thomas B. Wilt and Neil A. Collins.

Suburban Social Affairs.

Mrs. Richard Ehe of Edgewood park will be hostess at an informal card party on Friday afternoon at her home.

Mrs. Jane G. L. Schreuder of Edgewood entertained with a five hundred party on Monday afternoon.

Mrs. James Campbell, who has been occupying the Orlando Metcalf house in Oakmont since the Metcalfs removed to Homewood last fall, will entertain with cards and fancy work Thursday afternoon, October 5.

Miss Catherine Magrum of Oakmont will be hostess at cards tomorrow afternoon at her home.

Notes of Society.

Mrs. Clarence C. Root of Cambridge Springs is visiting her son, Frank Root, and her sister-in-law, Miss Martha L. Root, of South Highland avenue, East End.

The Rev. and Mrs. H. B. Rankin of the Sewickley Baptist church gave a handsome reception at their home in Grimes street last evening. Nearly all the members of the church were present. There was a musical program and refreshments were served.

Mrs. Frank B. Killen of Grove avenue, Sewickley, will entertain with a large fancy-work party at her new home on Friday afternoon.

The intermediate league of the Sewickley Methodist Episcopal church has prepared an attractive entertainment course, the first a lecture to be given Thursday of this week on "Winners" by the Rev. W. H. W. Ress, D. D., of Pittsburgh. The others include: November 23, lecture, "The Battle of Gettysburg," by the Rev. N. L. Brown of Leechburg; December 7, concert, by the Temple quintet of Pittsburgh; January 25, lecture, "Ghosts, Goblins and Witches," by the Rev. E. L. Eaton, D. D., of Allegheny.

Miss Margaret Johnson entertained friends at a euchre at her home in Oakmont last evening. Luncheon was served. Twenty-eight guests were present.

Belasco Will Be Dark Monday Night.

David Belasco, the playwright-manager, author of "The Girl of the Golden West" and other successful plays, will arrive in Pittsburgh this evening. With Mr. Belasco will come Miss Blanche Eaton, who is to star in "The Girl of the Golden West," under Mr. Belasco's personal direction, and the cast which is to surround her. It had been the purpose of Mr. Belasco to give the production of "The Girl from the Golden West" at the Belasco theater next Monday evening, but he is not willing to present his new play until after two complete dress rehearsals, and as these cannot be held until after Saturday night, the initial performance has been postponed until Tuesday evening.

Among the Clubs.

For Pure Food and Water.

Emphasis will be laid on two features of the program for the October meeting of the State Federation of Pennsylvania Women in Cambridge Springs. These are education and pure food and water. The session on Thursday afternoon will be devoted to the discussion of food adulteration and the water supply. The Hepburn bill in congress will be explained, and it is expected that some action of indorsement will be taken by the federation on this measure, which has been before congress for four years. The educational session will also be of distinct interest. Mr. Gill, the founder of the school city in Cuba, whose work in that direction in this country was the cause of his appointment to establish the school city in Cuba at the close of the Spanish war, will be one of the speakers, while others will present manual training, the vacation schools and parental associations. Education will be the subject at the opening session, Tuesday afternoon, October 17. Tuesday evening there will be an informal reception in the Hotel Rider, followed by an address by Miss Ida Tarbell on "Higher Business Training for the Boys," which will be followed by a concert by the Tuesday Musical club of Pittsburgh. On Thursday Miss Myra Lloyd Dock will speak on "The Admission of Studies Relating to Farming into the Curriculum of the Country Schools." The afternoon session will be devoted to the question of pure food and the water supply, and in the evening a debate will be held, the subject being on "Pennsylvania's Strength and Weakness," with special reference to her forestry acts and her educational work. Mrs. Isaac Rhodes of Lansdowne will lead the affirmative, while Miss Jane Campbell of Philadelphia is expected to take the negative. Other club women will carry on the debate. Following it there will be opportunity for talks from the floor, and the concluding feature will be a vote taken on the strength of the arguments presented.

The biennial election will be conducted Thursday morning. At that session the roll will be called and twice as much time as in former years will be given to the reports from the individual clubs, which must be limited to three minutes. Reports of the standing committees will be presented—forestry, legislation, child-labor and others.

In discussing the program which will be concluded on Thursday evening, Miss Kate C. MacKnight, the state president, said she hoped that as many women as possible would remain over Friday. On Friday morning a conference will be conducted, when any questions relating to the addresses, reports and discussions of the convention will be in order, the idea being to bring about an understanding between the clubs of the work which is being done in various sections of the state by individual clubs. On Friday afternoon for those who remain trolley trips will be arranged to different points of interest about Cambridge Springs.

The round trip tickets to Cambridge Springs will be $6, and the special rates will be available to all women, whether club women or not. Mrs. W. P. Price of Western avenue, Allegheny, is chairman of the committee on transportation.

"Strong Heart" for Benefit of Baths.

Robert Edeson, in his new play, "Strong Heart," has been secured for the matinee benefit which will be given for the Soho public baths. It will take place in the Nixon theater on Wednesday afternoon, October 18. The committee in charge of the benefit is now engaged in selling the boxes for the afternoon, and is also securing a long list of patronesses to give the proper social standing to the entertainment. This is the first time the managers of the Soho public baths have come before the public in the interests of the building fund for the proposed bath house to be erected in Fifth avenue on Soho hill. Mrs. George B. Motheral is chairman of the committee which has charge of the entire arrangements, as well as the selection of the play, and in a few days a meeting of the committee will be held, when other features of the affair will be decided upon. The managers are endeavoring to raise about $20,000 to complete the minimum amount decided upon for the building, which is $50,000. This sum, it is expected, will be increased to $75,000 when the entire equipment is installed.

Will Study American History.

The Lawrenceville New Century club has just issued its year book. The opening meeting will be the annual president's day reception, which will be observed next Tuesday afternoon with an address by the president, Mrs. J. J. Covert, the report of the vacation school work, music and social features. The club this year will take up in its succeeding meetings the study of American history from the revolution to the civil war. Last year its programs were filled with history of the colonial period. Three days will be devoted to the study of the causes of the revolution and the war itself, while another day will be given up to the leaders in its progress. The remaining meetings of the year will be apportioned to various periods of the interval between the close of the first war and the opening of the civil war. The officers of the Lawrenceville New Century club are Mrs. J. J. Covert, president; Mrs. Louise Stifel, vice president; Miss Kate Neumont, secretary; Mrs. E. M. Grove, treasurer.

Meeting of Monday Club.

The Monday club of Carnegie met at the home of Mrs. Charles Gow. Mrs. W. H. Roberts read a paper describing a trip from the Chartiers valley to New York, supposed to have been taken by the club, and Mrs. M. Carnahan continued the journey across the ocean, landing at Amsterdam. Mrs. A. S. Hogan read wireless messages alleged to have been received on the steamer. Holland is the subject of the club's study for the year. The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. J. E. McCabe.

Important Meetings.

A meeting of the board of directors of the Civic club will be held on Friday afternoon in the Civic club rooms, Penn avenue.

On Monday a meeting of the Juvenile Court association will be conducted in the Civic club rooms at the call of the president, Miss Kate C. McKnight.

Mrs. Reed Entertains the Travelers.

The Travelers club met yesterday afternoon in the home of Mrs. Joseph Reed, Thomas boulevard and Dallas avenue, the occasion being the annual president's reception. The president of the club, Mrs. W. P. Price, received with Mrs. Reed and the other officers. Among the guests were the presidents of a number of the women's clubs of Pittsburgh, Wilkinsburg and Homestead. The house was handsomely decorated with flowers, and the members of the social committee aided in caring for the guests. During the afternoon Mrs. Henry J. Bailey and Mrs. Alfred E. Clark, both members of the club, gave interesting accounts of their travel during the past six months, when they visited Japan, China and Hawaii.

Federation Meeting in Parkersburg.

A meeting of the State Federation of Women's Clubs in West Virginia will be held today in Parkersburg. The women's clubs have increased rapidly in number in the last few years in West Virginia and a large delegation of club women is expected. Mrs. May Alden Ward of Boston was announced as one of the speakers at the meeting, but has just sent word that she will be unable to reach Parkersburg at this time. The president of the State Federation of Pennsylvania Women, Miss Kate C. McKnight, was invited to address the West Virginia federation, but has telegraphed her regret at not being able to leave home because of matters connected with the arrangements for the Pennsylvania federation meeting in October.

THE THREE RIVERS

The stage of water at Davis island dam at 9 o'clock last night was 2.9 feet, and the river was falling.

[SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE GAZETTE.]

CINCINNATI, O., Sept. 26.—At 6 p. m. the Ohio river was 10.9 feet and falling. Fly time is fast approaching above here and the river is not navigable for any boats except those of the lightest draft. The present stage of the water, however, allows of the larger of the packets navigating between Louisville and Pomeroy. The towboats are laid up along the river from Louisville to Pomeroy bend waiting with tows to get into the Pittsburgh harbor. The river and coal men of Cincinnati are now determined to have ice piers built in the local harbor for the protection of coal fleets and other floating property. Clear and pleasant.

MARIETTA—Four feet 6 inches and falling fast. Clear. Bessie Smith up, 8 a. m.; Kanawha down, 9 a. m., will go on docks at Parkersburg.

LOUISVILLE—Falling; in canal, 5 feet; on falls, 2.8 feet; below locks, 9.2 feet. Clear and pleasant.

WARREN—Four-tenths feet below. Clear and cool.

GREENSBORO—Six feet 4 inches and stationary. Fair and cool. Columbia down Wednesday; Woodward up.

MORGANTOWN—Five feet 8 inches and falling. Fair.

POINT PLEASANT—Four feet 4 inches and falling. Up: Lucy Marmet. Down: Douglass Hall.

PARKERSBURG—Six and four-tenths feet and falling. Clear and cool. The Valley Belle left at noon for Middleport.

GALLIPOLIS—Six feet and falling. Clear and cool.

OIL CITY—Five inches and falling. Clear and cool.

ALL EMPTIES TAKEN TO MINES.

Good Supply of Craft Assures Steady Work for Miners.

A large number of empty coal craft have been taken to the mines in the upper pools this week and the miners in the Monongahela valley are assured of steady work for the next month or more. By that time river men count on another rise, and there will be plenty more in the harbor to load. The frequent rises this year have enabled the mines to be worked to their fullest capacity, and both rivermen and miners are elated over the prospects for a continuous fall run.

The Kanawha, due in this city from Charleston Monday morning, did not get above East Liverpool, and returned to Parkersburg, where she will be docked for repairs. This ends all attempts at navigation on the Ohio until a substantial stage of water comes.

The Columbia, from Morgantown, was the only boat in yesterday. She brought a large number of passengers from the up-river country who came down to take in the Exposition and do their fall buying.

The Sam Brown tied up at Wheeling on her way up with a tow of empties.

The Iron City Sand Company is planning to build a double sand digger or two single diggers to replace the Fay S., destroyed by the high water at Colonia a short time ago.

Centervue's Success.

The results at the opening of Centervue, Wilkinsburg's new residence plan, were positive proof that people were waiting for this ideal property. The crowds commenced coming early and kept up until dark. Selling was active. Everyone remarked the class of excellent buyers this fine plan attracted. Well-to-do people were in the majority. Men brought their wives and few of those really interested left without choosing a lot or two on their favorite street. It was the uniform opinion that no allotment put on the market for years could boast of so many really fine points. The bracing day and inspiring view to be had from this clear, smokeless section added to the general enthusiasm. The Centervue Land Co. has more than fulfilled its claim for this plan and a successful introductory sale was assured from the start. Salesmen are on the plan day and night. The Burns & Reilly Real Estate Co., 328 Fourth avenue, will mail you a Centervue illustrated booklet on application; they will also send the big auto for you if you write or telephone No. 1 Court or No. 318 Wilkins. Street improvements are being pushed to completion. Electric light is now on the plan and the finishing touches are being given to the grand new granolithic entrance from Singer place and Yohn street. Frankstown or Hamilton avenue cars take you within one square of the plan.

MEETINGS.

SPECULATIVE ACTIVITY AMOUNTS TO VERY LITTLE

Trading in New York Lethargic—In Apprehension of Money Stringency Lenders Refrain from Calling Loans—Local Stocks Lower.

There was very little speculative activity in the New York stock market yesterday, owing to the restraint of the money situation. The trading was lethargic at times and the price movement was insignificant. Stocks in which the movement was of any consequence were of the least important grade.

Apparently money lenders refrained from the active calling of loans, such as induced the liquidation of Monday, and holders of stocks were relieved from the necessity of marketing their holdings. But in spite of the freedom from pressure on this account, there was little disposition to undertake new ventures in the market in face of the uncertain money prospect. While no large recall of credits occurred, it was the common understanding that banking authorities were in a mood of disapproval of placing funds for use in stock market operations. It was intimated that some of the recent large operators in stocks had been induced to reduce their lines by suggestions of this kind. Borrowing of money to buy stocks which are to figure as collateral in the loan is not an attractive undertaking at a time when a poor demand in the market is liable to meet the forced sale of the collateral when the loan is recalled.

It is estimated that the dividends and interest payable in October will call for between $71,000,000 and $72,000,000. These requirements will follow closely upon any release of funds following the conclusion of this week's syndicate transactions with the final instalments on the Japanese loans subscription in the background of next month.

Meantime the interior demand for funds was reported to have set in again with increased force and the same is true of the sub-treasury drain on the bank reserves. Yesterday's sub-treasury statement shows a withdrawal from the banks since the last bank statement of $3,017,000, compared with a gain by the banks for the same period last week of $499,000. Foreign exchange in New York was decidedly strong and moved away from the gold import point, while discounts hardened in London and Berlin. The private rate of discount in the London market is again above the bank rate, thus indicating the expectation that the bank will advance its rate tomorrow. But the same condition ruled last week at this time when the decision of the bank authorities followed to maintain the existing rate. The likelihood seems stronger, however, that the bank rate will be advanced this week. Yesterday's statement of the imperial bank of Germany showed a decrease of $2,735,000 in the cash on hand.

The news of the day otherwise was not important and the few stocks affected were under the influence of individual causes. The rise in Amalgamated Copper was accounted for by an advance in the price of the metal, and the increased Anaconda dividend. There was a special movement in traction stocks, led by Brooklyn Transit, which was shared by Chicago Union Traction, Chicago Subway, on the curb, dropped an extreme 8½, following a 9-point break yesterday. Reports of large purchases of iron abroad for American interests were taken to account for the firmness in the iron and steel stocks. The favorable weekly crop bulletin did not attract much attention, as the facts it contained were generally well known. In connection with the payment of the final instalment of $50,000,000 by Saturday on subscriptions to the Pennsylvania convertible bonds, it is important to consider that $50,000,000 of the 4½ per cent collateral betterment notes of the Pennsylvania, guaranteed by the Pennsylvania railroad, fall due on October 1, or, that date being Sunday, on next Monday. These two operations will have an offsetting effect in the money market that can hardly be expected to obviate entirely the necessity for considerable shifting of loans. The day's net changes were insignificant and the closing tone was irregular.

Bonds were irregular. Total sales, par value, $3,100,000. United States bonds were all unchanged on call.

A reaction less marked than might have been expected, took place yesterday in the Pittsburgh stock market, with the result that the stocks closed for the day with fractional losses in a number of issues, and a larger loss in one, Pittsburgh Oil and Gas. Closing at 64, this stock showed a net loss for the day of 4, which exceeds its big gain on Monday. It still leaves the stock well ahead of its quotations before the recent increase in the Standard's quotations. Crucible Steel common was an active issue yesterday and reached a high of 13¾, but closed unchanged at 13¾. The preferred at the close was off ½, at 68¼. Other issues to lose fractionally included Fireproof preferred, Independent Brewing common, Manufacturers Light and Heat, Ohio Tonopah, Sewer Pipe and United States Steel common. Tonopah Extension was in large demand, 1,250 shares changing hands. The stock closed at $6.01, a loss of 19 cents from the previous close. Westinghouse Airbrake, selling at 149, was up two points. Independent Brewing 6s sold unchanged at 106¾.

FEATURES OF THE DAY

IN PITTSBURGH

Market was fairly active with sales of 3,965 shares and $5,000 bonds.

Prices averaged fractionally lower.

Pittsburgh Oil & Gas dropped four points to 64.

Crucible Steel preferred lost ½, and Pittsburgh Coal preferred was unchanged.

Bank exchanges were $8,009,656.98, an increase of over $2,500,000.

IN WALL STREET

Speculative activity appeared very limited, the money outlook being too dubious to offer encouragement.

No large recall of credits occurred, the banks merely suggesting the inadvisability of further loans.

October dividends and interest will call for over $71,000,000.

Probability is strong that Bank of England rate will be advanced tomorrow.

Total sales: stock, 598,600 shares; bonds, par value, $3,100,000.

NOTES AND COMMENT.

The Pennsylvania Railroad Company and the Pennsylvania company figure this week in two of the largest financial operations of the year. The Pennsylvania company will pay off its $50,000,000 per cent collateral trust 18 months notes dated April 1, 1904, on next Saturday in cash. In his report for 1903 President Cassatt announced that in order to reimburse advances made by the Pennsylvania railroad for certain corporate purposes aggregating about $52,000,000, and to put it in funds to complete the important work now in progress on its system, the Pennsylvania company had provided for an issue of 18 months 4½ per cent collateral obligations guaranteed by the Pennsylvania railroad to the amount of $50,000,000. These notes were placed in this country and Europe and they will be retired to the last dollar at their maturity on Saturday, a transaction unique in amount of financial annals.

It is estimated by bankers that 50 per cent of the Pennsylvania $150,000,000 3½ per cent convertible loan has been sold and 40 per cent has been called from the syndicate members or subscribed for by stockholders. Of the bonds the stockholders took 5% per cent, and the syndicate managers have called 11½ per cent. Between today and the last of the month the syndicate managers must pay the Pennsylvania railroad one-half the amount of outstanding bonds. The sum involved, taking into consideration the fact that many subscribers have paid their subscriptions, in full is estimated at about $15,000,000.

Announcement is made that $10,000,000 of the convertible 4 per cent bonds authorized in 1903 to build a new railway for improvements would be offered to shareholders at par. Proceeds from the sale of the bonds will be used to pay for the Cincinnati, Hamilton & Dayton stock purchased last week from the Hollins syndicate at $160. In this connection it was pointed out that in the many syndicate operations and exchanges which the Hollins have taken place since the Hamilton and Dayton-Pere Marquette consolidation was concluded, the final sale of the property to the Erie marks the first actual cash payment. The Erie bonds will be convertible into common stock at $80 a share. The terms of conversion fixed for the $10,000,000 issue of the $50,000,000 authorized in 1903 were 3 shares. According to the original agreement the unissued bonds could be sold at the rate of $10,000,000 a year after December 31, 1903, convertible into common stock at a price to be fixed when the bonds were issued, but not for less than 41¼ per share. During several days the outstanding Erie convertible 4s have been selling above 110, and well-informed quarters an increase in the outstanding amount of Erie convertible 4s has been expected for some time. It was expected, however, that proceeds from the sale of the bonds would be used for the extensive improvements recently outlined by President Underwood, not for the purchase of the Cincinnati, Hamilton & Dayton system. The question of financing the needed improvements is therefore still unsolved.

The daily output of the Amalgamated Copper Company is being steadily maintained. The ore at the Washoe yields 15,000,000 pounds of copper and at Great Falls about 7,000,000 pounds, or more than 22,000,000 pounds per month, or 256,000,000 pounds per year. In addition to the copper the ore at the two smelters yields about 800,000 ounces of silver per month and 300 ounces of gold, or 9,000,000 ounces of silver per year and 3,600 ounces of gold. The value of the silver per ounce is about 55.670,000 and of the gold about $72,000.

Another call has been asked for on the syndicate subscriptions to the St. Louis, Rocky Mountain & Pacific project. Fisk & Robinson of New York are the managers of the syndicate.

The commonwealth of Pennsylvania in 1904, a year of industrial reaction, mined nearly half the coal and made nearly half of the pig iron produced in the country, produced more than half the coke, steel and structural iron and steel, and more than one-third of the steel rails. James M. Swank's figures from the Bulletin of the American Iron and Steel Association are as follows:

Products—1904—	Production in United States.	Production Pennsylvania.	Penna's per cent.
Coal, all kinds	322,562,891	153,775,571	48.5
Coke, net tons	23,471,535	14,801,064	62.9
Pig iron	16,497,033	7,644,233	46.3
Steel, all kinds	13,809,887	7,425,097	48.5
Steel rails	2,193,940	822,103	37.9
Structural iron and steel	940,146	439,167	46.5

Temporarily interest in pig iron is transferred to the foreign market, which on Monday morning was excited by further heavy American inquiries. As noted yesterday the foreign markets have already advanced 6s, with a further sharp rise anticipated. Within the last few days American steel works have purchased between 25,000 and 40,000 tons of English manganese and ferro-manganese. Sales have aggregated about 25,000 tons of spiegel and ferro-manganese and 20,000 tons of Bessemer, the latter, of course, is for the manufacture of products which will be subsequently exported—largely steel rails. There are further heavy inquiries in the market for both ferro and bessemite iron.

The Guarantee Title and Trust directors yesterday declared the regular quarterly dividend of 1¼ per cent, payable October 2. Books close September 30.

The First National bank of Pittsburgh yesterday declared the regular quarterly dividend of 4 per cent, payable to stockholders of record September 26.

The Second National bank of Allegheny declared the regular quarterly dividend of 5 per cent.

Pennsylvania Salt Manufacturing Company semi-annual 6 per cent, payable October 16.

The Dollar Savings Fund and Trust Company of Allegheny has declared a quarterly dividend of 4 per cent, payable October 2.

The Vandergrift Land and Improvement Company has declared the regular quarterly dividend of 1 per cent.

Chicago Pneumatic directors declared the usual quarterly dividend of 1 per cent, payable October 25. Books close from October 20 to October 25.

The Pennsylvania company has sold to Kuhn, Loeb & Co. $2,000,000 Ohio Connecting Railway Company guaranteed first mortgage 4 per cent gold bonds.

North Butte sold at 48½ and Pittsburgh and Duluth at 25 and 26¾.

Pittsburgh bank exchanges increased $2,500,000 for the day.

OLD WHOLESALE FIRM TO BUILD

James W. Houston & Co. Buy Site at Liberty and Fourteenth for $60,000 Building.

M'KEES ROCKS DEAL OF $75,000

James W. Houston & Co., one of the oldest and best known wholesale grocery firms in Pittsburgh, has arranged to branch out by purchasing the lot at the northwest corner of Liberty avenue and Fourteenth street as a site for a seven-story warehouse. The purchase was effected yesterday through the office of George Brothers, the consideration being $25,000, or $253 a front foot. The property is generally known as the Curr lot, but title to it was obtained from Mrs. Frances Schoen, who has owned it for some time. It measures 32x100 feet and is improved with old frame buildings of little value which will be razed as soon as the leases can be arranged. A preliminary estimate is now being taken on the proposed building, which it is expected will cost about $50,000. It will be a fireproof building, modern in every detail, and will be much the best structure in that neighborhood. The owners expect to have it under way inside of two weeks so that it may be ready for occupancy next spring. James W. Houston & Co. have been at 1235 Liberty avenue for three years. Previous to that time they were 15 years in business in Seventh avenue and seven years in Second avenue, making this their 26th year in trade in Pittsburgh.

Company to Employ 200 Hands.

The Star Enameling & Stamping Company yesterday closed the deal for the purchase of the Kiefer property at the northwest corner of Chartiers and Island avenues, McKees Rocks, for which it paid about $75,000. The original purchase, which amounted to $40,000, included 2.5 acres and the six-story canning factory building on the lot, together with a lot of valuable machinery. Subsequently the company secured other acreage adjoining, making the total of the purchase $75,000. The main building was erected by Mr. Keifer about two years ago and is one of the best structures in the borough, being especially constructed for manufacturing cans. Shortly after the plant was started Mr. Keifer died and the property was transferred to his widow and from her to the canning company at a small profit. The machinery in the building originally cost nearly $60,000. The enameling company has already had plans drawn for several additional buildings to be erected on adjoining lots and work on the foundations was started this week. It is the intention to employ between 200 and 300 men, making the industry a big addition to McKees Rocks. The company is now at Washington avenue and Sedgwick street, Allegheny, where it is doing a flourishing business. Its officers are Charles E. Christman, president, and George W. Rowbottom, secretary.

Big Penn Avenue Rumor Denied.

A report was current yesterday that the W. W. Blackburn holdings at 815-817 Penn avenue had been resold from Harry Davis for $300,000. This rumor was promptly denied by Mr. Davis last night. The lot is 45x180 feet and Mr. Davis bought it for only $275,000.

The deed was delivered to Harry Davis yesterday in the sale of the property of K. Rabinovitz at 310 Ross street, the preliminary deal for which was announced several weeks ago. The consideration was $85,000. The deal was handled by the Aronson-Friedman Company. On the lot, which measures 24x48 feet, is a three-story brick house rented for $1,500 a year. This purchase gives Mr. Davis three lots at the corner of Fourth avenue and Ross street which would make an admirable site for office building.

Through the Real Estate Trust Company Lena Nuttall, wife of Harry Nuttall, has purchased from Anna O'Donnell a reception-hall brick house on 50x183 feet on the north side of Beacon street, east of Murray avenue, Twenty-second ward, for $10,500. The seller secured the property a short time ago in exchange for a poultry farm near Etna. The house is one of three built by William A. Lougeay.

Roy K. Marton has bought from D. C. Martin 22 lots facing in Webster avenue and running back to Morgan street, Thirteenth ward, for $11,352. The property is all vacant.

Theodore Wolfinger has sold to Paul Ade an improved property, 20x100 feet, in Penn avenue, between Winebiddis avenue and Evaline street, Nineteenth ward, for $10,500.

New Company for Allotment.

The Centervue Land Company has applied for a Pennsylvania charter. Its capital is $25,000 and its incorporators are James P. Barr, Eugene S. Reilly, John D. Reilly, William J. Burns, Jr., and M. B. Kelly. The company was formed to take over the John C. Reilly frontage adjoining Singer place in Wilkinsburg, which is now being sold off under the name of "Centervue." Up to 4 p. m. yesterday 74 lots had been sold and seven houses contracted for on the plan. The lots are protected by rigid building restrictions, which provide a 15-foot building line, no houses to be erected to cost less than $3,000 and no flats or apartments to be built on the property. Electric lights have been provided on the property, and the company's agents are busy this week until late in the evening. The sale is bringing out an exceptionally good class of buyers, two of them being attorneys and a number of officials of the Carnegie Steel Company and high-priced employes of the Westinghouse works.

The Southern Securities and Development Company is the name of a new concern that has opened offices at 903 Diamond National bank building. J. C. Demarest is manager and the company proposes to deal extensively in timber and coal lands.

C. G. Mitchell has moved his real estate headquarters from the fifth floor of the Arrott building to rooms 902 and 903 of the same building, where he has secured two large rooms.

More Good Streets for Knoxville.

The Knoxville Land Improvement Company has just let the contract to Ott Brothers for the grading of McKinley avenue from Virginia avenue west to the Knoxville borough line, a distance of 800 feet, and for the grading of Hobart street clear across the borough, 1,500 feet. The contract calls for about 20,000 cubic yards of grading. Both these streets will be paved in the spring. A new abutment is also being put in under the north end of the Georgia avenue bridge, to allow for the proposed grading of Zara street in the spring. Since July 1 the Knoxville Land Improvement Company has sold over 50 houses at prices ranging from $5,000 to $6,500 each. It now has 16 houses similar in most under way, which will be ready for occupancy by January 1, if not before. Not one of the company's houses is for rent, and a long list of waiting applicants shows the popularity of the Knoxville hills as a residence center.

An important ruling has recently been made in the county sheriff's office providing that all sheriff's deeds must be registered in the city register's office before they are recorded at the court house. Hitherto there has been a great deal of difficulty arising out of the confusion that resulted from the city authorities having incomplete records of property transfers made through the sheriff's aid. This ruling will obviate this trouble and will also give more publicity to many deals that are often of special interest.

Coffee and Sugar.

NEW YORK, Sept. 26.—The market for coffee features opened steady at an advance of 5@10 points on better French cables than expected firm primary markets and light receipts. Demand was very light, however, and a closing decline in the Havre market was followed by a slightly easier tone here and the market closed steady with January 5 points higher but net unchanged on other positions. Sales were reported of 23,000 bags, including October at $7.25; December at $7.40@7.50; January at $7.50@7.60; March at $7.60@7.65; May at $7.70@7.75 and August at $7.90. NEW YORK, Sept. 26.—Manufacturers have advanced steel bar prices $2 a ton to $32. The increase in the demand, together with the higher prices of raw material are responsible for the advance.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 26.—National bank notes received today for redemption, $618,534; government receipts from internal revenue, $361,097; customs, $1,075,839; miscellaneous, $15,125; expenditures, $1,050,000.

SUGAR PRICES TAKE ANOTHER HEAVY DROP

Figures Cut 15 Points, Making 30 in the Past Week—Other Lines Are Weak.

Sugar dropped off another 15 points yesterday and the heavy reduction has created a considerable stir in the market. Dealers do not profess to explain the causes. When the price was going the other way there were plenty of reasons for it, but now it is just a generally unsettled condition of the market which seems to be past understanding. This is 30 points the commodity has dropped off in one week, and the result is a decidedly uncertain market, with retailers very unwilling to get in and buy.

There were few other changes in the local market yesterday. Despite the weakness in the wheat market there was no reduction in the price of flour. Green goods, fruits and produce showed no decided change. Chestnuts are in market in plenty and watermelons are done. Cheapness rules something reminiscently now to Pittsburgh. They are like a chestnut, but only about the size of a big pea.

Butter is still weak, despite the half-cent cut of Monday. Eggs are about the same as they have been for a couple of weeks, and cheese is a fairly firm market.

HAY AND GRAIN.

Receipts yesterday were: Pennsylvania, 17 cars hay, 11 cars oats, 8 cars corn, 5 cars feed, 2 cars rye; Baltimore & Ohio, 18 cars hay, 2 cars oats, 1 car corn; Lake Erie, 5 cars hay, 3 cars rye, 1 car oats, 1 car corn and oats.

Oats continue scarce and strong. Corn is firmer and arrivals are quickly picked up. No trouble is expected in getting rid of best grade hay, but lower grades are still druggy.

NEWS FROM THE MINES.

Rollinsville, Colo.—Manager Augustus of the Monarch mine, near here, received a letter from Manager J. H. Anderson of the Gold Dirt, saying that he (Anderson) would be here in a few days from Pittsburgh, would pay all pending claims and that the Gold Dirt mill would start up again at full capacity on the 1st of next month. The Monarch and Colorado-Calhoun mill, in Gambrell district, will probably have five more stamps added to it within the next 60 days, Supt. Barwood making this statement to myself. This will give the mill 10 stamps. In the Gambrell district also the new 10-stamp mill for the Perchmont property will be completed in about 60 days.

Yankee, Colo.—The Gold Anchor mine is now being worked at three levels, and all of the ore is being milled at the Golden Lily mill. The force of men has been increased at the mine, and the mill is running day and night. The mill handles about 20 tons per day, which is not sufficient for the Gold Anchor output, and the company expects to build a large concentrator in the near future. It has been under the management of Thomas L. Slater that the Gold Anchor has taken its place among the producers of Clear Creek county.

The showing in the bottom level of the Gold Sovereign mine is so flattering that the management is beginning to wonder whether dividends will not be paid next month. The company has fully 6,000 tons of ore broken in that level, all of which will average in the neighborhood of $25 to the ton, and it is being raised at the rate of a carload, or 30 tons, a day. The winze being sunk below the bottom level shows that the ore body persists and will extend downward. The level at a depth of 100 feet will soon be begun, and an additional 100 feet of stoping ground opened.

Tacoma, Wash.—Harry Bretzlauber, a mining expert, has discovered in unexplored Alaska what he says is without doubt the richest copper district in the world. To reach it he built a steamship and ascended the Tanana River, 500 miles above Fairbanks. At Bonanza Park he found a vein of copper 50 feet in width filled with great ledges of metallic copper. On White river were found strike of pure copper four feet thick, two feet long and two inches thick. Veins containing shot and nugget copper are 300 to 400 feet wide, carrying 10 to 30 per cent copper. The formation is considered of greenstone like that of the Lake Superior copper belt.

Silverton, Colo.—Some of the busiest places just now in San Juan county is at the scene of the burning of the new Mogul milling plant, which is being constructed almost within the little town of Gladstone, 10 miles north of Silverton. The mill is being built on the left hand side of the mountain coming north and the thought of a mill necessary in that part of the solid rock a suitable site for the big structure is enormous. At this time there are 110 men employed in the work and day and night shifts are employed.

The Orphan May group, belonging to the Stratton's Cripple Creek Mining and Development Company, located on Squaw hill, has been leased to Shaffer, Hill & Co., who have just started operations there. This group formerly belonged to the Union company, but the late W. S. Stratton purchased it, paying in the neighborhood of $40,000. Work was suspended, and since then little work has been done, but altogether considerable ore is in sight. The shaft is 300 feet deep, and the property lies northeast, in the region of the great vein system of the district. It is reported one of the choicest holdings of the company.

The Metal Market.

NEW YORK, Sept. 26.—The London tin market was higher, with spot closing at £146 12s 6d and futures at £146 15s. The local market also moved a shade higher, closing steady at 25 30@25 35. Copper was unchanged to a little lower abroad, closing at £77 5s for spot and £76 5s for futures. Locally, the market is reported firm and it is said that the comparatively little is available except at exceptionally higher prices. Lake is quoted at 25 to 25 25, electrolytic at 25 12½@25 37½, casting at 24 75@25 12½. Lead was dull and unchanged at 4 75@4 80 in the local market, but was higher at 4 12s 6d in London. Spelter also advanced abroad, closing at £27 and was firmer at $5 60@5 65 in the local market, but was steady to firm abroad, with standard foundry closing at 5c 65 and Missouri brands at 5c 60@5 62½. Locally, the market was firm and unchanged. No. 1 foundry northern was quoted at $20 upgiff to 1. No. 1 foundry southern at $19 50@20 25, and No. 1 foundry southern soft, at $19 00@19 50.

NINE RAILROADS TO THE PACIFIC

New Projects to Reach Coast Are Numerous and Are Well Backed.

GENERAL RAILROAD NEWS

Plans now in various stages of progress indicate that inside of three years at the most there will be nine lines reaching the Pacific coast. The developments of the past week have shown that the project is receiving the most serious consideration from the officers and stockholders of the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul. This rich road is well able to finance the project and the money centers had fully expected that at the annual meeting, held a few days ago, the stockholders would approve a $35,000,000 increase of stock to be offered at $100 to finance the project. The plan was temporarily postponed.

In addition to the Milwaukee, the Grand Trunk, under the name of the Grand Trunk Pacific railway, is now undertaking the construction of a line to the coast. The transcontinental lines will be as follows: Canadian Pacific, Grand Trunk Pacific, Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul, two Union Pacific lines, Western Pacific, "San Pedro Route," Santa Fe and the Kansas City, Mexico & Orient.

Perhaps equalling any of these in its importance as regards freight traffic will be the Panama canal.

A passenger representative of one of the present Pacific coast lines was asked yesterday what effect would be felt from the construction of the Grand Trunk Pacific and the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul's extension. He stated that there could be no important reduction in passenger rates since they had already been placed at a figure which left but a narrow margin of profit. His idea was rather that the new lines would continue even faster the work of distributing the population more evenly over the entire country and thus benefit the present roads.

McKenna an Old Pittsburgher.

E. W. McKenna of Chicago, who has been elected second vice president of the St. Paul road, began his railroad career with the Pennsylvania in 1862. In 1864 he joined the army and served in the military telegraph department until the close of hostilities, when he re-entered the service of the Pennsylvania. He was transferred to the lines west of Pittsburgh as operator and clerk in the office of the division superintendent in Pittsburgh. This position he held for three years, when he was promoted to train dispatcher, and a year later was made superintendent of the Indianapolis and Vincennes railroad, afterward a division of the Panhandle. He remained in that capacity for nine years, and from 1886 to 1887 did special service in the office of general manager of the Pennsylvania lines west, during which time Mr. McKenna had his headquarters in Pittsburgh. He left the Pennsylvania to go with the St. Paul system and has been equally fortunate in getting rapid promotions until he has now been placed in an executive office.

New $2,000,000 Line Is Started.

Contractor H. S. Kerbaugh started work yesterday on the Pennsylvania railroad's great change of line between Beatty and Greensburg. A new road, eight miles long, is to be built between the two towns at a cost of $2,000,000. Drake & Stratton will do the work on the western end of the line. It is to be ready in the spring of 1907. The road will leave the present main line at a point near Beatty station and join it again near Donahoe station. It is intended to do away with several bad curves which have long proven a menace to the speed of fast trains, and the movement of heavy freight trains over the Pittsburgh division. The line is to be four tracks and will have a much less grade than the present line, with but a few easy curves. The construction of the diversion route between the two points mentioned will do away with the tunnel at Donahoe. It is not the intention to do away with the present main line, but simply to use the cut-off for heavy freight trains and the through express trains.

E. H. Harriman's Little Joke.

Edward H. Harriman, according to a story going the rounds in railroad circles, played a clever joke on another railroad president recently. Somehow, by mistake, Mr. Harriman received a pass over his friend's road marked "Not good" on certain trains. When it came time to send this president a Union Pacific pass Mr. Harriman wrote across it, "Not good on passenger trains."

Railroad Notes.

Conductor J. W. McAnulty of the West Penn has returned today after a vacation spent at Atlantic City.

C. A. Dore has been appointed agent of the Empire fast freight line in the Cleveland district, vice W. W. Whitacre, deceased.

The time-card meeting of the New York Central lines was held in New York yesterday and was attended by General Passenger Agent L. A. Robinson.

The Montour railroad, a Pittsburgh Coal Company line, has just received a consignment of coal cars from the Ensign car works at Huntington, W. Va.

Engineman Gus Craft of the Fort Wayne has been promoted from an accommodation run to a through run from Pittsburgh to Crestline. Several firemen of the Fort Wayne service have been promoted to the throttle.

T. M. Schumacker, general traffic manager of the Oregon Short Line railway, has been appointed general traffic manager of the Union Fruit Company, including the United Fruit Company's steamship lines and the Fruit Dispatch Company, with headquarters in New York, to take effect October 1.

It is reported that the Pennsylvania Railroad Company has practically completed arrangements with the Corn Products Company by which the former will acquire the old starch works building at Glencove, L. I., for the purpose of a car building and repairing shop. The Pennsylvania railroad, it is said, will probably employ several hundred men.

F. W. Salsbury, district passenger agent of the Canadian Pacific for this district, announces that the Canadian Pacific will continue its double daily passenger train service between Montreal and Vancouver until October 31, which is a month later than in former seasons. The company may decide to continue the service until January 1.

PREPARE FOR CONVENTION.

Elaborate Arrangements Being Made for the Annual Meeting of Boys' Brigade of America.

Elaborate preparations are being made for the annual convention of the Boys' Brigades of America, to be held here October 6, 7, and 8. Special local interest is given from the fact that the national headquarters are here. Former Judge J. H. Reed is advocate general, the Rt. Rev. Cortlandt Whitehead is chaplain-in-chief and Charles M. Schwab, Col. A. J. Logan, Albert J. Barr, A. A. Horne, Prof. John A. Brashear, the Rev. Dr. W. J. Holland and Col. H. J. Lindsay are directors.

Athletic events and competitive drills are to be given on Friday, October 6, while on Saturday a business session will be held in the First Presbyterian church, Sixth avenue. Saturday afternoon the parade, with about 2,000 boys in line, will march from Allegheny to Schenley park. Saturday evening a reception will be held in the Eighteenth regiment armory and on Sunday afternoon the principal meeting of the convention will be held in the Nixon theater.

SELECT PITTSBURGHER.

Carnegie Technical School Directors Name Local Blacksmith as Instructor.

Enoch George of 5215 Home street, Pittsburgh, who is at present expert blacksmith for the H. K. Porter company, was elected assistant instructor in blacksmithing for the Carnegie Technical schools by the directors yesterday afternoon.

A large number of contracts for the equipment of the buildings were also let during the meeting, Pittsburgh concerns being largely represented. Entrance examinations for the day courses in the school for applied sciences will be held in room 8, in the new buildings on Monday morning, October 9.

"Humpty Dumpty."

The great transformation scene at the close of Klaw & Erlanger's big beauty spectacle, "Humpty Dumpty," will be shown in its entirety for the first time in this country at the Nixon theater next Monday night. It is entitled "The Four Seasons of Wedlock"—the wedding, the silver wedding, the golden wedding and the diamond wedding. At the Theater Royal, Drury lane, London, an enormous wedding cake constituted part of this scene. And a very elaborate scene accompanied the appearance of the cake. Although "Humpty Dumpty" has been presented in this country nearly 12 months, the stage of the Nixon theater is the first upon which this transformation could be shown in its entirety. Seat sale tomorrow.

Seven New Cases of Typhoid.

Seven cases of typhoid fever, nine of scarlet fever and four of diphtheria were reported yesterday to the Pittsburgh bureau of health.

MRS. LACEY GETS SHORT SENTENCE

Court Believes Lesson Needed, Even If Her Husband Did Forgive Her.

LONG TERM FOR WM. SMITH

Judge Macfarlane sprung a surprise yesterday by sentencing Mrs. Jane B. Lacey three months to jail, although her husband acknowledged he had worried her by staying away, and said he believed she was temporarily insane. He had forgiven her and it was believed the court would suspend sentence. His honor believed a lesson was needed, however, and made the sentence light.

On September 12 Mrs. Lacey shot her husband, Harry Lacey, at their home on Mt. Washington. Her husband refused to prosecute later and on information made by Police Inspector Werner she was held for court.

When the case was called Mrs. Lacey entered a plea of no defense. She told Judge Macfarlane that she was frantic when she saw her husband, and did not know why she wanted to kill him, and did not know what she was doing when she shot him.

Lacey testified he had been away for several days before September 12. On his return he found his wife in a hysterical condition. W. W. Lang is a roomer at the house, and Lacey said he told him of being with another woman. His wife heard this and shot him. Lacey said he believed she was temporarily insane. Other witnesses coroborated Lacey.

When the judge imposed the sentence Mrs. Lacey exclaimed: "Oh, he can't mean that." Her husband assisted her out of the court room weeping, and she was taken back to jail.

Two Years for Shooting.

Judge Macfarlane sentenced William Smith two years to the workhouse. Smith was convicted of felonious assault in shooting W. H. Cooper at Braddock in August. Charles McCord, convicted of burglary in robbing the residence of Ida Aabrod, 16 Tannehill street, and stealing a gold watch and chain, was sentenced one year to the workhouse. Frank Carter, alias "Frank Ball," who was indicted with McCord for the burglary, was never arrested.

The Allegheny County Light Company sues D. Papapain of 257 Sixth avenue for $318 85. The company alleges that it furnished electric light to the defendant, but upon his refusing to pay the bill, disconnected the wires. Later, the company found, it asserts, the defendant had reconnected the wires. It is for the light thus obtained that the company sues.

Judge Miller handed down an opinion in the suit of Alfred R. Holtman against Emsworth to restrain the borough from proceeding with the improvement of the Beaver road. Judge Miller restrains the borough from paying two warrants already issued to the contractor, and from issuing any more warrants or from doing any more work on the improvement.

A libel in divorce was filed by Mary L. Meyers against George W. Meyers, charging cruel and barbarous treatment.

Henrys File Exceptions.

Exceptions were filed by D. F. Henry and wife to the finding in the case over the sale of the Hotel Duquesne. The exceptants claim the court erred in not finding that the paper held by Mrs. Henry was a contract and erred in not finding the realty company was an agent for Mrs. Sarah L. Black in the alleged sale to Mrs. Henry.

The grand jury returned the following true bills: Embezzlement, R. W. Dresson; suits lag a building, Harry Carr; felonious assault, Louis Arno, George Zelong; aggravated assault, Henry Wilson, Andrew Statuta, Mike Brennen, Charles J. Johnston; larceny, George Baiers; larceny by bailee, R. W. Dresson, Lucy Hancock; perjury, Arminta Schikel; mayhem, Ruth Johnston; selling liquor illegally, R. H. Jones, two; Pasqual De Marco, two; assault and battery, George Meisold; Abe Groetsen, Mary J. Powers, C. L. Terrell, David Duetch; misdemeanor, Boston Anderson, Peter Bergheimer, Ruben Cofskey.

The grand jury recommended the improvement of the Hilton and the Milltown and Unity public roads and refused to approve the construction of the Leechburg road on the ground that the improvement was not necessary.

The will of James M. Gaston gives to each of his four sisters 1,000 shares of the Iron Spring Consolidated Mining stock. To his wife he leaves the residue of his estate.

Dennis O'Leary gives all his property to his wife for life, and at her death gives the estate to her daughter, Mary O'Leary, subject to the payment of $200 to the bishop of the Roman Catholic diocese, $100 to the Little Sisters of the Poor, $100 to Hanna Hurley, $100 to Catherine O'Leary, and one-eighth of the value of the property, less $812 50, to each of the following named persons: James, Michael, Daniel, John and Mary O'Leary and Catherine O'Donnell and Ellen Howe.

Exceptions issued: Nellie H. Davis against Jonas McC. Miles, $211 75; Luella Schmidt against Edwin L. Peterson, mortgagor, and William J. Ferazier, terre tenant, $4,706 42; George Moodie & Son against John Schoen, $221 87; A. V. D. Watterson against Robert McFadden and Mary E. McFadden, $3,159; Mary Ruisandle against Caroline Lasle, $400.

To Sue Bridge Company.

Attorneys representing the river interests and the Union Bridge Company met yesterday before Judge Buffington, who will, today, make the rule absolute in the case in which the company was to show cause why an information should not be made against it and its officials, charging them with maintaining a nuisance. This information will be made before a United States commissioner today. If a true bill is found a motion will be made to quash the indictment, when all the legal questions involved will be raised and argued.

TO BUY HILL PROPERTY FOR ITALIAN MISSION

Monongahela U. P. Presbytery Considers Site on Fulton Street Upon Which to Erect Building.

During the quarterly meeting of Monongahela presbytery of the United Presbyterian church in the Third church, Diamond street, yesterday the committee appointed to secure a site for an Italian mission in the Hill district reported that two lots on Fulton street, which aggregate 50x124 feet, were available and options would soon be secured.

The other sites are under consideration, one at Logan street and Webster avenue, held at $20,000, and the other on Fulton street, for which $14,000 is asked. The committee favors the first mentioned property.

The Rev. James H. Miller of Chartiers church was called to Noblestown church, but declined the call, and the Noblestown congregation was placed in charge of Carnegie session for the present. The call of the Seventh church, Pittsburgh, to the Rev. J. W. Griffen of Westmoreland presbytery, was approved. A call from Verona church to the Rev. Albert Flick of Thirty-third street church was sustained. Official announcement was made that a new congregation had been formed in Crafton. Woodville congregation asked for a loan of $2,500 to build a parsonage, stating that houses were scarce. The appeal was approved and committed to the board of church extension.

During the afternoon Clarence J. Williamson and Charles W. Fulton were ordained as clergymen and James Blackwood was given a license to preach. The report of the committee of finance showed that of the $5,587 20 to be contributed by the churches, there yet remains $1,360 11 to be paid.

Large Ship Owner Dead.

LEITH, SCOTLAND, Sept. 26.—Hugh Blaik, a large ship owner and a pioneer in the shipping trade between Leith and American ports, died here today. Mr. Blaik has been blind for 20 years, but he continued to personally direct his extensive interests.

ORDERS INSPECTION OF ALL STEAMERS IN UNITED STATES

Secretary Metcalf of the Department of Commerce and Labor Gives Directions Under the New Laws of Congress.

[By Associated Press to The Gazette.]

WASHINGTON, Sept. 26.—A reinspection of all steamers in the United States was ordered today by the department of commerce and labor in a letter which Secretary Metcalf directed to George Uhler, supervising inspector general of the steamboat inspection service. No general inspection has been had since the revision of rules made in May to harmonize them with laws passed by the last congress, following the General Slocum disaster at New York. The secretary's letter to Mr. Uhler follows:

"In order that I may be fully advised of the result of the application of the revised rules and regulations of the steamboat inspection service, and with a view of ascertaining whether the supervising inspectors of the various districts, together with the local force under their supervision, have carried out all the requirements in law and the rules and regulations of the department based thereon, you are directed to order, through the supervising inspectors of the various districts, a reinspection, so far as may be possible, of all the steamers in the different districts.

"The execution of this order will be left to you. When this reinspection is completed, you will please make a detailed report to me, giving, among other things, the names of any supervising inspector or local inspectors, if any, in whose districts the boats are found to be below the required standard of efficiency.

"It is requested that you order this reinspection at once."

The supervising inspector general at once issued orders to the supervising inspectors of the various districts, directing them to proceed immediately to carry out Secretary Metcalf's instructions. The inspectors were told that they are expected particularly to examine the life preservers and fire hose and to witness fire drills on the vessels.

THEATER AND BUSINESS BLOCK

Realty Deal to Be Concluded in McKeesport This Week.

The final papers in one of the largest realty deals of the year in McKeesport are expected to be signed this week upon the arrival home from the west of D. L. Clark, who now owns the property. It is situated in Fifth avenue and has a frontage of 90 feet in that thoroughfare.

The price asked is said to be $80,000. The purchasers are understood to be Dr. T. L. White, owner of White's opera house; Frank Becker, proprietor of the National hotel, and other McKeesport capitalists. It is said the purchase means a new theater and business block on the site.

LITTLE BOY'S AWFUL ECZEMA

For Two Years He Could Not Sit Nor Lie Still—Suffered Terribly with Pain and Itching—Scratched Till Flesh Was Raw—Grew Worse Under Doctor's Care.

SPEEDILY CURED BY CUTICURA REMEDIES

"When my boy was six years old he suffered terribly with eczema. He could neither sit still nor lie in bed quiet, for the itching was dreadful. He would irritate spots by scratching with his nails, and that only made it worse. Nothing gave him any relief until I used the Cuticura Remedies, and I cannot praise them too much. A doctor treated him, and we tried almost everything, but the eczema seemed to spread. It started in a small place on the lower extremities and spread for two years until it very nearly covered the back part of his leg to the knee.

"Finally I got Cuticura Soap, Ointment, and Pills, and gave them according to directions. I used them first in the morning, and that evening before I put my boy to bed I used them again, and the improvement even in those few hours was surprising, the inflammation seemed to be so much less. I used two boxes of Cuticura Ointment, the same of the Pills and the Soap, and my boy was cured. He has never had a return of the eczema since. I hope you will publish my letter so the public will know what Cuticura has done for my boy. (signed) Mrs. A. J. Cochran, Jr., 1823 Columbia Avenue, Philadelphia, Pa., April 13, 1905."

Complete External and Internal Treatment for every Humor, from Pimples to Scrofula, from Infancy to Age, consisting of Cuticura Soap, 25c., Ointment, 50c., Resolvent, 50c. (in form of Chocolate Coated Pills, 25c. per vial of 60), may be had of all druggists. A single set often cures. Potter Drug & Chem. Corp., Sole Props., Boston.
